READERS ATTENTION:

This treatise should be read carefully from it's opening. Special chapter selection at first, leaves the 'thread of thought' at loose ends, and its premise with little foundation.

Let the reader bear ever in mind God's own Keywords to humanity's origin:

"Let us make man in our own image, and after our own likeness" – Gen 1:26

Creed is founded in ignorance,
and flourishes in darkness;

but truth is borne by light,
and is glorified in light!

‘Call to me and I will answer you and show you great and unsearchable things you do not know.’ YAHWEH thru His prophet Jeremiah 33:3

---

To multitudes in consternation at life’s grim realities; at the struggle and heart aches; at suffering and pain (mental-emotional as well as physical); to souls weary worn thru toil, anguish and perplexity at life’s inscrutable paradoxes.

Yes, and to other multitudes who believe in God yet who stagger in Unbelief because of that which seems so difficult to understand and to harmonize with their concept of a loving Father and Gracious Savior.

To all these is this treatise solemnly dedicated – that uncertainties may give way to understanding, and that their anguish may transform to JOY.

By Mikkel Dahl

Special Prologue

Repeatedly in this treatise the reader will find within quotation marks, conversations by the Elohim. The ‘-im’ ending denotes plurality. Although the highlights, or substance of such conversations were spiritually received by the author, he makes no claim that the words herein found were the precise ones by the Elohim. The words are – more or less – those of the writer to convey as closely as possible the substance of that which was received.

Church indoctrinated readers should not allow themselves to stumble over that herein which appears to indicate more than ONE creator. Precisely the same is found in the opening of Genesis where it is recorded: “Let US make man —.” The seeker after truth who finds it difficult to reconcile those Genesis passages – as well as this treatise – with the “ONE God” of Exodus-Leviticus should read “GOD, Who What and Where.” The difficulty clears as soon as a person enters into a full understanding of the word ‘God.’

To countless thousands of readers who have not been students of MD, much herein will be found of such tremendous scope and depth – that its authenticity may be questioned. HOW does he know?" will be the question arising in many minds.

Yet the personal students of Mikkel Dahl will understand that these awesome revelations of Truth spanning an 'eternity' of time have been received similarly to his numerous other revelations which are backed up by the proofs of history and cross-checking prophetic revelations.

The readers' credulity will not be strained by the claim that he was taken up to heaven for any briefing; but were the reader to know him in the hours of that 'madness' (or ecstasy) when the high voltage revelations pour in, perhaps it would be easier to understand the awesome scope and detail of the Glory-Truths herein set forth.

Again in places certain Bible narratives are referred to as allegories depicting or symbolizing this or that. Such are not intended to dispute the historic veracity of the Bible; but rather that God so directed the course of peoples and events as to dramatize Truths He wanted preserved inerrantly through history.

Forward

"FAITH" is a wonderful substance to possess. But unfortunately, with the advance of science and the increase of learning (through materialistically oriented channels), there is a proneness to ever increasing skepticism towards that which savors of God and His revelations to man.

The churches used to teach that the earth is flat with four corners; 'created' almost 6000 years ago, with a sun and moon circling about us. But dawned the day of scientifically founded progress: mechanics and sciences which thoroughly made laughing stock out of such childish notions. This was a serious blow to 'faith'. (For, 'faith' had been founded in man-established institutions – churches, and the 'doctrines and traditions of men' instead of in the inerrant word of God. For assuredly, none of the above can be established from the Bible but rather much to the contrary.) Had the ministers of God 'been taught by His SPIRIT', and tutored in His Word by the selfsame Spirit, no such nonsense as a flat surfaced disc of earth, 6000 years young would ever have been preached. But because man has ever had 'itching ears', he has heaped unto himself man-appointed parrots, repeating on broken records what empty skull-caps had previously muttered in the stupor of 'night's deep sleep'. (See John 9:4; II Tim 4:3-4; also Jer. 5:31; 50:6.)

Now the situation has greatly worsened. Because our children get schooled in the advances of materialistic science on the one hand, they find no adequate counterbalance on the other, because pulpiteers still adhere to 'the traditions of men'. Hence the wisdom, beauty and grandeur of the Word of God is given from little to no chance of competing with the so-called erudition of men. So 'faith' suffers defeat, gets anemic and slumps into a coma.

Even among those brought up in Christian homes, who have had incipient faith nurtured by scripture readings and church attendance, there is a growing tendency to question, and to drift away. Much of this comes about through the simple process of reasoning. It is not uncommon to hear the voicing of such thoughts as these: "IF there is a God and a GOOD God, then why does He permit wars in ever mounting ferocity, with its appalling consequences of human grief and suffering? IF there is a God which hears human prayer, WHY do not sick people get liberated from their diseases and suffering, especially those who have apparently lived God-fearing lives? IF there is a God, why do we see so much of the innocents suffering, such as innocent little children with incurable diseases, others maimed and crippled for life? IF there is a God, WHY does He not manifest Himself to us that we might KNOW – beyond all doubt? IF there is a good God, He would not prepare a 'hell' both for the here and hereafter: a 'furnace of fire' in which to roast and torment, time without end, most of those born into this world, simply because they failed to fully please Him!" So, 'faith' goes into eclipse; atheism increases, and agnosticism is rampant; to say nothing of the meteoring crime-wave and society-rocking immorality.

THEREFORE is this volume undertaken to set forth an understanding of God's word, at least to such extent that the reader may see the GRAND OBJECTIVE behind creation; that he may arrive at a satisfying answer to the numerous and bedeviling questions which have termited at man's faith in God, and His goodness.

With learning comes progress; with understanding comes FREEdom from bondage to fear, yielding 'faith' which leads on into peace and joys unspeakable.

Traditions and Fallacies

Woe unto you lawyers! for you have taken away the KEY OF KNOWLEDGE: you entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering you hindered." Lk 11:52

The 'lawyers' to whom Jesus spoke as above, were what we today call 'theologians.' Our Lord threw it in their teeth as to what they were, therefore they hated Him: neither has that clique changed their spots unto this day.

In the days of Moses, great and awe-inspiring revelations were given by God Almighty during the two shifts of 40 days upon the holy mount. Much of this was substantially imbedded, in form, weights and measurements, and others veiled in rites and statutes. Hence the tabernacle pitched by Moses and its multitudinous rites.

As much of this as God saw fit was made plain to Moses, and as much as the latter dared, he revealed to his brother and his sons. Over and above this we must bear in mind that the High priesthood possessed the Urim and Thummim which, when putting on the ephod (which, presumably, held the Urim and Thummim), enabled any one of the priests to receive a direct answer from God. Wherefore, such mysteries as were puzzling, they could get elucidated – if as and when. Because of such revelations and understanding being available to them, we read that at the time of the 'nativity' the Israel people were then in a State of anticipation of their Messiah coming into the world. (Lk.2:25-26, 38 and 3:15.)

But this 'key of Knowledge' charged our Lord, you have unscrupulously 'taken away,' neither did you personally 'enter in'.

Throughout this long 'night' of spiritual darkness, multitudinous misconceptions, and 'doctrines of men' have arisen, because the 'key of knowledge' was no longer available.

In the pentecostal 'upper room' the disciples received a degree of illumination, but their labors became directed chiefly towards spiritual reformation of their own people, rather than towards an unveiling of the great Truths – hidden from the days of Moses. And, when the 'fathers fell asleep' so did also the church in general fall asleep! (While men slept, His enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat' – Mt. 13:25). The result is what we observe today: a multitude of discordant voices, with countless sects, denominations, and pit-isms, with its ever-mounting spiritual ignorance until the whole world totters on the cataclysmic brink of Armageddon.

THIS was foreseen as the eye of the Master scanned the vista of the unborn eras, and He said: 'When the Son of man come shall He find THE faith on the earth' – Lk. 18:8. (Here it should be pointed out that the translators of both the Authorized as well as Revised versions have DELIBERATELY falsified His words to read 'find FAITH'? intentionally leaving out the specific Article

'THE' – which is to be found in the Textus Receptus', and in ALL of t h e old Gr texts. By leaving it out, the reader gets the impression that Jesus simply meant faith would have weakened in general. But that identical clique with the selfsame leopard spots whom our Lord excoriated in His days, dared not 'let the cat out of the bag' by putting In the specific article 'the.' For, with it, the reader would immediately recognize that our Lord foretold that in these days TRUTH would have become so distorted, and hued with the spurious 'doctrines of men' that – go where He may – 'THE faith' would not be found preached in any of His churches!

Hence we have a 'furnace of fire' roasting and tormenting countless billions of human souls, 'time WITHOUT END.' And every new born babe represents 'a virgin SOUL' fresh from the hand of God! Most of whom are 'damned into hell for ever and ever'! With a mighty 'Savior' in the heavenlies, entirely helpless to do a thing to stop the mad rush of innumerable billions into 'eternal torment!' Now, let us take a careful look at the Word of God – that we may be inspired to put the boot to these 'tares' and Pit-isms, peddled in the name of Christ; that the readers heart may be in awe before its Maker, and exult in rhapsody at the grandeur of His Plan for Man.

"Why don't you judge for yourselves what is right?"

Jesus – Lk 12:57

God's MASTER-PLAN Of Love For Man

- * "Let us make man in our image, after our likeness; and let
- * them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the
- * fowl of the air and over the cattle, and over all the earth,
- * and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth...
- * So God created man in His own image, in the image of God
- * created He him; male and female created He them." Gen 1:26-27

Here the first, simple and basic thought is that MAN has been brought forth in the very image of GOD – his Maker. In the preceding verses, we are told that fish, fowl, and beasts were made 'after their own kind', but man IN THE IMAGE OF GOD.

Wherefore it is right and proper that we come to a better understanding of God thru a careful look at MAN. IF that we cannot (or should not) do, then are we not 'in the image of God.' Repeatedly is God spoken of as our 'Father'.

Take good and normal parents: WHAT do they desire for their children? That they shall be normal, strong, and healthy, growing up INTO THEIR OWN IMAGE. And that their progeny shall achieve in life – at least as much as the parents. To this end do normally good parents labor hard and sacrifice much – that their children may have the fullest chance to achieve their own stature physically, mentally, socially, and spiritually.

THAT gives us the first and basic picture of God's plan for man: that all of His children shall arrive at His own stature. What vision transcendent!

Man does not expect his progeny to 'come to stature' in either a day or a year. And that applies to the 'stature' be it in body, soul, or mind, or socially and politically in the sight of others.

By what process of warped reasoning can we arrive at the conclusion that God expects man in 'three score years and ten' to become like unto Himself? Or that humanity at large could even approach that of 'gods' in 6000 years?

And the Lord said:

- * "My spirit shall not always strive with man,
- * for that he also is flesh: yet his days shall be an hundred
- * and twenty years' – Gen 6:3

Nowhere in Scripture is it recorded, nor yet in the history of man, that the 'days of man' have ever been 120 years. Of a very few – like Moses – it has been recorded that they lived to be 120 years. To postulate – as have our churches – that Noah preached unto them for a period of 120 years is but to announce our crass ignorance – if not imbecility. Assuredly, there is not the faintest trace of Scripture backing for it.

God did not say 'with these people', neither 'with this generation, but rather 'with MAN' that is, humanity at large. We have but to look at the record of God's dealing with man that HIS prophets, how, down thru the centuries His Spirit did continue to 'STRIVE with man' to lead him into paths of rectitude: that in spirit he might grow towards his Father's image. And even to this day it is apparent that His Spirit is still STRIVING with man. And plenty of individuals recognize within their inner selves, how the Spirit of God has ceaselessly STRIVEN with their own stubborn spirit, to bring them into the paths of His Righteousness, Truth and Goodness.

Not for a split moment can a sane individual countenance the drivell in the Revised Version which renders the same passage, 'My Spirit shall not abide in man' et cetera. Was not His Spirit abiding in Noah and his children? Even following the flood, Noah lived 350 years! Or maybe we should be so contrary as to say that 'His spirit did abide' in that wicked generation before the flood, but that ever since 'His Spirit' has not been in man? – In Gen 6:3 there is not the faintest allusion to Noah and his children being any exception.

Wherefore, since we are in His image and should manifest His Spirit, we must be 'children' of sufficient honor unto our Divine Father, to give Him credit or enough intelligence to say what he meant and for sufficient honesty to mean what He said.

In Ps 90:4 and II Pet 3:8 we read that a thousand years are but as ONE DAY with God. So, when we have outgrown our stupidly childish concept of God and His Word, we come to realize that the 'Elohim' were in conversation in Gen 6:3 even as recorded in 1:26.

Now, according to His revealed word, God is no earth dwelling creature of flesh being roused by the morning's sunrise nor wearily counting the years by the march of earth seasons. But on His plane of being, ONE THOUSAND YEARS (on earth to man) is but as ONE DAY with Him. Therefore:
 $120 \times 360 \times 1000 = 43,200,000$  earth-years as that measure of time which God has predicted His Spirit would continue to 'strive' with His children; to bring them to a recognition of Truth and to that stage of sufficient maturity when He no longer needs' to 'strive' with them to pattern their life in the Father's Image.

According to Ex 12:2-3,6, the Passover lamb was to be shut up on the 10th day of the 1st month and kept to the close of the 14th day. That yields 4 days during which the lamb was kept in readiness to be sacrificed for the people's deliverance. Whereby we see that by the same equation to time four days with God would equal 4,000 earth years. And THAT is the generally recognized era of time between the 'fall' of Adam and Eve, and the birth of the Nazarene who became 'the Lamb of God' – unto all peoples' deliverance.

Wherefore as the 4 days from the 10th to the 14th of the month represented 4000 years so similarly do we know that the first ten days of the month of necessity speaks to us of 1,000 years as preceding the fall. However, we are not told that there were no months or years previous to that time. (This has been mentioned that the reader may perceive the error of the churches in their claim of a 6000-year young earth, or even humanity. When we postulate such childish nonsense, then we imply also that God was the prize loafer of all time – having done nothing back thru all eternity until a scant 6000 years ago!!

Whenever have we heard of a normally good parent who would beget countless children, only to commit the bulk of them to hideous torture from early life to end of days merely because of some disobedience, or from weakness to fully live up to a strict code by an exacting father? – – – So let us not impute to a loving heavenly Father, bestial and sadistic qualities which, by contrast, would make saints out of the most grossly depraved humans. Such Frankensteinish hell-lore was invented by a carnal priesthood during the night of man's spiritually 'dark ages', to hold in fear's abject bondage the souls of credulous and ignorant masses. Then did tyranny stalk the world of Christendom, that its 'golden eggs' should not be lacking from its massive 'goose'. And as 'persuasion', the mounting flame from burning 'states' carried heavenward the souls of countless martyrs whose chief sin was that of loving Christ and Truth more than the ecclesiastical Pit-beasts in Rome.

Let the reader bear ever in mind history's verdict:

- * 'twas not the Church which Christianized evil governments,
- * but emphatically state governments which civilized ecclesiastical heads
- * in both the Roman and Protestant camps.

(Readers desiring a better insight into this, as well as an understanding of 'everlasting torment' passages in scripture, should read 'The Great Subversion', and 'Truth' also by Mikkel Dahl – coming soon to the web.)

"I have also spoken by the prophets, and I have multiplied visions, and USED SIMILITUDES by the ministry of the prophets" – Hos 12:10

By which God has clearly told us that He has hidden the great Truths in parable, and by 'type' as enacted in drama by the prophets and His people. 'This was also corroborated by the Christ in His several sayings on that last fateful night, As for instance, "I have yet many things to say unto you, but you cannot bear them now! John 16:12), indicating that there were progressive stages of readiness for perception. And 'these things have I spoken to you in proverbs, but the time comes when I shall no more speak unto you in proverbs, but I shall show you plainly of the Father,' (John 16:25)

What! Was it beyond the scope of Omniscient Wisdom and outside the power of an 'Almighty God', to so pre-arrange for all details of dramas to be wrought, that they should speak to distantly future generations (when in later 'adolescence' they should be at the approaches to understanding), of His Plan for Man, in detail and awe inspiring grandeur? Well, hardly!

So once more let us glance at the 120 years which His spirit would strive with man! Only one truly great and outstanding Bible character is recorded whose life span precisely covered that number. And that was Moses who brought deliverance to his people. Although Christ implied that John the Baptist was greater than Moses, none outside of the Christ performed works even remotely comparable to the power wielded by Moses.

Wherefore, the age of Moses speaks to us of that very matter God lamented in Gen 6:3: of His STRIVING with man (to bring him to maturity and paths of rectitude). Moses too STROVE greatly with his people to get them disciplined unto readiness for the land of Promise. Thus he became a TYPE for that degree of spiritual progress, and state of maturity when His Spirit shall no longer need to 'strive with man'.

Look back to the extension of the number 120 and see how it yields 43,200,000. Stripped down to its basic figure it is 432. And THAT was the precise period of time required from Jacob's 'going down into Egypt' until his descendents had been delivered, led thru the wilderness, set up the holy Tabernacle (type of the human body) and received God's first order to 'go in to possess the land!' (For a corroboration of this statement, the reader may refer to Ex 12:40,41; 40:17; Num 10:11,33; 13:1,2, 25 and Deut. 1:20,21.)

Israel means the princely servant of God who 'strives' to enter into the blessings. Egypt means the hemmed in land, which is an allusion to this material world 'hemmed in' by the limitations of flesh and the carnal mind. Ruled over by Pharaoh which means 'the great house', and the OPPRESSOR of God's soldier-servants. Thus did he typify lucifer who was given charge of this entire world and its surrounding strata, who is also the constant oppressor of man. The wilderness is a type of this world of TESTING after that man has heard the call of God to CLEAR OUT from bondage to Lucifer. The mount Sinai typifies that mountaintop experience with God when His Law of Righteousness becomes engraved by the finger of God upon the two tablets of the human heart (positive and negative = Dos and DO NOTs).

From this understanding of symbolic representation, the picture clears. Thus, from the type that His chosen spirit-children 'went down into Egypt' – becoming incarnate in human form here on earth subject to Lucifer, UNTIL they hear the call of God to RETURN HOME; go thru the wilderness experience of testing, culminating in THE LAW OF RIGHTEOUSNESS within engraved by God; and the human 'tabernacle' dedicated and consecrated to SERVE and OBEY God until He says: "Rise up go in to POSSESS THE LAND "beyond the river, is exactly 432 years, or the precise era which 'His Spirit should STRIVE with man.'

THAT visions the day when man has attained a Divine, or God-consciousness. For, in God's number-language (see the writer's 'Number Symbolism') we must multiply by 100 to become representative for the world; and by 1000 to raise the human to the plane of the Divine. Hence,  $432 \times 100 \times 1000 = 43,200,000!$  (Here let the reader PAUSE sufficiently for deep thought, that the terrific depth and significance of these number-factors may 'SINK IN.')

Because of that long 'night' of spiritual darkness which has reigned up to the moment; and our priesthoods (Catholic and Protestant) in the stupor of sleep can but parrot the traditions of men, are we now on the brink of world wide catastrophe.

* "Where there is no vision, the people perish!"

TRUTH has been distorted; the 'key of knowledge' removed!

"But IN VAIN they do worship me, teaching for doctrine the precepts of men" Mat 15:9, see also Isa 29:13.

HIS distorted glory-Truths according to the 'traditions of men': we could appropriately put down in the form of a mathematical equation, thus:

God's veiled Truth x Imagination / Confusion x 2 / Insanity = 1 monstrous inaninity!

Wherefore, let us look afresh at the glory of His Truth-word, that we may apprehend the Grandeur of God's Plan for man.

God's Fatherhood

The Jews answered Jesus: "We have one father, even God," (Jn 8:41). For this they had plenty Scripture backing – such as Deut. 32:6. But let us discern wherein He was their/our 'Father.'

If a scientist constructs a robot which walks, talks, and works, we would still not impute fatherhood to him because of the invention. Should another one concoct an egg which hatches a chick, we would still not concede him fatherhood (because of the chick).

In the opening portion of the oldest record which present man has, it is written: "and they brought forth abundantly AFTER THEIR (own) KIND." THAT was the standard of parenthood thousands of years ago, and still is: ONE'S OWN KIND must first be brought into being before parenthood is conceded.

Is God a MAN? Unless or until we can definitely establish that God was/is a man of flesh, blood and bones as ourselves, then His creation of man did not constitute Him a 'father' any more so than did oceans full of fish or sloughs full of slugs.

Christ said: "A spirit has not flesh and bones as you seen that I have" (Luke 24:39). And He also said that God is a SPIRIT. This is backed up by Yahweh's innumerable utterances, saying "My SPIRIT..." Wherefore, to become a 'father', He had to bring one or more spirit beings into existence. Thus and then only could He be classed as a father. And this we find declared in His word. The holy apostle wrote of Him as 'the Father of spirits' (Heb. 12:9) founded in Zech. 12:1 which declares that God 'forms the spirit in man.' Which means that the physical form we recognize as man is indwelled by a SPIRIT. In Numbers 27:16 we are told of 'the spirits of all flesh.' These scripture passages lead us to the inevitable conclusion that God, as 'the Father of spirits,' has begotten myriads of spirit beings (of which almost six billion are indwelling human beings at this time).

Our medical scientists have determined that within the gonads of the young human male, hundreds of millions of LIFE-sperms are generated within the space of days; that in comparatively short time he has generated as many or more LIFE-sperms than the entire host of stars visible to the telescopic eye of science!

Are we not told that man was fashioned IN THE IMAGE of God? Wherefore, since God was not handicapped by the limitations of earth and flesh (which limits the manifest progeny of man), we can rightfully, and MUST assume that God fathered multitudinous myriads of SPIRITS. And, since we observe that the urge to beget one's kind, manifests in cycles over a period of time, we can also rightfully suppose that the spirit beings ('children' of God) were brought forth in cyclic waves. Bearing then in mind that (from our perspective), a thousand years are but as ONE DAY with God, we must conclude that these 'waves of virgin spirits' were separated in time, likely by very vast eras. That is, the time of their begetting constitutes them beings of venerable age, down to comparatively young ones. Therefore are we told in His word, of angelic 'order' (Eph. 1:21 and Col. 1:16, which passages are fully supported in the O.T. by reference to archangels, seraphim, cherubim and angels). The old word rendered 'angel' simply means a messenger – whether heavenly or earthly. Even the word

'messenger' should speak a volume to us. For, in any well-organized business or state of society, the 'messengers' are close to the bottom by rank, being largely without experience or understanding in matters of the business. Usually, in course of time they rise above that rank and progress into positions of increasing responsibility.

Utterly impossible it is to reconcile that God 'created' spirit being of varying rank and power, with the fundamental fact that God is the FATHER-Spirit, and the very essence of TRUTH and ALL GOOD ("And the Lord passed by before him and proclaimed: 'The Lord, the Lord God, merciful and gracious, longsuffering and abounding in goodness and Truth' " – Exod. 34:6).

GOD did not become our 'father' because of the physical body having been fashioned in His own image. Did not God Himself stress the fact IMAGES were not to be worshipped or revered? That is, the image should not be confused with the LIVING REALITY. Wherefore, it is not the physical image (body) which constituted Him a 'father', but that SPIRIT which He exuded INTO the face of the image (body) He fashioned as a vehicle, or as a "tabernacle" for the infant-spirit He had begotten. What! Was God a windbag that He could 'breathe' into the nostrils of Adam some vitalizing atmosphere? No, beloved, such fantasies are but contortions of His Truth, hatched in man's blind ignorance. Is God a mixture of gases? HE could exude out from His own being into Adam nothing but that which He was/is, namely, SPIRIT! Therefore, and thereby did He become A 'FATHER.' Would a normally good earthly parent deliberately BEGET offspring of greatly varying intelligence and potential, in order that later some would be only fit to clean barns and scrub toilets while others to be business tycoons and statesmen of honor? Well hardly! The normally good parent desires nothing but the HIGHEST and BEST for one's offspring; neither does noble parentage ever find complete contentment until it beholds the progeny having risen to its own status and achievements (or better!). Can we rightfully ascribe to God (who is the father of the spirit within), less nobility and goodness than that which dwells at the core of His spirit-children?

Wherefore, let us properly understand His expressions: the physical man was not His child, but merely formed or created. The spirit within was not 'created' but BEGOTTEN. HE did not 'create' spirits of varying ranks and powers, but He CONSTITUTED them as such, or APPOINTED them to fill posts for which they were best suited according to the AGE they had attained, and the experience acquired. God is not whimsical and arbitrarily wicked: HE is a LOVING FATHER.

The 6000-year Delusion

SCIENCE has well established that our present civilization dates back an approximate 6000 years; howbeit, fossil-remains give mute evidence of preceding eras of time, and humans dating back millions of years. Even the length of the Niagara river gorge shows us that an approximate 6000 years elapsed since the ice-age. This can easily be computed on the basis of the known rate of recessive break-down of the rock-bed over which the massive waters tumble. But the mere fact of only 6000 years since the earth's last ice-age ceased, is by far any proof of the childish contention that the earth was 'created' at that time with man just then fresh from the hand of God! In fact it proves the contrary.

Even Scripture mightily declares the very opposite. No sane, open-minded person can read the first chapter of Genesis and conclude it to be synonymous with the 'Adam and Eve' account in Gen 2:7-23. The humanity detailed in Genesis' first chapter were hermaphrodites, ranging the earth throughout unspecified eras, and (now) undeterminable eons of time. While the Adam And Eve account is the story of the cleavage, or separation of the sexes into single-sexed bodies. The 'rib story' is but another distortion of the original truth: the Hebrew 'tzio' – stem being a place, or a cell or side; hence that place, or sell-SIDE structure, which the hand of omnipotent power removed, and closed up the flesh in place thereof, from which cell-structure He fashioned the other single-sexed being.

To postulate that 'Adam' was 'created' on the 6th, 24-solar-hour day, and before its close he had surveyed with an assessing eye ALL LIVING FORMS and 'naming them', yet finding among them no suitable companion; that there remained of that 6th, 24-solar-hour day still sufficient time for God to reflectively stroke His chin whiskers and say: Well, maybe I should make a suitable companion for Adam: that He then rushed Adam into the surgical department, slapped on the anesthetic, yanked out a rib, fused up the flesh, and built around that rib A WOMAN for His Adam – ALL before the sun had set on that 6th day, is such rank asininity that it could scarcely do credit to a 6 year old moron.

The basic error behind this fantastic absurdity, was founded in man's childish concept of God, and His universe. The creation story is a detailing of the sequence in which God brought forth substance – out of chaos, and His endowing of form with life. But infantile minds conceived of God as an earth-dwelling being, who reckoned time by the setting and rising of the sun, even throughout three days BEFORE He made the sun! (Gen 1:14-19). And such an 'intelligentsia' have constituted themselves to be our spiritual luminaries! We call them theologians. And grant them honors!!!

"The evening and the morning were the first day" et cetera. Since recorded history began, man has never observed anything of the kind. From evening unto morning, whether we go forward or backward, has never measured more than 12 hours. And, since man must think of night as following evening, it doesn't even become "day"!

It is NOT written 'from evening unto the following evening', neither 'from evening and morning unto the next morning,' but distinctly, that 'evening and the morning were the first day.'

Thus did God strive to impress upon man's rudimentary intelligence, that His reckoning of time WAS NOT THAT OF MAN'S WAY, but diametrically opposite!

To men of science, there is but one motion of the earth known which answers to this opposite, or BACKWARD progress which we could say goes from evening to morning. This is known as the 'precession of the equinox'. It requires almost 72 of our years for this backward motion to amount to 1% (which is the sun's motion in our solar day). IF, then, we were to view this period in terms of '1000 years for a day', that 'day' would run into more than twenty-six million years, while the 'week' of creation would be more than 183 million years. IF to that we add the further consideration that we are now in not less than the 15th day (the 'lamb' sacrificed as closing the 14th day – Ex 12:5-6), that would compute to more than 366 million years.

Here there is no intention of postulation that period as the time elapsed since 'creation', but it is intriguing to note how it comes into remarkable agreement with that which men of science have advanced during the last few decades.

What is asserted emphatically is the UNbiblical asininity of the commonly taught 6000-year era since creation, and 'a new human soul fresh from the hand of God at the birth of every infant.' IF and when we consider the apparent likelihood of God commencing His labors as affecting our planet and this minute segment of galaxy-filled space some 367 millions of years ago, in relationship to the incalculably vaster reaches of manifest creation, then we behold the answer to God's activities as covering the staggering eras of a past eternity. But when we postulate a 144 solar-hour period (6 days) of creation for the entire universe, we have propounded hare-brained drivel which is UNbiblical, making out of God the Prize Loafer of all time, and makes us unworthy of a chattering monkey's respect. "In the beginning" says the record: who could ever compute THAT fantastic era of time!

WHEN we have gathered together all pet monstrosities as preached by our modern priesthoods, and dispatched them to Bikini to await the next H-bomb test, THEN are we ready to behold a portion of God's Being; to understand a segment of His plan for man, and to hear His voice: the tender voice of a loving Father, calling to His erring children to draw nigh, and HEAR His words of counsel: "COME HOME!"

Our Lucifer-led Society

And the devil said unto Him: "All this power will I give you, and the glory of them: FOR THAT IS DELIVERED UNTO ME, and to whomsoever I will give it." Lk 4:6

It should long have been apparent unto whomsoever thinks that ours is a demon ruled world society And as above, we have the words of Lucifer himself clearly, emphatically, and unequivocally. Did Jesus answer him: "You liar! You have nothing to give to anyone! Much to the contrary. Jesus' retort that man should worship but God, was a tacit admission that this realm was indeed LUCIFER'S KINGDOM!

Therefore did He send His disciples to preach, saying: "The Kingdom of God has come nigh unto you." Which clearly implied that it was not then known on earth. THAT is why in God's word to and thru His prophets, that He consistently spoke of the Israel people as His own peculiar people, 'not to be numbered among the nations' (Numb 23:9). Israel were the people He had chosen to infiltrate Lucifer's kingdom, by which tactics He planned to ultimately redeem the entire world society. 'HIS chosen people' were not necessarily better than others, but only peculiarly fitted for a particularly strategic task. All the rest of the world He called 'nations' (which word has consistently been rendered 'gentiles' throughout Scripture.)

We must therefore look carefully to see, grasp, and understand the HOW and WHY of world society being completely in the power of Lucifer instead of Yahweh's. True, Almighty God is the overruling power, but Lucifer the 'regent' running world society. And, until Lucifer has had his day and fully wrought out the work in God's strategic plan, God will not interfere.

There was a time when this earth was a 'paradise' for a segment of God's children. Speaking of Lucifer, His word declares: "You has been in Eden – 'the garden of God; every precious stone was your covering ..... You are the anointed cherub that covers; and I HAVE SET YOU so; you were upon the holy mountain of God; you have walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire. You were perfect in your ways from the day that you were created, until iniquity was found in you" Ezek. 28:13,15. (Here it should be observed that 'created' is a gross mistranslation of the originals. No spirit being was ever created but all were begotten by the Divine Parent. And, in the days of their arising maturity, ranks or orders were created for them, they were appointed to specified posts and certain ones set to rule over specific realms (I have set you so). But then dawned the day of Lucifer's up-surging vanity when he became enamored over his own brightness and concluded that he would become a 'god' over his appointed realm with all of its host worshipping him (instead of Yahweh God). Of that time it was written:

"And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth" Rev 12:4. Actually, this was written for the future, but the point is: Lucifer's tail could not draw those who had not previously entered into allegiance with him. "His tail" bespeaks his followers: that vast retinue which once in the dim past beheld his glory and worshipped him – contrary to the Divine fiat. These are referred to as 'the children of the devil' Lucifer has no LIFE in him in the sense that he is capable of begetting his own kind (John 5:26); but the WORK which any being does is the manifest of that which is within. And, on whose pattern those works are based, it is said that of such is he the child. When Jesus was speaking to the descendants of Abraham, He said: "IF you were the children of Abraham, you would do the works of Abraham" (see John 8:37,39,41,44). This is founded in the fact that a son ever with his father, learns to ape his father. Wherefore, those whose works are evil are patterned on the Evil One, and hence his 'children' (though not begotten by him).

In that we are told that 'his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven', we must understand the 'stars' (actually burners or shiners) as referring to spirit-beings. And "the third part" shows us the percentage of those who were deceived by Lucifer and entered into disobedience to the Divine Parent. Because of that they were 'cast out', or excluded from the innermost realm of the Father, becoming exclusively confined to the earth and its surrounding strata.

Whether or not Satan deceived the third part of all begotten spirit-beings, or only a third part of those assigned to the earth-realm, is, perhaps, difficult to establish by Scripture, hence beyond our right to say. But it is the writer's conviction that it refers only to those who were especially assigned to the earth-realm.

Who Are We?

And the apostles said unto the Lord, 'Increase our faith.' And the Lord said:

“—But which of you having a bond-slave plowing, or * feeding cattle, will say unto him by and by when he comes from the field, * ‘Go and sit down to meat?’ And will not rather * say unto him, ‘Make ready wherewith I may eat, and gird your- * self and serve me, till I have eaten and drank; and afterward *, you shall eat and drink?’” – Lk 17:5, 7-8

(Here it should be pointed out that the ‘servant’ rendering we find in so many English texts, is a gross mis rendering of the Gr ‘denies’ which is actually a bond slave. That is, one sold into, or taken over into slavery in order to liquidate a past debt. Such were common in the days of Jesus. There were also hired helpers receiving pay. In the Gr they were ‘misthion’. So, there is not the faintest excuse for rendering doulos that of ‘servant’ which – tous – implies one working for pay at one’s free will. But the doulos was one who, thru poor judgement, had been taken in by his own ambitions and become bankrupt. Then his chief creditor would take him over into slavery to liquidate the debt. THAT is the kind of person Jesus used to illustrate His answer unto the apostles.

Have you perceived it? Can you take the shock?

WE the earth humanity – are indwelled by those spirits whom Lucifer deceived! WE are the rebels against Yahweh-God. WE are the deluded ones who ‘hitched our cart to a star’ – the wrong star. We were ‘taken in’ by the subsidiary LIGHT of the realm. And so we were ‘cast down to earth’ until we should have ‘worked out our own salvation.’ Howbeit, the Compassionate One came to make a great sacrifice, opening up a short-cut back into the realm of the Father for all who will renounce the false ‘star’ and cling by faith to the Redeemer.

WE are the ‘bond slaves’ whose ambitions exceeded our judgment; WE grasped for more than we could manage and handle; we were too ignorant to consider the day of reckoning.

Therefore were we taken over into slavery unto Lucifer: slaves unto him whom we chose to serve in dim ages of the past.

The apostles were the Lord’s especially chosen out from among the ‘chosen people,’ (chosen to infiltrate and sabotage the enemy’s kingdom). These, even those did he say were ‘bond-slaves’ of Lucifer: their indwelling spirits were of that host which are numbered in Lucifer’s ‘tail.’ Therefore retorted the Christ to them, substantially saying: “What gall you have to ask me for ‘power of attorney’ that you may flash in regal splendor, wielding powers far beyond your humble and outcast station! Back in the folly of your teenage days, you ignored your Father’s command, being taken in by the Shining one who promised you wisdom. Indeed you are getting it (at the price of ‘blood, sweat and tears')! FAITHFULNESS in duty is required of all 'sons.' YOU were grossly unfaithful in the past. Therefore must you now PROVE your repentance over the past willful disloyalty to your Parent, by laboring hard and patiently to faithfully carry out all that you have been commanded to do. THAT IS YOUR DUTY (as a bond slave.) IF then, over and above this, I behold in you eagerness to go out of your way to help, to comfort and succor others, THEN will I gradually add to your faith, that you may better be enabled to help those who are eager in returning to the Father's estate.'

So often we see humble and upright folk, toiling with great patience, yet they make no headway, many of them ending up tragically. And at times we bear such bemoaning their 'fate', And there are times when we hear from others who know them well, something along this line: "There can be no God; no JUST God in heaven who would let a thing like that happen to 'John Brown'."

From man's limited perspective, such sentiments may appear in place. Yet without spiritual vision and understanding, the judgment is based entirely on the present and now.

Such conclusions arise because of a complete ignorance of the indwelling spirit's past: of its willful disobedience to the Father, and its long trail of works-in-evil.

Here let the reader pause to more deeply ponder the tragic depth of Truth underlying the facts of 'man's lost estate.'

Yes, let one also deeply ponder THE abysmal error of church dogma which postulates a virgin soul fresh from the hand of God at the birth of every human infant! Could a delusion be greater? But 'bond slaves' taken over to work out a portion of the incalculable debt! Incalculable? Yes! But bear also in mind that through the grace of God, cyclic 'years of release' were established wherein slaves were to be released. And after this cycle had run to its own square (7 x 7), the JUBILEE ushered in when all forfeited proper ties were also restored: when ALL rested and rejoiced in full rights and liberties restored. (More of this later).

Let the reader here stop to realize that the Old Testament account of Adam and Eve; of the: patriarchs, prophets and Israel down to the Christ and His apostles, are ALL 'allegories to portray for us our spirits' beginning and entry into disobedience and error; together with the long, tortuous trail back home to the Father's estate. They were all but 'plays' enacted on the world stage, directed by God Almighty to portray the mighty Truths in magnitude and detail – that even the dumb should understand. But let not the reader fall into the error of many that they are only allegories. For, God Almighty was well able to have all the recorded details wrought out in reality. And that He did.

THEREFORE the many peculiar twists and tragedies in the Truth-dramas enacted – that every little detail of His Masterplan for the spirits in bondage to become restored to the Edenic estate, might be faithfully portrayed.

It has been written that the heart of man is deceitful above all things and desperately wicked (Jer. 17:9). Why wouldn't it be? The heart is in charge of the blood and, 'in the blood' is the life. The spirit and life cannot be separated, for, spirit is THE LIFE. Wherefore, since the spirit indwelling man is a REBEL spirit: willfully rebellious against the Father in dim ages of the past, it must remain the normal expectation that his heart should manifest deceit and wickedness.

In many instances here on earth we find that those who have entered into willful error, and consequently come under the corrective chastisement of a wise and righteous parent, or into the hands of the law; also come to remorse and repentance, leading to a correcting of their ways.

Similarly with the REBEL spirits we are. 'The mills of God grind slowly, but they grind exceedingly fine.' Lucifer is man's taskmaster while still in his post as earth-REGENT, yet God is the OVERLORD. Therefore his way of life has been to go from one grief to another, that he may get so wearied of the lucifer-way that with great passion he will turn to the Lord and say: "I WILL RETURN UNTO MY FATHER' ESTATE."

At that stage he 'flees to Midian' (which means strife) where he battles with the carnal mind. But entering into union with Zipporah (which means a little bird), he hears that spirit-voice twittering to call him home. When this has brought forth fruit (Gershom meaning kicked out), he sees the fire of God and hears His voice. THEN does he receive strength to boldly face Lucifer (depicted by Pharaoh) and secures deliverance thru the shed blood of THE PASSOVER LAMB. THEN comes the wilderness experience of every Christian, wherein is encountered multitudinous vicissitudes, that God may 'PROVE us and come to know what is in our heart: whether or not we will now faithfully serve Him or 'Pharaoh' (see Deut. (8:2-16).

In the Father's Kingdom are countless posts, varying in importance, responsibility, and in the acquired skills required to fill. Therefore must every past REBEL journey thru the 'wilderness' to PROVE himself to the Father and, in meeting the specific trials and tests which Divine Wisdom has placed before him, thereby acquire that 'skill', that strength or soul-discipline which the Father has deemed essential, in order that the redeemed REBEL may again re-enter the Father's Kingdom and fill a useful post.

As it was in the days of Israel under Moses, so must it be unto every Christian before he is fit to cross the Jordan and enter the Land of Promise.

While those who are not Christians are still among the 'nations', and in the abject power of Lucifer and the countless delusions of his realm. They have still to HEAR the voice of the 'saboteurs' whom God Almighty has sent among them (Apostle: meaning one sent), to DEFECT from the enemy's camp; to sojourn in 'Midian' until kicked out (Gershom) by the fruits of the spirit-voice; when 'Pharaoh' is faced, and LIBERATION secured thru the shed blood. When the 'wilderness' has been traversed successfully, then for them too swells the glad song of HOME.

Briefly we might reflect on one chosen 'saboteur' who failed to 'defect.' "—none of them is lost but the son of perdition that the scripture might be fulfilled" John 17:12. Judas remained faithful to Lucifer. Therefore is 'the man of sin' to be highly honored by his master from Hell.

* "Let no man deceive you by any means, for that day shall not * come, except there come a falling away first, and that the man * of sin be revealed, the son of perdition." — II Thes. 2:3

* "Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, * or that is worshipped; so that he as God sits in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God". — II Thes. 2:4

This has been our first perspective. NOW we are ready to go back to the primordial becoming of the virgin-spirit thru the begetting power of the Divine parent and behold the Father's Plan for all His offspring in the Light, as well as for the cast-outs.

The Father's Love

LOVE' has been the theme for the bulk of man's most cherished songs; love has been the silver lining to thunderheads in man's trying pilgrimage on earth; and 'love' that golden thread which stirred his hope and led him ever on thru toil and battle, to fan his dreams to live again on sunlit carpets abloom with happiness.

* "LET US MAKE MAN IN OUR OWN IMAGE"

Utterly impossible it is to accept the above as true, without conceding that God's 'drive' behind creation, and behind His begetting of the primal wave of spirit beings, was that selfsame mystery (to man); that incalculable force we call 'love'. If not, then are we not in His image, neither are we His children. And to this does Scripture abundantly attest; perhaps most explicitly in that favorite passage of Christendom: “For God so LOVED the world ——”. Not the earth; not the birds or cattle, nor yet man by himself. But the WORLD (‘ton kosmon’): that is, ALL OF manifestation therein. We look at adult man, who, admittedly, has been corrupted by the tarnish of a society steeped in sin; but even though fallen away from the glory of the primal image, the man who is the father of little children will, without hesitation, toil to the breaking of his body; face the jungle beasts or die in battle —— all that those he loves may live.

If the eroded and tarnished ‘image’ of God will do that, is God less?

Down thru the misty eons of incalculable ages, LOVE arose within the Father’s heart, and drew Him into planned parenthood. We cannot believe in the goodness and ALL-wisdom of God without recognizing that – of necessity, He planned His own fatherhood. There could be no trace of irresponsible conduct on the part of an Omniscient Being. Wherefore, the conclusion is inevitable that He did not enter into fatherhood until He had first planned the future for His offspring, the ways and means for their eventual attainment of the Parent’s stature and their entering into His own joys and glory. To this attests also the Scripture saying: And now, Father, glorify me in your presence: with GLORY I HAD WITH YOU BEFORE THE WORLD BEGAN. (John 17:5)

To postulate that God is willing, but helpless to save ‘souls’ from indescribable torment in a furnace of fire time without end, is to declare Him an irresponsible weakling. And should we say that He can (prevent it) but won’t, then have we postulated A SADISTIC MONSTER in contrast to which the devil becomes a saint. To try to justify any of such hell-frothing by claiming that God would not interfere with man’s ‘free will’, is again to declare Him much baser than the vilest human who ever lived. For, assuredly, no parent has ever placed temptation before his child so, that in the moment of the youngster’s weakness, the parent might find excuse to fall upon him and beat him ‘for ever and ever’! The deliberate placing of the temptation by the parent, makes but a sorry mockery out of the ‘free will’ argument.

We must understand that such Pit-tripe was intended by a carnal priesthood in the eras of man’s ignorance and mental immaturity, to hold in abject serfdom, thru the power of horrific FEAR, that ‘goose’ which would perpetually ‘lay their golden eggs.’

There is no such teaching to be found in the old manuscripts, but only thru a brazen distortion of both words and context.

On the other hand we must not fall into the error of childishly wresting unlawful liberties unto ourselves, on the assumption that a LOVING Father has nothing but lollypops and pink ice cream in store – even for brats.

Every wise and truly loving parent will implement sufficient CORRECTIVE TREATMENT, that the offspring will be a credit to the parents and a blessing to society.

Because of our Spirit-Father's GREAT LOVE for His own did He cause it to be written:

"I the LORD, the First, and with the last; I AM HE" – Is 41:4 Carefully observe His words: HE was/IS THE FIRST (one), and WITH Him is to be the LAST one; or, He will be WITH the last one.

We could not wish for a bolder statement of His all-inclusive plan: that masterplan which commenced in the FIRST and includes the LAST (one). NONE were left outside His wondrous plan!

Would any normal parent do otherwise?

Therefore did He say to Israel: "And to old age I AM HE; even to boar hairs WILL I CARRY YOU: (because) I have made, and I WILL BEAR; even I WILL CARRY and WILL DELIVER YOU" – Is 46:4 Those are the tender words of a LOVING Father: HE has begotten: therefore will He uphold, CARRY and DELIVER!

"I have told you of earthly things and you believe not; HOW shall you believe if I tell you of heavenly things?" – John 3:12

Thus spoke the Christ to Nicodemus, and that sad fact remains as true unto this day.

The demonstrable things which pertain to this earth life are still not accepted by man. HOW then, can the masses receive instruction in the deep mysteries pertaining to the heavenly realm? Even our self-appointed spiritual luminaries are so grossly carnal that they fight among themselves, taking the GOOD and BEAUTIFUL from off His table to so ferment and pollute that it is little more than toxic hog food.

Nevertheless, let us draw, close to him and slowly turn the sacred pages.

God's Children

The Bible does not purport to reveal the time when God's spirit-children 'were first begotten', neither the environment they entered. There is no 'thus it is written' about them. Nevertheless, we have not been left in darkness pertaining thereto, for, GOD WORKS ACCORDING TO PATTERN. Therefore we can take the manifest pattern and deduce the unseen (realities). For, the seen (pattern) is but the 'shadow' of the spirit verity.

(Here, let the reader pause to deeply reflect on these startling declarations, while their foundation support can be viewed in these few passages):

"Who were unto the example and shadow, of heavenly things..." Heb 8:5

"For the invisible things of Him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood in the things that are made, even His eternal power and Godhood; so that they are without excuse:"
Rom 1:20

"And see (to it) that you make them after the pattern that was shown you in the mount" Ex 25:40

"The temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened" Rev 15:5

"YOUR will be done in earth AS IT IS IN HEAVEN." Mt 6:10.

Man has ever been dense, and 'slow of heart' (Lk 24.25) to believe ALL that the gracious Father has revealed to us. The words of God have been taken as casual, with little meaning attached. As for instance, His age enduring, Truth revealing unparalleled declaration: "Let us make man IN OUR OWN IMAGE"! WHO among our spiritual leaders ever took this matchless declaration of Truth and set it forth to SHOW UP the monstrous pit-frothing of a carnal priesthood about a 'Loving Father' having brought forth innumerable millions of 'souls to be 'tormented' in 'a furnace of Fire, time without end'? Not the faintest harmony-connection can be traced between such monstrously sadistic conduct and that of FATHERhood.

Similarly, we need but take the simple, Truth-revealing words of God, communicated to us by A LOVING FATHER, in order to discern and understand the hitherto UNdeclared mysteries 'of heavenly things.' (John 3:12)

And God said: “Behold I have given you every herb bearing seed which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree in which is the fruit of a tree yielding seed; TO YOU IT SHALL BE FOR MEAT.”
Gen 1:29.

Yet a carnal priesthood has only beheld in those words the silhouette of sinless humans browsing among the herbs – and picking cherries! But what said the Christ?

“My MEAT is to DO the will of Him that sent me, and to finish His work” —John 4:34

Do not children and all immature forms EAT to grow and gain strength? By which we are intended to understand that in and thru the doing of God’s will, comes GROWTH in body and mind, and the resultant strength in soul.

WHAT, and where is the living form which begets its own kind in a state of full maturity? Is not every newborn form comparatively small, simple, and dumb (from lack of experience)? Spirit children are no exception, for WE are ‘in the image of Father-GOD’.

HIS spirit children in the day of their primal begetting were but small, naked flames of fire in the contour of God (of which man is the ‘image’). (FIRE is the closest representative figure for spirit, given to man. Scripture abounds with FIRE as denoting or portraying spirit. Such as ‘God is a consuming fire.’ God manifested in the burning bush, and the holy mount was on fire with the presence of God. Horses and chariots of fire took Elijah up into heaven.)

Wherefore, as a sinless humanity was commanded to EAT of herbs and fruits, so does that show us that the DOING OF HIS WILL (‘eating’ to grow in spirit stature, and to gain understanding thru experience) by the primal waves of virgin spirits, consisted of their working in the elements, and with vegetation, eventually advancing into the working with and thru the animal life-waves. For, it is written ‘and let him have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air and over the cattle’ et cetera — Gen 1:26

Let the careful student observe that the order of creation as detailed in first Genesis, is in perfect agreement with the order of development of the inorganic into and thru the ever increasing complexities of organic life culminating in man, as now understood by our men of science. As we find an INTERlinking of the elements and all of creation, even thus it is pertaining to that which we might term planes of being, commencing (from man’s perspective) with the inorganic, progressing thru the organic and life-strata on earth into that of spirit and the Divine.

That there is such an INTERlinking – but conversely was also shown us by the words of Christ when caught in a tempestuous storm at sea: “PEACE, BE STILL” (Mark 4:39). But His words “siopa, pephimoso” could far better be rendered, SILENCE! BE MUZZLED UP, (not another peep out of you)! Should we be so naive as to postulate that the Christ said to senseless elements “Shut up”? (HOW UNreasonable can we be?) No; He spoke not to senseless elements in turmoil, but to the intelligent spirits which were fanning the elements into wild fury. The Master had spoken: the spirit hordes were paralyzed; the elements were calm, the disciples marveled!

THUS commenced the growth in understanding for His ‘children’ by working in the incipient elements of fiery nebulae in space; in suns and thrown-off planets (which are but ‘children’ of the parent-suns); graduating into transformed elements; inorganic, and organic matter and finally with the various life-waves on earth. ‘Children’ of the Father must work with all of manifestation that, like unto the Father, in the eventual day of their maturity, they shall be capable creators – like unto the Father. (“The son can do nothing of himself but what he sees the Father do: for whatsoever things He does, these also does the Son likewise,” – John 5:19)

Certain fish; like salmon – have been observed to travel great distances in order to spawn in the selfsame waters where they came forth from the roe; certain birds will migrate vast distances at specified times; low forms of life will build with a wisdom great enough to amaze man, while the ‘senseless’ oak will build a seed so perfect that it reproduces its own kind. And many birds and beasts have been observed to suddenly remove to sheltered areas long before the sudden breaking of a violent storm.

WHENCE comes all this wisdom? It has been written: “The older shall serve the younger.” But stupid man has imagined THAT applied only to Esau and Jacob – the two sons of Isaac.

But God works according to THE PATTERN. Even with man, the elder children help the younger. Similarly did the spirit-children of God first become masters in what we might term elemental creation; thereafter GUIDES unto lower life-waves such as fish, birds, and mammals.

The spirit-beings assigned thereto, can order the migration of birds thru their power of direction; fish yearning to spawn move at the guidance of their spirit-directors; the wild animals’ instinct’ to mate at the time appropriate to bring forth young in suitable season (weather and fodder conditions considered), is prompted by the spirits in charge of them. Spirits somewhat more mature are assigned to individual humans to be their mentors thru life; while others still more advanced are in charge of tribes, nations, kingdoms, and confederacies. And still higher are those who select parents and arrange the suitable time of physical birth for incarnating spirits that the ensuing earth-life experience may be suitable for that ego’s requirement – age and experience considered. (See Jeremiah 1:5-10). Aside from these are teachers, disciplinarians, and scrutineers of the 'books' recorded in heaven in order that 'destiny' may overtake their wards 'according to the Fathers will.' This 'Father's will' covers from the least of feathered life unto the greatest of man and nations. ("Not a sparrow fails to the ground without the Father's 'will' – said our Lord.)

The concept of a magician God who is in all places at all times personally overhearing and overseeing every detail throughout manifest creation, is an utterly fantastic one!

God is a Father. Fatherhood implies a family, which in turn implies appointments to posts and responsibilities befitting the age, training and experience of His children.

Man, 'in his Father's image' cannot be in many places simultaneously; neither to oversee and think of ten billion times ten trillion things all in one split second. Not even in embryo form can we observe this potential in man. But we do find within man countless myriads of life-cells endowed with specific intelligence peculiar to their intended functions. These function thru the two brains (one called conscious the other subconscious); thru the seven ductless glands, the vital organs and blood. Conscious man has no knowledge nor control over the digestion of food and the intricate chemistries involved in his functioning as a normal human being.

Such are the amazing 'governments' within the microcosm we call man. And such 'governments' has God set up to oversee and direct the amazing complexity of the macrocosmic universe.

To be sure, God is well able to 'tune in' at any time on any person's thoughts, words and conduct; but to suppose that His 'all seeing eye' observes the alley cat's pouncing on the sparrow and, in that split moment of time decides whether to 'turn thumb up or down' on that sparrow's life, is a childishly fantastic concept. WHY should any 'BOOKS be opened in heaven' (Rev 20:12) IF such a magician God PERSONALLY attends to every little detail throughout the reaches of infinite space? BOOKS are for others: not for One who knows all, sees all, and hears all! We must awake to the infantile fantasy conjured up for us by a sleep walking clergy (Mt 13:25) and come into the fully conscious vision of a son beholding his FATHER. While for the detailed understanding of His 'governments' and plan for man, we look INTO 'His own image'. Whatsoever does not fit into that twofold vision is but an invented lie which must be cast out.

God – A PERFECT Being, builds from within, expanding or emanating away from His own center. We must assume that a perfect being worked out a perfect plan.

Since He personally was/is PERFECTION, that perfect plan had to be founded in Himself! This He personally attested to by announcing that He would form man 'in His own image'. Wherefore, to KNOW GOD and His plan, man must learn to KNOW HIMSELF, and to understand the workings of the complex 'governments' within his own body.

Since man's vision is dim to look within, the Father graciously caused to be enacted dramas on large scale to portray the workings of His plan.

We see by the opening Genesis account how God brought forth the earth and then the gases. When the required relationship between earth and gases came about, then flashed lightning (the latent FIRE) uniting two parts of hydrogen with one of oxygen, resulting in water. In the process of time, vegetation, and the ever increasingly complex forms of life came into being, culminating in man in God's image.

The statement that God made the sun and moon on the 4th day is very misleading. Our sun was hoary with age long before our earth-planet was cast off from the parent body, even as our other planets also came forth from the sun. But with the earth enveloped by a vast realm of steam and water thrown out into space by the superheated earth, the sun did not become VISIBLE until that era He labeled 'the 4th day'. Neither could the moon be seen until later in that 'day', although 'born' from out of mother earth's body incalculable eras of time earlier.

The ecclesiastical child swells his chest with pride in proclaiming his magician father-God who spoke, when, in a split moment of time here bobbed in space the earth mineral-laden, water covered, with its countless pockets filled with gas, oil and coal (for future man's use.) He is like the 5-year old who also swells his chest with pride and says to his playmate: "My father can lick anyone in town." While for 'the last word' maybe the little girl pipes up. "MY mother is the most beautiful in all the land."

The magician God of the ecclesiastical toddler must have created countless million wonders in the millionth part of a second -otherwise his Almighty Magician has been belittled.

Answer this question: In the life of an 'Eternal Being' who existed back in the incomputable eras of a past 'eternity', and who will carry on similarly into the future: WHY should He get so RUSHED a few days ago that He went Bang-Bang, when suddenly in a moment of time there were the endless reaches of space filled with galaxial universes with their billion times ten trillion awesome wonders?

A sow requires about 112 days to bring forth a litter of young, while the ewe requires about 35 days more time to bring forth but one or two lambs. Does THAT make the sow a greater magician or a superior mother? Or is the cow less wonderful because she requires about 280 days? Are they not all creatures from the hand of God?

Similarly with their Author. If He produced man in one millionth part of a second or required one million times ten billion years that would not alter the wisdom required, nor yet the power to produce His masterpiece. Rut prattling ecclesiasts asleep in the night have dreamt of a split moment 'creation' by their magician God who – like themselves – must have been comfortably snoring thru the preceding eternity.

The Great Builder

"I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you unto myself, that, WHERE I AM THERE YOU MAY BE ALSO" – John 14:2-3.

Here we see He would not take them until He had a place prepared for them.

Similarly did God ceaselessly labor thru cyclic eras of time that He might have a HOME well prepared for His planned children. This necessitated a minimum of one solar system.

With that estate prepared and the 'home' built, He entered into Fatherhood. There was plenty of playground for His 'first-born.' And in process of time he strode the estate with His Father. In the approaching maturity of years, the Son wondered to His Father about the expansiveness of the lavish estate and its becoming or creation. So, that the Son might be a builder or creator, like unto His Father, a minimum of another solar system was brought into being. The Son watched carefully as 'the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters' (Gen 1:2) Did He glide, swim, hop or sprint? As in so many another instance, the Hebrew stem has been mistranslated as 'moved', although the word contains substance. 'Vibrated' would have conveyed the right thought to us, for, controlled vibration was the means whereby God brought order out of chaos.

Having seen His Father labor thru spiraling eras of time to produce another glorious 'estate', the young Son was intrigued and said: "Father, do you suppose that I might try some time to duplicate your handiwork?"

The Father knew then that His 'One-begotten' (not 'only begotten' as erroneously rendered) was 'coming of age', so He replied substantially, "Proceed, my Son. As you have beheld, it is an involved process and, you might make the occasional error; or a vibration, the range and pitch of which you may not have calculated to its final power. But I shall ever be at your side."

The power tubes (rendered 'pipes and tabrets' in the AV) and transformers in the young One commenced to glow as the symphony of notes rose and receded, while about Him a rhapsody of color-tints played like enchanted nymphs in rainbow garments while giving motion to their joy. Far out thru space the voice-tones drove, gradually bending, arcing and returning to the author, while in their remembrance was brought back matter. ("My word shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it" – Is 55:11) This 'matter' we might term a condensation of energy.

Now the power-tubes took on a blinding light as the VOICE flashed thru and the transformer rocketed into high pitch. Incandescent grew the light about Him: gases and matter raced thru vibration channels until alight with the fire of God. An embryo nebula had come into being, which grew in volume and heat intensity as the generative cycle ran its course. While at its core a sun was formed, the central vortex of which was the Young One.

As the next cycle dawned, crystallization at the sun's poles was drawn towards its equatorial belt where, by centrifugal force of its terrific speed, a vast volume was shot into outer space, there to take up its calculated orbit about the parent sun. A planet had been 'born' (or 'created' – if you thus prefer).

Eager to see His own work blaze forth by the Father's, the second planet was 'born' – should we say – prematurely. Observing this precipitate process, the Father, said nothing as the young Creator precalculated its orbit, but failed to take into consideration the mass and pull of the somewhat adjacent system He had watched His Father bring into being. This added factor had then not been present. So, before the cycle dropped its curtain, the two planets had been drawn sufficiently off their course to collide in the fury of metal and fire. The second and smaller buried its molten core in the body of the greater, but the titanic explosion engendered by its surface crust as it entered the inner fire of the giant, shot vast masses of fragments into space. (Today they are seen as asteroids and meteors.)

Substantially said the Father to His young One: "REALISTICALLY do you now behold the twin poles of cause and effect. Every trill and cadence of the creative voice brings into existence its corresponding crystallization: this the formative or positive. While thru its nether pole of manifestation, the devastation is equally as certain and cataclysmic. To create is our intrinsic power, but ever resultant minutiae overlooked until the created has fulfilled its purpose and completed its course, will have its repercussion in due time, and may even wreck all the good of many 'days', creative work. Purposely I held my peace that you might receive an everlasting lesson thru that which now transpired. But soon I shall show you the extended calculus, superimposed upon your own, detailing the required pitch of tone-drives that the succeeding bodies thrown off maybe so timed and directed as to offset the present aberration and restore the required symphony. While that which now seems lost we shall later recapture before the completed universe vaults from out our fire.

"What you have now beheld was my permissive will, to the end its Truth shall ever live within your heart: the creator's supreme qualification is to precalculate to its final power and perfecting cycle, every step and procedure, in order that all which is brought forth shall finally attain the supreme symphony which is yours and mine to know. HENCE the innumerable days of my past repose that every detail of THE PLAN might become an integrated factor with one another, eventuating in a glorious symphony."

Spiraling cycles dawned and closed, nebulae were formed, heated, and blazed into incandescent light as directed by the Spirit fire at its core, suns grew, and planets were born. Solar Systems took up their labyrinthine courses as the galaxy grew and the universe expanded, while Father and Son were 'one' in planning and creative labors.

When and wherever there is a commencement of that which is great, with the intention of thereby manifesting forth His will, THERE is the Creator in person THE CENTRAL VORTEX of the embryo creation. For, that which we may term its pattern must be founded in Himself. But His remaining as its Central Vortex need not go beyond that moment in time when He has established its vibrational nucleus within the archetypal matrix of that which is planned HE can then withdraw, the dynamic of the central nucleus He established will continue building until the matrix has been filled. It is like the mighty oak which develops out of little acorn, or a perfect human being developing from a microscopic seed.

The power of establishing His desired vibratory pitch is clearly alluded to in Deut. 12:11 also in 5, 21 as well as in Ex 20: 24. To man it was but an invisible unheard vibration or POWER PRESENCE for, assuredly, there is not the faintest intimation in Scripture that Yahweh ever wrote or caused His name to be inscribed in that Sanctuary, in the Ark, at Shiloh or elsewhere.

Into that Central Nucleus is sounded the detailed vibration of that which He has planned and wills to be. Its rate of development and time for maturity is in relationship to the vibrational tempo of the Nucleus in ratio to that of the matrix and its size.

As growth continues and development proceeds, certain phases thereof may require specific stimuli or direction even as our scientists send out a beam to an orbiting satellite, causing it to eject a nose-cap or specifically perform at a planned place and time. Therefore we read:

“And out of the throne proceeded lightnings and thunderings and voices.” – Rev 4:5

“My right hand (creative power) has spanned the heavens: when I call unto them they stand up together.” Is 48:13; also 40:26

We are expected to understand that He does not call for the fun of it; that at the POWER of His VOICE all of creation throbs, glows and is energized to speed on unto the glorious climax of its planned destiny.

A Young Father

Substantially spoke the Young One from out His prolonged reverie; “FATHER, I beheld how you brought forth a solar system by the creative power of your tone-drives. When within myself I yearned to also create, you approved, and supervised my work. Now an entire galaxy has vaulted out of the fire, and my work has won your approval.

“But FATHER (the very word conveys that YOU begot me), to me you have never spoken revealingly about fatherhood; nor yet is there another whom I have had the opportunity of watching come into being. FATHER, is it not also for me to sometime beget another in our own image?”

The FATHER had realized for some time that the Young One was approaching maturity, so He replied: (substantially):

“My Son to the uttermost minutiae you are like unto myself; therefore, fatherhood is both your sacred potential and destiny. Yet HEAR my words that ever they may blaze within you: FATHERHOOD is the fullness and the ULTIMATE of our being; nothing has nor ever shall approach unto its terrifying importance, nor ever touch the shadow of its sacredness. It is ALL! It probes the depths and scales the heights, even to out-pressing of the infinite bounds of the Creator’s wisdom. It enfolds everything; bears all; and gives to the totality of oneself.

“For our own instruction we can create; or, as we commonly practice, for a carefully planned and ultimate objective of transcendent scope and glorious climax. Similarly with fatherhood; it can be entered into for the sake of entertainment, experimentation and the resultant accumulative knowledge garnered thru observation. But such irresponsible conduct is the negation of our being and would lead to chaos. Deep, deep within the throne room of your Being, pulsates the projection tube I built for you. Thru its intrinsic capacity you can rapidly project for vision from cause to effect until a galaxy is complete, even though that would equate to several ‘nights’ of contemplation. “But FATHERHOOD so far transcends the importance of the galaxy’s glory, as does the galaxy’s ULTIMATE surpass the void of the deep.

“Even now I could draw the nuptial veil for you – that a Father you might be. But we seek not negation. FATHERHOOD is the very glory of our Being raised to its ULTIMATE POWER. It must be planned to its ultimate detail until that which is begotten rises into the selfsame glory of the Begetter. UNLESS, or UNTIL, you have not the maturity for FATHERHOOD. Wherefore, the ‘door’ I have kept sealed.

“Back in the ageless mists of the unsearchable deep, I contemplated your BEING, and in vision perfected its building until a very universe shall throb with a glorified LIFE.

“THEN was the image sealed up as a hallowed matrix while its central core (myself) withdrew after imparting my own life to its Activating nucleus. THEN was the dawn of your being.

“Like unto your Father you can plan, and await the perfection of a full maturity, begetting but One – even the Son of your Joy unspeakable.”

* “And Abraham was a hundred years old, when his son Isaac was * born unto him.” – Gen 21:5 (Isaac means joy or laughter).

“Should you withdraw into the deep by yourself to dwell, and, in contemplative repose await the fullness of your maturity, while you behold another galaxy vault from out of my fire; THEN, at the consummation of that cycle would the voltage within you equal the intensified dynamic required to beget a perfect Son in the fullness of our own image.

“When in absolute solitude One beholds dawning cycles spiral onward to their own square, THEN has the depths of ALONENESS been probed; THEN can the intensity engendered beget unto the fullness of glory. Thus in you – my son – my joy became complete, and our GLORY outshines the galaxy. I would that it should thus remain. The ideal is not for One to abide alone.

“As yet but 40 cycles scant at my side you have beheld: to us that is but youth. Yet if now within you burns the fire to see your own emerge, then shall the veil for you in stages lift – for the consummation of our joy.

“Yet HEAR my words and weigh their gravity until this cycle spirals to a close.

“In the New Dawn you may send to gather matrix-substance from out the primal sun of my creation, and from its whitest fire form a womb. Into this you may build for your future offspring; IMPRESSING your own growth and accumulated experience. Should you conclude at the end of 10 cycles to vivify the fetus, the result would be a glorified LIFE. While should you brood and build another ten, WISDOM could be added to the brightness.

“THEN a choice would be yours and a decision to be made. ONE life imparted would yield LIFE’S brightness with discernment in-built thru the second 10. But should you decide to divide the central nucleus for a dual cast-off, imparting your life to the first, then vivifying the second when it had fluxed to the pattern of the first, you would have twin Sons both partaking of the same glory and discernment. But the ‘1’ of the first would develop strength-in-independence, which could manifest the basic division of its split nucleus while in the primal matrix. The second and younger would major in ‘2’ which is discernment; while thru the ‘2’ of the original division, would make a contact with ‘4’, or the square of His own begetting. This would gender to a fruit-laden life (which glorious fruit is founded in FAITHFULNESS unto the Father). Your twin sons would labor with us and grow in dexterity and understanding.

“With the twin poles of progress (resistance versus co-operation) having come to manifestation in your future Sons, that would provide a channel unto fantastic progress for innumerable multitude-waves of children. These you could beget on a far shorter cycle-wave, cutting their gestation down to an infinitesimal in contrast to that required for the Twins. Instead of PERFECTION being built into the fetus within the womb throughout spiraling cycles, that Perfection can be achieved after birth thru experience, while the spheres within the galaxy we have created, will be arenas for their expressive life. Thus a whole universe can throb with life in fewer cycles than you and I can beget a small family of our own stature.

“For, should you covet for your Son any of the additional qualities contributive to a maturity at birth, mists of many cycles must be passed thru in imparting yourself to the unborn.

“Were you to add another ten to the twenty I have outlined, the 30th cycle would incorporate a perfection of reason. While were you to add still another ten, his ‘40’ would yield ‘life within himself’, or the selfsame potential which is ours. Sixty more would still be needed to permit the maturity in perfection at the moment of begetting – as was yours to know.

“As you have perceived, the number of cycles within the matrix under the Father’s building, necessitates the same measure of time in expressive life thereafter, to bring forth the fruit of all that was in-built. Wherefore, as ‘40’ yields LIFE – which is one’s own fruit – so now are you yearning to manifest life in your own 40th cycle. While those brought forth short of LIFE’S cycle of 40 must go on in expressive life until their lack has been cubed, unless we were to shorten such cycles thru secondary ‘matrix’ conditions by subjecting them to a much lowered plane of existence on suitable spheres formed when the galaxy was young.

“Thus, were you to decide on twin sons at the conclusion of 20 cycles, the twenty cycles lacking to LIFE’S requirement would cube in 8,000 cycles later. But by that time we can have a vast universe athrob with life, and untold realms of grandeur awaiting to be taken in possession by a multitude of maturing sons.

“Yet hear, and dwell long on the weight of my words: YOU are the One-begotten in the fullness of my glory; one hundred cycles was the substance of your being, in purifying preparation in the fire THAT I AM, throughout the womb of your begetting. It is a great price to pay. But that is the glory of Fatherhood. And for You there are no real problems, but a progressively widening glory-path thru unending cycles at my side.

“But should you decide and take the short-cut to intensified glory thru Fatherhood in your youth, and the begetting of multitudinous life-waves of virgin spirits later, you must be fully prepared to bear the weight of such a glorified Fatherhood. The price is terrific, equating in substance to equivalent in weight of the additional 80 cycles while my fire refined your substance in the retort, and your central atom was perfected in my spirit-crucible.

“To accomplish this you must be prepared and willing to enter in-to the lot of the very least and lowliest of begotten spirits; to endure and to give up the totality of yourself, for the redemption of such as shall have become subverted thru the resistance to our Plan, by the Independent One after his SELF-hood eventuates.

“We are not worthy of Fatherhood until we are prepared to see to the full maturity (into our own image), and glorification of our offspring. Such sacrifice, is the price we pay for the JOY we reap thru the riches and glory of many full-blossomed Sons.

“The alternative to this is to follow the course your Father pursued.”

“Weigh carefully, one against the other. The price paid for the one equates to that of the other, though differing much in detail. One is the shortest distance between two points in achievement, while the other spirals about that shortest line. The spiraling one is founded in our own perfection, utilizing time and distance to its maximum advantage. The short-cut also partakes of time and distance, but that path is hard-fought thru the resistance engendered. While at its conclusion, waives in glory multitudinous Sons, in contrast to but a few at the same point in time by the circuitous Plan. “After your decision has been made and we prepare for action, I shall unfold by contrast for you, from time to time, multitudinous details of the two Plans I evolved before the master-cycle of your begetting.”

The FATHER had spoken.

The SON was silent. But often His vision would extend to probe the crucible heart of the massive giant sun of His Father’s early creation. In awe it rested there on the spirit-gold and precious stones in flux awaiting the Master’s touch, or tone-drives to raise them to a glory just short of LIFE.

Well did the FATHER know what decision the SON would make.... Was He not His ONE-begotten? When they faced the deep together, identical were the images reflected: to the final minute they were alike. Only in time and experience, and hence matured understanding, was there a great difference. Therefore the powertubes of the elder could handle a vastly greater voltage of spirit-power, having been built up thru spiraling cycles hoary with age ere the substance of the Young One was activated in the matrix.

“My Father is greater than I.” John 14:28

With joy unspeakable HE watched the intensifying light in the throne room of the young One, with an increasing wave-frequency of the softest golden pink emanating, only to linger at its wails, simulating a matrix for the unborn.

The Young One was in deep contemplation of Fatherhood, yearning to beget. Side by side the Two stood, sustaining the completing tone-drives to the perfecting of the galaxy – long since having vaulted out of their fire. As they ceased at the approach of eventide to their ‘day’ (which mortals call an ‘eternity’), they turned aside to face the deep before their partial repose.

Where the light of their individual glories fused into one, a corona shot out around and stabbed into the deep. At last the young One spoke:

“FATHER, behold our corona when we are close together, how it out-stabs into the deep, that of our individual effulgence”.

* “Verily, verily I say unto you: the works that I do shall you do and greater works than these shall you do BECAUSE I GO UNTO MY FATHER” John 14:12, (‘Greater works’ because the combined glory of the Two could, and would dip deeper to reach castaways still more remote.)

“Would not that also apply in principle after I beget my own? Would you honor them as you honor me? That the intensified glory of our combined coronas would light up and activate still deeper into the deep?”

“My SON” the FATHER said, “You speak of a distantly future day..... It is correct that the fusion of our glories intensify the corona, for, we cannot add one to another without increasing, either in bulk or in intensity.

“Yes; I would love yours even as you are loved. But you must know that I cannot ‘honor’ anyone short of an expressive perfection. Were you to beget on a shorter cycle-wave of gestation than that of the master-cycle behind yourself, such children would have a perfection POTENTIAL but not achieved. As my own would they be loved, for, what is yours is mine and vice versa. Between us there can be no division: in love we are fused.

“But should little ones spring from out your Being, very immature in their central atom, WE would love them but never ‘honor’, UNTIL their expressive perfection had been achieved thru service and labor in the galaxies of our making.

“It would also be well for you to withdraw to one of the adjacent primal sun systems, lest you lean upon me for their guidance. A Father alone must meet every responsibility towards His young, that fatherhood may blossom to its fullness. A Father is a KEEPER of all of his.”

“When young ones have come to maturity in impending cycles, in the dawn of their becoming new Creators, THEN in unison we shall sing, and they shall be ‘honored’ – even as WE one another.”
Later the young Creator spoke: “FATHER, you know how I have been glued to the view-screen, projecting from cause to effect until I could come to a right decision.

“I will pay the terrifying price – for the joy unspeakable unto us both, that we may behold multitudinous Sons, light up into the fullness of glory before we fold up this galaxy.

“Was not that THE PLAN you singled out?”

“YES – my Fullness of Joy! I yearned to likewise do. But that Plan could not work without our being two. When the supreme sacrifice is to be made, ONE at the helm must remain. YOURS is now the privilege to consummate the intensification of our joy, and cause the glory of the universe to expand.”

Sweet was the musing of the Young One as He prepared for repose, leading to Fatherhood.

* “And Isaac brought her into his mother’s tent, and took Rebekah,
+ and she became his wife; and he loved b . Gen 24:67

* “And Isaac was 40 years old when he took Rebekah to wife.” Gen 25.20

Withdrawn though He had to an adjacent system, He was still not alone, for, He could speak with His FATHER – even though they might be at opposite rims of the galaxy. Within it, space was no barrier.. Twenty cycles later He spoke to His FATHER, saying: “FATHER, speak to me now that my pulse may quicken, for, the moment is at hand that I must bring to life the substance I shaped, and over which I have brooded.

The FATHER answering spoke. Responded did the young One as a blaze of love within rocketed thru His transformer tubes to cube its normal volume. In the spasm of His ecstasy He spoke – twice. Across the deep the FATHER gazed, rapt in exultation as He viewed the nova-burst of His primal system when a God became a Father!

Forth from the matrix stepped the ‘shining one’: His first-begotten ‘son of the morning’ – perfection of beauty.

* “You seal up the sum, full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty.
* Every precious stone was your covering ; the workmanship of * your power tubes and transformer was prepared in you in the * day that you were created.” – Ezek. 28:12-13

But twice had the VOICE sounded. As the second note throbbed thru the galaxy, forth stepped the younger brother.

* “And after that came his brother forth, and his hand took hold * of Esau’s heel; and his name was called Jacob: * and Isaac was thirty years old when she bare them.” – Gen 25:26

“The sons grew” – in observation, in the Father’s presence.

Seven Younger Sons

We read of the days of Abraham’s impatience when Hagar delivered him Ishmael – long before Isaac was born. All these highlights are but reflections on earth of that which transpired in the heavenlies, back in the earlier cycles of creation. Howbeit, to portray spiritual events by earthly, is at times, almost impossible without apparent inconsistencies. Thus we read of Ishmael by Hagar the Egyptian, as coming some 14 years prior to Isaac.

This was the shadow of another mighty Being begotten by the FATHER, but on a much shorter cycle of gestation than the Master-cycle behind the SON, Ishmael was BEFORE Isaac, which should convey to us BEFORE the fullness of the ‘Master-cycle’, or, on a much shorter gestation cycle. Also, Egypt is used scripturally to denote matters pertaining to the world. This by itself bespeaks something far more ephemeral than the heavenly matters.

Ishmael is defined as ‘God hears.’ Hearing links with the number 2. By which we may infer that the young brother of the SON was begotten at the close of 2 cycles (instead of the 100), but not necessarily before the SON in moment of time.

Later we read where Abraham took Keturah to wife (after the death of Sarah), who bare him Zimran, Jokanan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak and Shuab (Gen 25:1-2). These total 6 by Keturah and the one by Hagar = 7. The cycle of their begetting has not been revealed to me. Though perhaps we have a clue in the name of their mother which means incense or fragrance. This links with the sense of smell and that of the atmosphere. Both these link with the number 3, by which we might surmise that the six were begotten thru 3 cycles.

The attentive student will observe that these in Scripture are referred to as “sons of the concubines”, while Isaac only as the son of Abraham. However, Chron 1:28 classes Ishmael as a son of Abraham. The immaturity of their gestation cycle does not rate them as ‘sons’ of the FATHER, but rather, sons of the environment: that is, begotten for a purpose.

* “I behold a candlestick all of gold —and his seven lamps thereon”

* with those seven: they are the eyes of the Lord

* which run to and from thru the whole earth.” —Zech. 4:2, 10

* “—the seven spirits which are before his throne “—Rev 1:4

Thus are we shown the seven very immature brethren of the SON together they make eight Within the single digits, 8 is by far the greatest number, being the only one which is the cube of another digit. It bespeaks REGENERATION. Thereby are we told that the seven are for bringing about unification while the 8th (the SON) will consummate an absolute REgeneration of all life (within the fullness of time).

Added to the eight are the twin begotten ones by the SON. This totals 10 which is the number of SUBLIMATION, of law authority and power. It denotes cyclic spiritual completion but not perfection (within itself). But these completed the primary cycle of begetting, thru which Beings all Of creation will be sublimated and all children brought to full maturity.

Twenty-four Elders

After this the SON begot twelve young ones on a cycle wave at which we can only guess. But they were to complement the cycle of the Twins:

* “These are the sons of Israel: Rueben, Simeon,

* Levi, Judah, Issachar, Zebulon, Dan., Joseph,

* Benjamin, Naphtali, Gad and Asher” – 1 Chr. 2:1-2

Twelve more were begotten on a somewhat similar cycle wave, complementary to Ishmael. Whether these were begotten by the FATHER or by the SON is not too clear from the ‘shadow’ portrayal.... One might be prone to surmise them begotten by the FATHER, since ‘Ishmael’ was HIS. Yet this is far from certain in the writer’s mind. Nevertheless, it is quite immaterial to us now.

* “As for Ishmael I have heard the twelve princes shall he * beget.” —Gen 17:20; see also Gen 25:13-15 for their names.

These two twelves total 24, constituting the chamber of counselors or judges; that is, counselors unto messenger spirits of lower ranks, judging in matters over which they preside.

* “And round about the throne were four and twenty seats: and

* upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting, clothed in * white clothing; and they had on their heads crowns of gold.” Rev 4:4

Although we read in Scripture of Ishmael and Jacob begetting sons, this is not intended to portray that the various begotten spirits by FATHER and SON begot children of their own. In Heaven as on earth, there is a maturity essential to beget one's own. As yet the FATHER and SON alone have this LIFE. But the beings typified by the descendants of Jacob, Ishmael and of the patriarchs, were those begotten in complementary cycle waves to that of their venerable elders; and essential to complete the governmental hierarchy in the heavenlies.

The Shining One (otherwise known as lucifer) was eventually placed in charge of gases enveloping planets (see Eph 2:2). His younger brother remained close to Father; in time being appointed Head over the younger brethren: we might even call him the Minister-general of Education (unto the angelic host).

The seven spirits before the throne are otherwise referred to as Archangels. They are supervisors, or Heads of Departments. The twenty-four elders under them evaluate, and give counsel to younger Chiefs.

Outside the FATHER (Who Is 'one with the Son') these specified total 34. But assigned to the life-waves on earth, there are 66 more, totaling 100. This is revealed to us thru a study of the glands and nerve-ganglia of the human body and as correlated to the Mosaic Tabernacle. It is also alluded to in Gen 26:46 as the number of 'the souls were 36' which 'came with Jacob into Egypt.'

The Virgin Spirit Waves

The multitudinous arenas for manifestation had been prepared throughout the galaxy. While the members to constitute the Heavenly Hierarchy had been begotten at the required 'wave-lengths' and at the time pre-calculated and appointed by the FATHER. These elder spirits were now laboring with the SON to prepare the spheres for their detailed purpose in His PLAN and getting groomed for their taking charge of lower life-waves in their due season.

Again the FATHER spoke (substantially): * "My SON: because in the tall intensity of your being you have walked in my ways, WE ARE ONE. Therefore, in blessing I will bless you, and perform thru you that which I vowed unto myself, that your seed shall multiply as the stars of heaven, and I will give unto your seed all these spheres; and in thy seed shall the lowest be blessed. Wherefore, take of the cosmic substance which has come thru our fire, and let thy Being come upon it for the barest primary cycle.. Then beget Your 'children' – that wave upon wave of virgin spirits shall come to life in the fatherhood pitch of your tone-drive. Let the waves thereof ascend before me throughout the myriad cycles, which I planned – lest we have labored in vain over the galaxy we prepared. For now our ‘cabinet’ is in process of maturing, whereby the power is ours to ultimately bring those virgin spirits to maturity and glory, without first planning and preparing the unfoldment-path for each individual entity. For, all requirements shall then be at our disposal for their eventual and mass-perfecting. In the meanwhile I shall see to the vibrational tempo and onward-course of the galaxy.” Answering spoke the SON: “My FATHER: Your will be done.”

The dawning of this cycle was heightened JOY for FATHER and SON. Now the very universe would fill with life as waters swarm with fish. And their eventual perfection assured!

The SON’S corona deepened, for His pulse had quickened to the intensity of another nova-burst. But this time instead of one-two, there rose into conscious being one hundred ‘in the Father’s image.’ The next cycle was slightly shortened, but at its nova-burst arose one thousand. Closing the third and still shorter cycle, ten thousand virgin spirits waved before Him: every succeeding wave being ten times greater than the preceding one. This to the end that ‘the elder serve the younger’, each one becoming guide to ten younger ones on the following cycle-wave.

At the end of ten cycles, over one hundred billion virgin spirits had risen before the FATHER and SON.

Rejoicing

The FATHER-GLORY had triumphed! HIS Master Plan was on its way. For this had He painstakingly planned, working from cause to effect thru countless cycles of time we mortals label an ‘eternity.’ And thru another ‘eternity’ had His fire purged, and His Spirit brooded over the perfecting of the central atom for the ONE-begotten of His Joy, that the GLORY-PLAN might become possible of implementation. ALONE thru the mists of unfathomable cycles had He dwelt; by Himself had He labored in the deep to bring forth a mighty solar system with its giant planets orbiting about the Central Fire (from whence they spring). All this is the incipient but essential beginning and preparation for the glory unspeakable to follow. Great had been His joy as at long last the SON-OF-HISTORY rose before Him in the fullness of perfection. Then had the Plan leaped forward as the two commenced to labor together; great had been their filial joy as an entire galaxy had come to birth. Then came the great exuberance as the Twins arose before the SON and bowed themselves before the FATHER-Glory. And then the younger ones and still younger ones. But now? A UNIVERSE had filled with spirit-life; its throb had quickened: FATHER and SON required well nigh the infinite power of the Gods they were to contain their joy. For, in less time than HE had required to perfect the Master-Plan and bring into Being His One begotten, He now beheld the glory of the Twins, the brightness of the Seven and the prudence of the twenty-four, as well as the reverence of the sixty-six. And out beyond this inner canopy of Governmental Power, the vision of the Great GOD beheld the lowering (or outlying) strata as a blaze of glory – lit by wave upon waves of spirit-flames in His own silhouette. HIS joy was unutterable He could but gaze in rapt ecstasy at the massive volume of HIS glory-filled universe in but the time He would have required to bring forth another GOD in the perfection of the SON! Of course, countless cycles of time would be required, that all might attain maturity of understanding thru experience, and to strength enduring. But was not 'eternity' ahead? Life plus time garners understanding. There was now no rush. But in substance He said to the SON: "The time is now at hand on the earth planet that we prepare multitudinous forms from out of its substance, and endow them with life, that our young ones may have fruitful fields in which to labor.

Creation

This is where Genesis 1:20 declares the formation of animated bodies on the fifth day, progressing into the mammalian on the sixth and culminating in man. * "And God blessed them and said unto them:. '—replenish and

- * subdue the earth, and have dominion over the fish of the sea,
- * and over the" fowl of the air, and over every thing that moves
- * upon the earth.'" -Gen 1:28

This was the order given unto man upon earth, but originally (and still effective) it was – substantially given to the waves of virgin spirits seeking expression.

At the faintest will, man moves a finger, raises an eyebrow, walks, or even reasons. This is possible because the cerebra-nervous system which can carry the required thought, or nerve impulses to the muscles or cells required for the matter in mind. And thru the sympathetic nervous system countless more functions are carried on more or less unconsciously, such as the digestion of food, the replenishing of cells et cetera.

From this perspective, it should be simple to understand that as a thought can cause a man to sprint; or the sight of a steak or maybe cake can start the salivary glands secreting, so similarly can spirit-intelligence's work thru the nerves and glands of life forms transmitting impulses to mate or to migrate; to search for food and how to secure it the cunning to seek the prey and the fury to fight for survival.

Those were, and still are the arenas of labor and experience for untold millions times billions of virgin spirits in their onward progress towards the stature of the Father. The youngest ones work with the very lowest forms of life, where one virgin spirit may be in charge of a vast school of minnows guiding and herding them with reference to safety and feeding grounds. Thru observation they gain understanding of the life processes. And, from such humble post – which they hold over a long period of time, they graduate to ever increasing responsibility in keeping with the growth of their understanding, and in ratio to the diligence with which they attend to duties. From the lower forms of life they take on the progressively complex, working up thru the various life strata of the sub-human, graduating into the realm of domesticated animals. In this latter category there are individual virgin spirits in charge of single animals when in contact with humans, such as horses to labor, dogs to hunt, animals to intelligently perform and even parrots to talk. Yet such individual spirit-guidance does not obtain under herd conditions. Then one to a few spirit intelligences will be in charge. Others, much older, are in supervisory capacities and governmental control: assigning, and changing the posts of the younger ones from time to time. Often one spirit or several will abide with a person or a family over a long period of time, monitoring the various animals with which the person or family deals.

To the extent that they could be said to integrate themselves with the life of their wards, to such extent can they monitor, and also feel the joys and pains of those they guide. Not actually in the sense that we know pain and emotions, but rather similar to what we may feel sympathetically for someone near and dear to us. The gnawing hunger or pain of a beaten animal is felt in a very slight measure by the spirit in charge. Thus is diligence in duty fostered, and incentive to secure obedience from their charges. For, they can only sway the animal by emitting fine impulses thru its cerebral-nervous system: this by means of the pituitary or pineal glands. The extent of integration in the soul substance of the animal life to accomplish this, also reflexes the other way at the rate of about ten to one, and a hundred to one. The purely physical pain is sensed by the controlling spirit in about one hundredth part, while the emotional one in a tenth.

Eventually as they successfully finish their course in dealing with the animal strata, they are promoted to the human.

- “But to which of the angels said He at any time, Sit on my right
- hand—? Are they not all MINISTERING SPIRITS, sent forth
- to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation?” Hebrews 1:13-14

It is great folly to imagine that all angels (which word simply means 'messenger') possess great power and vast wisdom. In the spirit world there is growth in power and understanding thru exercise and experience, precisely as it is in the physical. Even as a new born babe, they commence at zero. And like the babe who must first get acquainted with the elements, so similarly do the primal virgin spirits commence their work in the fire gases water and earth (though the latter two are derivatives of the two former in fact ALL have proceeded from the original fire). As the gases have produced the water and elements of earth so does the SPIRIT FIRE create and eventually engender that fire known to humans. Wherefore, as the spirit within man controls and directs the mind and physical body, so similarly is spirit intelligence capable of controlling all which has proceeded from the primal fire. But virgin spirits on their plane of being must commence at zero, even as do mortals on their plane. Having mastered the successive elements, they commence dealing with the primary forms of life taking on the more complex until they are working with humans.

Here the same principle applies where they commence with babes until they near 7 years of age. Their next class comprise the following 7 years of development; but among the more primitive and backward races until they are fit to take on the guidance of adolescents in Christendom, and finally adults.

Neither should it be imagined that they control human life: they are but monitors and guides. But even more important than being a 'guardian angel' is the schooling they individually derive from their working with man.

Humans learn from observation; similarly do spirit intelligences. But with this vast difference that the ratio between the physical and spirit realms is 1 to 100. Hence a spirit without a soul-body must observe cause and effect about 100 times as much as needed by the human, in order to arrive at the same consequent understanding as the latter.

By this we should not conclude that spirits are 'dumb'. We might term it the intangibleness of the realm in which they live, in contrast to the denseness of the physical, and the intensity of feeling associated with it. A mother may tell the toddler a hundred times, "Fire —hurt"; but as soon as a burn has been sustained, the lesson 'sinks in' and fast.

In the purely spirit realm there is next to no 'feeling' as we term it, for, that is rooted in 'soul.' However, as the original primal fire has developed ALL there is so is also the naked spirit-flame capable of building a vehicle, or 'soul-body' for itself, but only by means of experience plus TIME. As creation called for vast cycles of time until water became a fact, so must also the virgin spirit build throughout vast cycles of time until it has a fully developed soul-body in which to function. (Water in the physical world answers to 'soul' in the super-physical realm.)

Therefore, when the virgin spirits have advanced into that group which works in the water gases, they commence the building of a rudimentary 'soul'-body. As a human body grows and develops in capability thru the early years, so must cycles of time pass for the young spirits to accrue a fully developed vehicle in which to function effectively. We could not possibly pinpoint the exact age nor time when they have this fully developed vesture, but we may approximate it to approach a comparable stage to the emotional one of the young adolescent, when they have advanced into the group of those working with the consecrated, adult Christian.

From this we must conclude that as the fully developed 'soul' stands to the physical body in a ratio of 10 to 1, instead of spirit as 100 to 1; such are capable of receiving, or should we say 'appropriating' impressions, much more quickly than their vastly younger brothers.

The consecrated Christian is resolved to do the will and pleasure of the Lord. But often, ignorance or lack of understanding is a barrier. So guidance is sought thru prayer. This is where the most complex and difficult work of a 'guardian angel' enters. (Think not that it is THE CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE of the universe which is personally attentive to the individual's every problem and prayer.) Much will then depend on that guardian angel's stage in advancement; its intrinsic interest in its human ward, and penetration of the human soul-body. They may succeed fully, partly, or even fail. Therefore it has been written: "Don't you know that we shall judge angels." 1 Cor 6:3
Naturally, later on, WE who have been ministered unto are the ones pre-eminently fit to judge those who have served us.

However, we should not conclude that our often 'balled up' lives are due to rank failure on the part of the guardian spirits. In a measure – at times – they fail us. But by and large, our great grief's are what we have richly earned for ourselves; and that which we need to come to understanding. For, over and above the rank of guardian spirits is the rank of Supervisors: each one in charge of 10 younger guiding spirits. Over the supervisors is the rank of what we might term Counselors: each one in charge of 100 Supervisors. Above the Counselors come the rank of Controls, or governmental body: each Director being in control of 1000 Supervisors. From man's perspective, this might be termed an inverted pyramid: that is, one human as the base; then 10, 100 and 1000. But from there the order reverses, or tapers to the plane of God, constituting the interlaced triangles. Therefore, when angelic guidance fails us (from the human perspective), it is usually by the permissive will of the Counselor in charge, who in turn was apprised by the Supervisor on the job.

But the Counselor – immeasurably older in experience, sees more deeply. He decides whether or not that special guidance should be forthcoming. In many instances the guardian angel is permitted to 'blunder' along: the consequences being that which the Counselor judged to be appropriate and needful. IF otherwise, the suitable and measured guidance is prescribed together with such a power-release as may be required.

Often the Counselor estimates the will and understanding of the human to be equal to the task of rising above the problem or difficulty. In such cases it is often let go without special guidance in order that the human – as well as the individual's guide, may both better learn, and more rapidly develop – thru the stresses engendered.

Unclean Spirits

At this stage in our surveying of God's Plan for Man, it may be well to go back to the time when the Bright One deviated from His course in righteousness.

True, he was 'created perfect', but not begotten in the perfect fullness of a God. Thus far, there has been but ONE thus begotten; He is known as THE SON. At the time that wave upon wave of myriad virgin spirits were begotten thru His spoken word, Lucifer as the firstborn, was given charge of the realm to lead and direct them in their labors.

This progressed well until the time that the day of the mammals reached their ascendancy on earth (before the era of man). It was then that lucifer realized that thru a deeper integration in the soul-bodies of the mammals, he and his realm could actually take control of the animal: stimulating them to mating out of season-that their kind might fill the earth. And goading them to a wild fury in battle with one another.

All this was contrary to the Father's explicit instructions. But comparatively speaking, lucifer was then in the young adolescent's year of ego and folly.

Moreover, the brightness of his emanating light, and majesty of stature, was such that he commanded awe and respect in the realm of his domain. Then arose the vain desire to be like unto his Father – in a hurry: to become worshipped instead of merely obeyed: to be the sole issuer of instructions instead of but an officer to implement his Father's orders.

He had also come to discern that stimuli could be experienced thru the aroused passions in animals, and that their released blood while warm, yielded an available substance which could be appropriated for their own soul-bodies, making them far more sensitive to stimuli by the animals' aroused passions. It was then that He said in his heart: I will greatly speed up my Father's plan for learning and soul growth and, simultaneously, become worshipped. Wherefore it was written:

"I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God; —I will be like the most High." Isaiah 14:13-14

Whereupon he shared his 'learning' and wisdom with a multitude of group-leaders in his realm, which captains were to convey the secrets to their pupils. THEN arose the great moment of decision: OBEY the Father, or, FOLLOW the leader? A multitude of captains were 'taken in' by Lucifer's brightness and wisdom. And myriads more listened to the captains: jubilant over the prospects of more rapid progress, and an exciting life. "And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth." (Rev 12:4). One third of the heavenly host chose to follow the brightness of their Leader: was he not the elder Prince of God?

Here we should understand that it was not because of any 'evil' in their hearts (as we understand 'evil'), that they decided to follow Lucifer, who had already been their Chieftain throughout many cycles of time; but rather their desire for 'an exciting life' made possible thru violation of the Father's commandment. Also, their desire for more rapid 'soul'- growth thru the self-same violation. Their great 'sin' was that of OBEDIENCE to the Father.

As to Lucifer, he had been subtle. We could scarcely accuse him of any evil in the sense that we today think of 'evil'. He had been too 'smart' for his age. He was too young – as it were – to bear the weight of his own brightness and understanding. it 'went to his head.' He became enamored of himself. This vanity developed selfishness. He yearned to be adored and 'become like unto the Most High.' It was not that he wished any evil or misery upon those whom he had planned to take in his net, nor yet upon the strata, of the animal kingdom over which he reigned, but he WANTED A FOLLOWING, AND ADORATION. And, IF he could secure a following great enough, then would his kingdom rival that of the Father's! (What glory!)

To secure this following, or, any following at all, he had to have something of apparent value to offer. His prize reward and bargaining power was the exiting life he offered which in itself would speed up the densification of their soul-structures, which in turn would add to the desirable excitement of their life. It was what we would now term 'a viscous circle.' The rebellion became a success, with Lucifer at the head of one third of the heavenly armada.

* "Man is 'spirit, soul and body" – 1 Thes. 5:23.

Woefully erroneous is the belief disseminated by the churches that spirit and soul are synonymous terms. In fact they have nothing more in common than has man's underwear with his physical body! Wherever in Scripture are we told that God is A SOUL? Or that His angels are 'souls'? Not once! The closest approach thereto is in that He said, 'for the SPIRIT should fail before me, and the SOULS which I have made' (Is 57:16.) But observe, the soul was 'made.' Since we have been told that He is the Father of spirits (Heb 12:9 and Zech.12:1), we know that the spirit was BEGOTTEN – never 'made'.

The spirit is the deathless, integral part of God Himself: out of His own intrinsic substance: it is that which comes into being when God becomes a FATHER. While the 'soul' may be subject to death, for, 'the soul that sins, it shall die' (Ezek. 18:4,20, and in Mt.: 10:28 reaffirmed by Jesus.)

Fire – as we know it is the closest approach to the illustration of spirit. The spirit-fire has produced all that is seen as well as unseen. A virgin spirit is but a naked flame of spirit-fire in the silhouette of the Father.

As the spirit-fire has produced all substance both tangible and intangible, so similarly does the spirit-flame which a virgin spirit is, commence to build about itself a sheath which becomes a garment, which in turn develops into a crude vehicle and finally into what we might term a fully developed 'body'. THAT vehicle is what scripture refers to as 'soul.' But as in the physical world, it called for ageless cycles of time to develop the ever increasingly complex forms of life which culminated in the perfect man, so similarly did it call for even greater cycles of time to develop a fully perfected vehicle: engine or 'body' by the virgin spirits (or any spirit) before it could be said thereof as in Ezekiel 28:13, "The workmanship of your tabrets and of your pipes were prepared in you in the day that you were created," (that is, fully fashioned and properly developed).

On the earth plane of being, man has 'what we may well consider an absolutely perfect 'engine' of flesh, blood and bone: even a body perfected by the hand of the Master Artisan Himself. Because this is the densest and last, that in itself implies that the 'soul'-body preceded it in time in the superphysical realms. Wherefore it follows that at the birth of a human infant, that indwelling spirit not only has a physical body but also a more finely knit, tenuous and interpenetrating vehicle which is termed the 'soul'-body.

That LIFE process which built the physical body, did of necessity – first build a SOUL body. This is precisely in keeping with the same LAW as has been observed by thousands of medical scientists and recorded for us that the human fetus first develops in form according to the order in which life appeared on earth that is the sea life, the reptilian, and then the mammalian.

The soul-body built up by a spirit (dwelling in the spirit world) thru countless cycles is, under normal conditions, a permanent and deathless body, (or vehicle for its expression). The physical body of man was also built to endure thru vast eras of time – but only under those 'normal conditions' prescribed by its Maker. When those 'normal conditions' were changed thru what has been termed sin 'man's fall', then the physical body became subject to death and disintegration.

Wherefore, it follows again that as a 'soul'-body had been formed and built up in much less than a solar year, directly as a result of the especially prepared physical conditions under which the LIFE-processes brought forth a physical body: so is that soul-body contingent to, or dependent on its physical counterpart which gave it LIFE. If then, its counterpart in flesh and blood meets with DEATH, so does that cut off the source of the soul-body's energy and sets a pattern for the disintegration of the soul. Therefore was it written, "The soul that sin it shall die."

In Scripture we find precisely the same words used in connection with the lower life-waves of the sub-human mammals, birds, and fish. That is, they were created 'LIVING SOULS.'

Therefore, as millions times multiplied millions of animal bodies came to death on earth, so animate SOUL-bodies were liberated, and carried on for varying periods of time in that realm of their own affinity which, for lack of a better term we will call the 'SOUL-world.'

In course of time, the energy animating such soul-bodies ran out: they too died. Thus were formed about the world, and even interpenetrating the earth to considerable depth, a strata dense in soul substance – both animate and inanimate. We might somewhat liken it to an expanse of land with a very deep humus soil – flourishing with vegetation. That deep layer of black soil is itself the product of decayed vegetation, processed thru thousands of years.

As most plant-life 'will flourish more profusely in such a humus soil than it 'will in a very sandy one, so similarly could and did the virgin spirits build for themselves much more rapidly a SOUL-vestment from out of this soul-strata, while they were 'working with the multitudinous lower life-waves manifesting on earth. This was a part of the Father's Plan 'whereby to HASTEN the development and progress of the myriad life-waves of countless virgin spirits He had begotten.

Unclean Spirits

This adjective applied to spirits appears in profusion throughout Scripture. But how "unclean"? The spirit itself is 'a consuming fire': an ever-living spark from the Father-flame. Its intrinsic substance can never become contaminated any more so than we could say that a flame of fire here on earth is UNclean. As 'we understand the word, there can be no such a thing as an unclean flame. Countless and mixed gases and substances may be therein, but in a state of consumption: THAT is the very explanation for the flame. We use that flame to consume, and to PURIFY. So once more, HOW COME that there were 'unclean' spirits?

'Mother's little darling falls in a puddle: she is 'unclean.' Actually, the child itself is no more unclean than ever: it is but her garments and, at the worst, portions of her skin (or covering). Similarly with a certain class of spirits: they contaminated their garments, or SOUL-bodies.

These UNclean spirits were members of Lucifer's domain: they who 'kept not their first estate' 2 Pet 2:4; Jude 6: in contrast to the 'clean' virgin spirits, who, thru obedience and service, slowly and soundly built for themselves soul-structures from out of the inanimate soul-substance.

The followers of Lucifer were lured into disobedience: taking directly of the living, soul-substance emanating from the blood of dying animals – in which coursed the passions of fury, or aroused sex. And, as the soul-bodies of such animals were fully liberated (from the dead physical body), the unclean spirits could even draw layers there from in which to veil themselves. However, such veilings from the slowly disintegrating soul-bodies could be considered as second class. We might compare it to the garment of a ragamuffin in contrast to the garment of one without any patches. Much later on when the era of mortal man dawned, the scope for unclean spirits was greatly multiplied. For, in the dense and highly perfected soul-structure of 'fallen' man, coursed intensified and more numerous passions than in the lower animals.

Because of carnal man's more intense lusts, these unclean spirits could secure – vicariously – greatly intensified 'bangs, through a partial integration into the tenuous soul-body of the fallen human! Moreover, as the human race expanded, factions, tribes and races could be goaded into conflict with one another, resulting in far greater bloodshed than was ever possible even by the more ferocious mammals. And on the gory field of battle from the warm, oozing blood of slain thousands,

THERE was the banquet-in-lust for the 'unclean' domain. And even long thereafter, as the soul-bodies of the slain – indwelt by spirits, commenced to disintegrate (or lose their power of cohesion), the unclean spirits could again draw of this partially alive soul-substance upon themselves. Although such a 'ragamuffin' garment would wear out quickly, it was still rich in flaming passion-vibrations of life, THIS, passion-exciting stimuli could be said to be their ambition: vicariously it netted them the 'bangs' of human life without any of the burdens or responsibilities attendant on incarnation; nor the limitations devolving on the spirit incarcerated in human flesh.

Still another phase of the unclean spirits disobedience, was to seek out such humans where the indwelling spirit was young, and/or in poor control of mind. Here the unclean spirit, or even a host of them, could break the indwelling spirit's weak control, and seize possession of the twofold body. This was known as demonic possession, or obsession by 'an unclean spirit.' Under such conditions, the obsessed person could be goaded into lusts unlimited, for, the unclean spirits knew no 'law' nor restrictions, and, as and when such obsessed persons were deprived of opportunity to practice lustful license, they were driven to suicide – that the obsessing spirit might gorge its soul-body in the arising, lust-charged soul-substance from the warm blood immediately following death.

When we understand these conditions obtaining in the nether strata of the soul-world, we come to realize that Lucifer's host does not incite to evil for the sake of evil, but solely for the two-fold reasons: to partake of exciting stimuli and, because of the fatal strife in which rampant evil culminates, to be able to feast sumptuously on living soul-substance which, as it were, is woven into the fabric of their own soul-bodies.

We behold, then, the two opposing camps: that of the virgin Spirits 'which kept their first estate.' They remained OBEDIENT unto the Father. Patiently have they toiled thru countless cycles of time, working in the fire gases, and developing elements, graduating into hovering monitors for lower life - waves, and finally advancing into the class of guardian angels unto the elect of Christendom. Throughout these ageless mists of time, they have built for themselves a fairly well-organized soul-vehicle in which to function more effectively. And, very importantly, a soul-garment which is sound and deathless because of its absolute PURITY..... These are well on their way to the unveiling of the sons of God – in their own realm. Unto these faithful ones has the Father spoken: 'ALL that I have is yours.'

In the other camp is the host beaded by Lucifer. These too made a fine commencement white 'working in the primal fire-gasses. We might say that they developed the 'roots' of a soul structure, or the veins from which to build it. That was BASIC. To this was added as they worked in secondary gases, and finally with the elements of spheres in space. But when animate life came into being on earth, directly under the hand of God, these spirits were eventually lured into disobedience to VICARIOUSLY progress more rapidly, and that at an exciting pace!

We might compare them to the human 'underworld'; most of which characters do not commit crime for the sake of being 'evil'; but rather thru that selfishness which goads them to live fatly at the expense of others.

This disobedience in the spirit realm was later REenacted in the physical by the human. In substance the same Truth applied to the virgin spirits on the verge of disobedience as it did to the original, or first pair which sinned:

- * "And the serpent said unto the
- * woman: 'You shall not surely die: for God knows that in the
- * day you eat thereof, your eyes will be opened, and YOU WILL
- * ALL BE AS GODS – knowing good and evil' " Gen 3:4-5.

Here the 'woman' typifies the SOUL. Lucifer told them that their soul-bodies would not 'die', but rather they would become like unto Gods (the FATHER and the SON), knowing good from evil: that is, experiencing desirable progress in contrast to the slow, toilsome and tortuous spiral of progress. GOD Himself had devised the glorious Plan by which the myriad waves of spirit-beings could outstrip the glow, spiral pathway throughout misty cycles of time. THIS said Lucifer, was to be eagerly sought. So why not "go whole hog" and really 'get places?' One third of that vast host fell into his net!

Humanity

* "Let us create man in our own image. Male and female created He them" – Gen 1:26-27

This was the primitive humanity which ranged the earth throughout misty cycles of time. They were hermaphrodites: both male and female complete in one body. GOD IS COMPLETE IN HIS OWN BEING: man was created in the image of God ('male and female created He them'). Observe that this is the first and basic account; Adam and Eve who lived later are related. later.

This primitive humanity was OBEDIENT: being complete within themselves they were without passion. And without passion, the increase of their species was a slow process. They were deathless beings ('in the image of God'). An individual 'in the image of God' would range the earth for thousands of years, until he had gained full control of all his vehicles and link of mind ('and let them have DOMINION over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth.” Gen 1:26)

To bring forth another human being ‘in the image of God’ was a burdensome procedure with no apparent gain, satisfaction or advantage attached thereto.

God had told them to be fruitful and multiply, but THAT did not specify amount. A perfect man, attaining 2000 years of age would have been obedient unto the Divine injunction if bringing forth but two more ‘sons in the image of God,’

The process was slow: too slow! There were thousands of times multiplied millions of spirits awaiting INCARNATION on earth – leading to full sonship with God.

The spirits indwelling those sons of God in His own image were VIRGIN SPIRITS which had ‘retained their first estate.’ Because of their obedience, and to hasten their full-blown maturity into SONSHIP, they were permitted to enter such human forms, living therein until they had perfected their vehicles. In that day (of their having gained a FULL DOMINION), their bodies ‘were raised in vibratory pitch until they were no longer clodhoppers, hit glorified beings in a super-terrestrial realm. The Plan was perfect, and functioned perfectly, except for its slowness. Yet ‘eternity’ was ahead. In the realm of God there is no rush. Yet the young and primal virgin spirits YEARNED for opportunity to race into the status of perfected Sons of the Living God (their Father). By incarnating in the fleshly sons of God, they could speed up their progress TENfold. (The soul-world stands to the denseness of the earthly in 1 to 10.)

The Journey Back

God was aware (in fact had planned for it misty cycles of time before hand), how Lucifer had already rebelled against the Divine injunctions by unlawfully appropriating soul-substance from dying mammals, and goading them into fury to speed their death. Now the embryo Plan could be implemented – to HASTEN THE PERFECTION OF ALL BEGOTTEN BEINGS!

Then He selected a man by which to carry out this Plan. He was named ‘Adam’ in the day God closed up the female portion of his sex. We might surmise this took place at his birth – rather than thru a special ‘surgery’ on the part of God. But if it was surgery by God when Adam was under heavy anesthetics, or the ‘deep sleep’ by a being who had not made use of his reproductive forces for a thousand years or more, is quite immaterial to us now. We know that for His Plan to work, another single sexed being of the opposite polarity had to be brought forth.

The Adam of Gen 2:7 had been led away to dwell by himself. He was different: he was an outcast; he was the solitary in the then human family. Hundreds of years rolled by, yet for 'Adam there was not found an helpmate for him.'

Then was the time and episode of which we are told in Gen 2:27 that God induced a 'deep sleep' to come upon him, and He set before him that other single-sexed being known to us by the name of Eve.

The spirits indwelling the said Adam and Eve, were chosen and commandeered from the Enemy's camp! For, God IS JUST. A small group, being one of the older waves of virgin spirits who had remained faithful, were those who were given the opportunity to attain a limited perfection in the perfectly complete bodies of the primitive humanity. But since Lucifer's host had worked as subverters through the lower life-waves on the earth-plane, it became JUST in the sight of God that these selfsame spirits should themselves become subject to subversion – on the human plane of being. Moreover, they had to be reclaimed, or 'redeemed.'

Thus it was that God judged and divided the house of Lucifer into two folds that of the sheep and the goats. The sheep fold was comprised of those who had beheld their folly, and grieved over the error of their disobedience. But since their eyes had been opened thru disobedience, it was impossible for God to take them back into His own fold; even as on earth today one who has proven oneself UNfaithful, cannot be trusted again – unless after much time, such a one has come to a true repentance thru suffering – in one way or another.

In the other fold of Lucifer's camp were the 'goats.' They were head-strong and willful, delighting in the ways of their error. In them there had been no recriminations.

To the sheep-fold God said substantially: "Since you have grieved over the error of your ways, you shall have your chance at REDEMPTION without having to go thru the purging fire. In your scanty vestments which you have already polluted, you can never abide in my presence, nor go on into perfection. Either those garments must be destroyed in the fire following that great and future day I have appointed unto JUDGMENT; or, you may purge them by being born into human bodies, by which process a new, clean, and vital soul-body will become fused with your present. THEN you will partake fully of both good and evil until that day. I open the fountain for your cleansing and complete restoration."

The two anti-rebels who had sought to break free from Lucifer's domain, were chosen to be the heads of this fold, and to lead the Homeward trek by becoming incarcerated in those two Single sexed beings: Adam, and somewhat later, Eve.

We have not been told how long Adam and Eve enjoyed their sinless domain, but it was then and there the time came about that 'the serpent beguiled Eve.'

This had been foreseen and prepared for by God. Complete beings in a paradise-world had no temptation, nor excuse for disobedience. But the INcomplete, or single sexed beings, depicted for us by Adam and Eve, were instinctively reaching out for their comment. THIS was the avenue for Lucifer's ingress. Substantially he said in his heart: As I seized upon a following here in my own realm, so similarly will I 'open the eyes' of this earthly pair – that their progeny shall fill the earth and be fully in my power. THEN shall I, with my mighty host of followers, FEAST from rivers of human blood; THEN shall our banqueting and progress become fantastic as well as exciting. His foresight was keen: his prediction has been realized. But he knew not at that time, the depths of God's strategy.

Adam and Eve fell from the exalted position of their vestal estate in the flesh, even as they had originally fallen from their primal estate with the Father. Lucifer saw to that! Were they not from his own camp? Double-crossers! So he personally took charge, crowning his achievements with the subversion of that sinless pair.

The Journey Back

As their offspring began to cover the face of the continent, so did division also arise, fomented by Lucifer's band. The slaying of Abel by Cain is but an allegory to tell us how the grain and fruit farmers, took up war against cattlemen, largely because great droves of cattle would ruin their fields. Then did Lucifer's host commence their gala 'banqueting'!

On the spirit side of the ledger as viewed from the soul-world, the drama was far more important. Tens of thousands of human beings had provided new 'engines' for indwelling spirits from the 'sheep'-fold of Lucifer's camp. While these simultaneously provided a 'battlefield' for the 'goat'-fold of Lucifer, as against the obedient virgin spirits, sent by God to direct humanity into ways of Truth and righteousness. One camp vied with the other to secure obedience from its wards: one unto their destruction, while the other unto their restoration. This field of battle was the 'military academy' for both the 'angels of God' as well as for Lucifer's camp, while the 'sheepfold' from Lucifer's domain had taken up their trek back home!

Long and painful the journey would be, but the more they suffered – within their capacity to bear: the more deeply 'would be impressed the bitter lesson that wrong and evil brought its own recompense in suffering | And that the incarnating spirits should learn to value; and to reverence the sanctity of that body-garment which God had made available for them, disease was permitted to make its inroads, adding to suffering, and shortening. human life.

God is not a Spirit-monster to wish suffering upon any being, but two stark facts stand out: First, the spirits involved were from the Rebels' camp, which had not hesitated to bring suffering upon animals for their own selfish aims-in-disobedience. Secondly, PAIN was the whiplash in the hand of God, whereby to correct the errant children, and the sooner restore them to Himself. It is even with pain, in contrast to the relatively pain free life, as it is with the earth-life in contrast to the soul-life; and that in turn in contrast to the purely spirit life (before spirits have acquired a functional soul-body). if we call the earth-life one (1), then the soul is ten while the spirit is 100. These ratios are with reference to TIME; that is: one year on earth equates to about ten in the soul world, and to one hundred in the pure spirit realm. But as to intensity of feeling, CONVERSELY. We might say it agrees with the DENSITY of the realm: the soul realm being ten times more attenuated than the human realm; while the spirit realm, a hundred times more attenuated than the earthly, and ten times more so than the soul-realm.

Wherefore, experiences on earth being ten times more intense in feeling than in the soul realm, bring about results – in lessons taken to heart. ten times more rapidly than could be experienced by spirits in a soul body, and a hundred times as fast as the young virgin spirits without a soul. It was this intensity of feeling thru suffering which brought about that first turning to God in earnestness, of which it was written:

"Then began men to call upon the name of the Lord." Gen 4:26

Furthermore, the human body was God's masterpiece, designed to function thousands of years, until its indwelling spirit had gained full dominion. Therefore, since disobedience brought about its death, the conscious Spirit within had to be taught the importance of the body's proper care. This could only come thru disease and its consequent pain. And, that stern taskmaster known as Pain, must reign until the rebel spirits have been whipped into line; and, in heart ready to kneel before the Father – in all sincerity following wherever He leads. Of that day it was written: “and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain” Rev 21:4

Thus the present humanity is the ‘stamping grounds’ unto, or for the once rebel-spirits in Lucifer’s camp. Peter and John, you and I, are from out of that host of renegades! Wherefore it was written, “The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked.” Jer. 17:9

The seat of the human soul is in the heart. That human soul partakes of the qualities of disobedience-in-wickedness at birth, inherited (not from parents, but) from its ‘psyche’ while in Lucifer’s armada. To be deceitful and treacherous, comes naturally to it! That primitive ‘soul’ has been fused with the human soul, generated by the Me-processes while within the womb. Since the spirit’s primitive soul has been engrafted with the human soul, the composite structure becomes subject to death (after death of the physical body), without the ultimate necessity of disintegration in the flames of Gehenna. (see page 134.)

The Flood

The great deluge was no particular miracle brought about by God’ s wrath, but rather a natural consequence of the then obtaining atmospheric conditions, but God had TIMED the matter to occur at the psychological moment, to clear away the old, and make a fresh start. wherefore, God called of the beasts – and all animal life, pairs which had not been tainted by Lucifer’s subversive tactics. They went into Noah’s Ark to preserve A CLEAN SEED in the earth. The balance of the animal kingdom was wiped out, together with that humanity which had been especially responsive to the Enemy’s passion-arousing tactics of them it was written:

*”And God saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth,
*and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart, was only
*evil continually” – Gen 6:5

As water symbolizes soul; so similarly at the time that God caused the immense volume of water-mist held in suspension beyond the earth’s present upper stratosphere, to descend and deluge most of the earth, he also caused the highly attenuated soul-strata surrounding the earth to condense and become more compact. This corresponded on the soul plane to the recession and gathering together of the waters on the earth plane.

The result was that Lucifer’s host could no longer fully control the animal kingdom. Previously, the soul strata had been so attenuated, that the soul-structure of both man and beast was highly susceptible; or should we say, easily penetrated by the unclean spirits in their highly attenuated soul vehicles. We might compare it to a man who can readily dive into the water, but scarcely into the earth, for, the ground is as dense, or more so than his own body. Similarly, when the soul structure of both man and beast became densified thru the more compact strata from which to build; then the spirits with bodies of the same nature but more rarified, could not enter. They had to work on the surface as it were; and became more and more limited in their scope, and confined to working thru man's brain by means of thought-impulses and desire-pulls. The first is centrifugal while the latter is centripetal.

Wherefore, the time of the great flood was not only a new commencement on earth, but also a new era for earth's soul-world. Demonic possession became rare, while the animal kingdom was virtually freed from demon control. It called for revised. strategy in Lucifer's camp, even as on earth today, when some new invention and engine of war, renders obsolete much of previous weapons and tactics.

Now the demon horde had to work harder for more meagre result: specializing in what we might term 'dart' work directed at the pituitary gland (causing evil thoughts to arise in man's mind); and suction pulls directed to the posterior lobe of the pineal gland to stimulate erotic yearnings. But except for the occasional individual, they could no longer control humans.

Incidentally, this also made it more difficult for the clean and faithful spirits in God's camp (commonly referred to in Scripture as angels), to successfully guide their wards; they too had to work harder and with poorer results. This densification of man's soul body at the time of the flood, also accounts for man becoming less and less aware of angelic presences: more deaf and blind to the unseen world (in the A. V. rendered 'hell'). (This last statement should be understood with reference to the young wave of spirit-guides who have, and still work with humanity; also to those in the enemy's camp. Angels of higher orders – such as Gabriel and many below him, have the POWER to manifest, regardless of man's dense soul-body.)

Adding still further to this lack of attunement with the lower Strata of the spirit world, has been the addition to man's diet, of drugs – poisons, such as contained in coffee, tea and tobaccos. Although these do not 'condense' the soul-structure they have a numbing effect on both the pineal and pituitary glands. It was thru these two that ancient man could more readily communicate with the spirit world.

To a considerable extent, it was for this very reason that God commanded the descendants of Abraham to live as a SEPARATED, or 'holy' people unto Him. Today it is commonly known as 'inbreeding.' Abram was married to his half-sister; Isaac to his niece, and Jacob also took nieces. Presumably, the patriarchs had non-related wives, but thereafter their espousals were largely within the clan. This practice has the effect of sensitizing the pituitary and pineal glands – a great asset to a people set aside for Divine guidance thru their prophets.

* For lack of better words, "psyche", and the "primitive soul" expressions were used where marked (t) on page 72. ~Yet that differs much from the human "soul." The latter is subject to disintegration some time following death of the physical body. While the "primitive soul" possessed by the young spirit could be likened to an "aura", or to the magnetic field surrounding a steel core subjected to an electric current. By the passage of time and the spirit's experience in contact with its environment, its, "aura" (soul) densifies progressively. Since its central core (the spirit) is not subject to death, so neither is its soul structure. The dissolution can only come about in the "fires of Gehenna", or, if as and when the spirit incarnates in a human 'ate. In the latter event, that primitive substance fuses with the infant's soul – as the latter is gene-rated. It has then become one with the human 'soul, – imparting its nature to the latter, for, the two are then one.

Foods Clean and Unclean

Fish are cold blooded creatures, hence do not course with the same passions as do warm-blooded mammals. With few exceptions they could be eaten, But among the animals we find all carnivorous ones excluded: they were a type of greed and selfishness: living on others. Also some like the horse and camel which were especially adaptable to man's service, were special wards of more mature spirits, and hence not to be eaten. We find the same exclusion among the birds of prey. In their realm (birds especially symbolize spirits) were also the carrion eaters – which typify the UNclean spirits.

No doubt, some of such meats were far less wholesome for man than fish, fowl, mutton and beef; but the truly important factor was the SYMBOLOGY involved for, God conforms ALL unto the Central Pattern.

Blood was not to be eaten. So far as we know, the blood of a healthy animal is 'quite wholesome food. But He said that 'the life is in the blood.' HE might have added: Much soul substance permeates the blood; eating thereof you derive – in a measure – that which is not your own, and that at the expense of another. But the people could not have understood that: in fact, to many it would have been a temptation to appropriate other soul-life.

A Father's Way

And God said, "Let us make man in our own image, and after our likeness," And He commanded them to have 'dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moves upon the earth.'

It calls for no Solomon to discern that since man was not merely made 'in the image of God' but also 'after His LIKENESS then the injunctions He delivered were but encouragements to become LIKE unto the Father. Here, a son may look like his father: if so, he then is the very IMAGE of his father. But if his language, temperament, ideas, and conduct resemble that of the father, then it is said that he is LIKE his father.

Again we look at a human father. He has a son. Let us not distort the picture by throwing them into the savage jungle of a modern city, but give them open spaces with a few neighbors.

When the little one is able to walk and run and talk, he is usually found alongside the father. Under the watchful care of the mother, he has become aware of basic dangers such as fire, hot water and falls. On these the father enlarges that the lad should not meet with injury around animals: domestic or otherwise. Then he learns from his father how to perform various labors: first thru observation, then after that thru the experience of DOING the self-same things. The father realizes that the youngster must grow in understanding and develop in dexterity and skills over a long period of time – before he attains that mastery which will fit him to assume the responsibilities of life. Everything that contributes thereto is gradually introduced, and from time to time, that eventually the lad may 'fill his father's shoes.' Schooling, whether by private tutor, or in public school, is also seen to. Neither does the father expect the lad to master all studies in one day; in fact he may have to 'brush up' from time to time on lessons long since received.

As clothes wear out begets new ones; as he grows out of his shoes he gets another pair, IF, by chance, the lad gets his clothes contaminated so they are considered unsafe, or unwholesome for further use, they get destroyed – likely in fire. And maybe the lad gets disinfected; in some instances would even get shut up under quarantine.

A right and normal father is not satisfied until the lad has an education suitable for his environment and has acquired such skills as are deemed good and needful for his future welfare. All this calls for many 'days', running into a great many years.

Now, let us look back to the revealed record. Did not God command man 'to subdue the earth?' And to gain DOMINION over the fish and fowl and land roving animals?

By what stretch of the imagination can we say that we have gained the slightest dominion over the oceans of fish? Or over the fowls in the air? To be sure, we capture fish and we kill them; but so do many birds and some animals! Capturing and killing has nothing to do with 'dominion' which is subjugation. To some extent it could be said that we have gained dominion over the beasts of the earth; but assuredly, not in the slightest measure over fish and fowl. And who among us is vain enough to 'foresee' the day that man will have gained even a slight measure of 'dominion' over those two life waves?

By that dimly distant day when man has attained such masteries as constitute him a god-man, may we rightfully surmise that he has also achieved 'dominion' over all the lesser life-waves. We must assume that God can exercise full control over all forms of life. (Scripture gives many such instances). Therefore, since man was made 'after God's likeness', and commanded to achieve such 'dominion' over all forms of life, then must we assume that to be the ultimate objective. But bear in mind, BEFORE man achieves such dominion, he must gain absolute SELF MASTERY!

Observe: FISH typify emotions; birds are SPIRIT. Birds in flight are thoughts. The various categories of fish and birds comprise the entire strata of human emotions and thought processes. Land roving animals are man's native talents and propensities. Therefore, the injunction to gain dominion over these life strata is man's standing order to achieve COMPLETE MASTERY OVER ONE'S ENTIRE COMPOSITE NATURE!

But did not God say thru Moses that He would lead the Israelites thru the wilderness 40 years to learn to KNOW them: to see what they would do under given circumstances? Were not the prophets of old, severe mouthpieces for God to REBUKE the people for their selfishness, unrighteousness, and sins? And does not the last book in the Christian's Bible, give all its lavish promises (covenants) unto the 'OVERCOMER'? Thru the second and 3rd chapters of Rev you will find the sevenfold goodness of God, covenant unto the 'overcomer.' And His 8th covenant is the consummation of all into that of SONship (see Rev 21:7).

Students familiar with my 'Number Symbolism' will know that the number 8 is the greatest by far of all the digits. On man's plane it is the one and only MASTER number for it alone is the CUBE of another ( $2 \times 2 \times 2 = 8$ ). On man's plane, the cube alone is perfection the sphere links with God. So here again we see thru God's 8th covenant to man ('He that OVERcomes shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my SON ) that an absolute SELF-MASTERY is God's ultimate objective for man, which exalts him into true SONship to God.

Basically, there is no difference between a fully normal earthly father and that of our Heavenly Father. IF there is any basic difference, then is it a lie that man was made 'after the LIKENESS of God.' Or, God FAILED to achieve His aim! But on the contrary we are told that He beheld His works to be 'very GOOD.'

The father who is a carpenter, bears patiently to teach his young son how to drive a nail and to cut a board (or saw to a line). As he progresses he learns how to construct simple objects, graduating into more complex forms and objects of highly finished craftsmanship. Neither is the true parent ever satisfied until he beholds his son EQUALLY AS CAPABLE AND SKILLED AS HIMSELF.
'Let us make man in our own image, and AFTER OUR LIKENESS'!

Can you not perceive; or how can you fail to perceive the depth and extent of those 'multitudinous VOLUMES' which God conveyed it to man, thru that brief sentence?

Think of those words every day of your life henceforth; dwell on them every moment of your spare time UNTIL the spirit of SONship/DAUGHTERHOOD blazes up within. Then shall the zeal thereof give you no peace save in the striving to be like unto the Father. And the infilling, overflowing JOY of that vision shall bring a new song to your lips TO THE TRANSFORMATION of your life!
HEAR the Word of God:

"And all your children shall be taught of the Lord; and great shall be the peace of your children." Is 54:13 Why not in the past? And as of now? WHY should God reserve for the future the TEACHING of His 'children' – that their PEACE may be great? But HEAR again:

* 'I will sow her unto me in the earth they shall be my people and I will be their God.' Hosea 2:23.
WHY has He not 'sown' them in the earth previously – so that they should be His people.. and He be their God? WHY these reservations for the FUTURE? Yet HEAR once more:

* — the days of your mourning shall be ended.

* Your people also shall be ALL RIGHTEOUS: they shall inherit the land forever;

* the branch of my planting, the work of my hands, THAT I MAY BE GLORIFIED.

* ——— I the Lord will hasten it IN IT'S TIME." Is 60:20-22,

You children who believe in a 'magician' God who speaks but a word when all oceans immediately FILL WITH FISH; Who created 'man PERFECT': Just HOW and WHY is it that in some dimly distant FUTURE day, ALL His people are to be RIGHTEOUS, and, consequently, enjoy the untold fruits of that righteousness? Did He not manifest to Moses? Did He not send a bunch of prophets to teach RIGHTEOUSNESS unto His people – and the world at large? But to 'hell' they went in a hurry! So why; yes, ten thousand times WHY this distantly future Righteousness of ALL His people, and the glories that go therewith?

The blindly 'believing' Christian might reply: He had not brought forth His ATONEMENT at that time! But such should bear in mind that now we have seen almost 2000 years since that 'Redemption' took place, and still we search the earth in vain for as much as one tiny community where ALL are RIGHTEOUS! It is even difficult to find as much as one fair sized family where ALL are righteous! Again speaking of that selfsame distantly future day, did John in Patmos exult in rapture as he saw:

“—anew heaven and a NEW EARTH. —Behold the tabernacle of God is with men, and He will dwell with them. —And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death; neither sorrow nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.” Rev 21.1-4

In his prophetic vision, John went much further than all his predecessors; in fact, he went as far as it is possible to go and still relate the conditions to earth and man!

But even if you do not accept the 'New Testament' of the Christian, the ancient Hebrew prophets concurred – from Moses down – that man would ultimately be RIGHTEOUS, and enter into the transcendent JOYS which God has reserved for those who KNOW him, and who walk with Him. So WHY the millions times billions of short, miserable human lives, spent in ignorance, want and disease? And usually the INIQUITY which goes with it? WHY thousands of years of a HELL BENT, INIQUITOUS HUMANITY – IF a 'magician' God can teach man, and make him 'RIGHTEOUS' at His own pleasure? And even bring about the super-Utopian conditions of no sorrow, suffering, pain nor death!

Stop to Think

“Let us make man in our image and AFTER OUR LIKENESS!” Already the Son had FATHERED multitudes. It takes TIME for children to GROW UP!

It takes much schooling and training for a boy to 'fill his father's shoes.

And vastly far more time is required IF that boy has spent so much time with neighborhood hoodlums, that his father's vision of a right and joy-filled life, has become so distorted that he has fallen into delinquency and crime.

Unto such a delinquent one, a right father might say: "I decree for you long and very severe discipline – to the end that your vision of life may again get in proper focus. At that DISTANT day – when you are A SON after my own likeness, you shall know again the joy of my fellowship, and fullness of my love, and ALL THAT I HAVE SHALL BE YOURS."

THAT would be the equivalent of, and in harmony with God's promises of untold bliss in a distantly FUTURE day!

There is no other possible explanation conceivable to the mind of man.

On the basis of church dogma, and our priesthoods' 'interpretations' of the Word of God; the Creator reduces to a sadistic MONSTER – the likes of which have never been heard of from even the strata of man's greatest depravity!

These parrots in fine plumage were designed (by man) to teach UNthinking ones to memorize certain words and dogmas, that all might remain in bondage!

THINKING people go stark mad IF they believe the hellish monstrosities, and brainless absurdities hatched in the stygian night of a carnal priesthood's Bacchanalian revelry!

God created man in His own image and after His own likeness!

IF you will HEAR His Word, and receive it into your heart, THEN shall ALL of life's vexing problems dissolve! Then shall monstrosities vanish, and all absurdities flee into the shadows of yesternight.

Then will the unreasonable fabricated by man give room to a glorious universe of which God THE LOVING FATHER is the author and upholder. THEN shall your tears transform to JOYS and your life become an incessant song!

Then will you see this earth-sphere the arena for a portion of the rebellious virgin spirits who were misled by Lucifer now working out their own salvation (Philip 2:12), while the other portion thereof are still in the soul world working against the interests of man. We might liken them to two armies in battle one learns thru victory the other thru defeat. The Great General and Head master will see to that both factions learn their required lessons, although thru very different situations and dissimilar 'harvests'.

Be not so simple in your estimate of God as to suppose He is ever stalemated, nor ever fights a losing battle. HE raises one against the other that BOTH may receive their just dues – be that good or otherwise. In Ezekiel 29:19-20, God declares how He gave Egypt and her spoil unto Nebuchadnezzar and his army, for the SERVICE he did in fighting against Tyrus. God decreed it to be his wages for services rendered. Yet JUDGMENTS were also decreed against him. (Jer. ch. 51) which later came to pass.

Similarly with spirits – be they in or without human bodies. HE sets one against the other – that their required LESSONS may be learned. Unto each a reward for the service rendered, and unto all judgment over that wherein they have failed.

Growing Up and Schooling

Herein it has been stressed how a spirit requires TIME to grow up.’ As it also takes TIME for a youngster to complete school, and acquire the training and skills essential to successfully meet the responsibilities of life.

Wherefore, the inquiring mind will naturally ask: HOW am I to acquire the fullness of needful lessons unto SONship to God, when I am nowhere near to that at the point of death?

Here again is where the dogmas of carnal priesthoods have befogged the issue, making the simplest questions appear insoluble.

You and I went to school many days. The days added up to months, and terms and years. Neither was our qualification to victoriously meet life, fully realized at the termination of our formal education. And how far beyond that until most of us came up to the mental and moral stature of a revered parent? But HEAR the word of God:

“A thousand years are but as a day with the Lord Ps 90:4; 2 Pet 3:8

Said the Christ: “Abraham rejoiced to see my DAY.’ (John 8:56) and again “I must work the works of Him that sent me while it is DAY” (John 9:4)

Was it a solar, 24-hour day that Abraham saw in the life of Christ? Or was it but a similar moment in time that He worked the works of God? Nay! But His entire life was that ‘day’ which Abraham saw, and that ‘day’ in which He wrought the Father’s will (“come; I delight to do your will” – Ps 40:7-8) As 1000 years are but as 1 day with God; then by contrast is man’s life-span  $70 \times 24 = 1$  hour, 40’, 48”; or about 1000 “minutes” in God’s sight. And during much of that time one is too young to understand.

*“Come, let us REASON together, says the lord” (Is 1:18.)

WHERE did you leave your ‘reason’ when you concluded that God expected you to attain unto SONship in ‘100 minutes’ (‘in His sight’) of an earth-life?

* “Why don’t you judge for yourselves what is right? Said our lord (Luke 12:57)

Did YOU stop to JUDGE WHAT IS RIGHT, before you accepted the hell-tripe that ‘a soul fresh from the hand of God’, spends in conditions of ignorance on earth, less than 100 minutes ‘in the sight of God’, on the basis of which a spirit-monster assigns it to ‘the tortures of the damned’, time without end?

* “In the day you eat thereof you shall surely die”: – said God to Adam.

Adam ate, but did he die in that 24-hour day? He lived hundreds of years thereafter! But he did die within that 1000-year ‘day’ of God.

But our blind theologians talk about a 24 hour ‘solar day’!

We who were begotten by God, and destine to become ‘after His likeness’, send our children to school many DAYS. And an immense number of DAYS do we allow to pass before we even wonder if our children are coming ‘into our image and likeness’.

Why not credit God with having that much sense and reasonableness?

HE has told us the length of His ‘days’ with reference to man.

In the course of ETERNITY, should it be construed as impossible, or even as difficult for an Almighty Being, to apportion many school ‘days’ on earth, unto each child? And specially so when that ‘child’ got into bad company which led him into disobedience. It should not call for a Solomon to perceive that such may require many disciplinary ‘days’ on earth!

Behold the word of God:

“Before I formed you in the belly I knew you; and before you came forth out of the womb I sanctified you and ordained you a prophet to the nations.” Jer. 1: 5

This word as used by God rendered ‘know you’ is far more than acquaintanceship or awareness. It is even as used in the days of Moses concerning Israel how He wanted to test them and try them that He might KNOW them (as to what they would do).

THUS did He ‘KNOW’ Jeremiah before he was formed in the womb! Does that look like ‘a new soul fresh from the hand of God – – – ?’ – according to the spurious dogmas of the church! This Scripture boldly declares a PREexistence with God. Otherwise it would have been impossible for God to know the spirit of Jeremiah before he was conceived! Yet look again:

“Thus says the Lord: A voice was heard in Ramah, lamentation and bitter weeping; Rachel weeping for her children refused to be comforted for her children because they were not.” Jer. 31:15

This 'were not' implies they were dead And to that attests Mat 2:17, 18, showing us that it was fulfilled thru Herod's slaying of the young children some time after Jesus had been born. But see the next words of the prophet:

"Thus says the Lord: Refrain your voice from weeping, and your eyes from tears: for, your work shall be rewarded, says the Lord; and THEY SHALL COME AGAIN from the land of the enemy." – Jer. 31:16

Let the reader make sure to not confuse this verse with the one following where God TRANSPOSES the same principle-in-operation, by assuring Israel that the children of the dispersed would again come to their own border. Overlook not the opening word of v.17 "AND—" . Which word does not annul, neither interpret the previous verse, but leaves it as stated. And what did He state? Children of Rachel were to be slain, occasioning great grief and lamentations. Their spirits (clothed in soul-bodies) had been precipitated into 'the land of the enemy' (a common expression for the realm of DEATH). But hold your tears and refrain from weeping – COMFORTS OUR GOD – saying: 'they shall COME AGAIN out from the land of the enemy!'

Should it be considered incredible that an Almighty Father would wish to send back to 'school', a bunch of youngsters which had been abruptly dismissed? So He COMFORTS 'Rachel', giving the assurance that there is to be a great reward because of this sacrifice, when her 'children' shall come again from the 'land of the enemy' —entering new, infant bodies.

God conforms all His operations to A CENTRAL PATTERN. Neither can He vary His conduct in principle.

Therefore He set those two verses together that we should not fail to see the comparison; Weep not, for, your slain children shall come back to you from the Land of Death: Despair not over the future, for, the children of those carried to Babylon, shall return again to this – your land! HE expects us to understand the one by contrast to the other.

* "And I will give them a new heart, and I will put a new spirit within you — that they may walk in my statutes, and keep my ordinances." – Ezek 11:19-20

What! Do you impute abominable evil unto God? IF you say that the 'heart' and the 'spirit' above, refers but to a different mind and nature (put there by God); then you have made Him fully responsible for all the evil and degradation of humanity up to the present moment! IF it lies within His power to make some future generation good and holy, then HE is fully responsible for all hell out of the past and up to this moment!

On the other hand, IF you will come and 'REASON together with Him'; IF even of yourself you will 'JUDGE what is right,' then you will perceive at once that the iniquitous generations of the past have been indwelt by young, obstreperous spirits in the early days of their disciplinary 'schooling.' And the coming generations of which He speaks who are to be obedient to Him, will be indwelt by spirits towards the end of their school 'days' – when they are coming to understanding. When you 'REASON' with Him, you will realize at once that He meant exactly what He said: A NEW SPIRIT, and a NEW HEART. Figuratively, the heart is used throughout Scripture to denote the SOUL, for, the soul has its seat in the human heart.

Hence, the generation which shall receive NEW SOULS and another SPIRIT will HEAR His word – even as our own children in their maturity will HEAR the parent's word.

Again He brings out the same thot and Truth thru His mouthpiece Isaiah when He forecast the desolations of Egypt. Have you supposed that your magician God merely said in His displeasure: "Egypt, you go to the dogs" – when - Bang! - they went to pieces? But HOW did God know that they were heading up towards ruin? First, THAT was His judgment upon the people. They had served their great purpose in His will and plan. So He commanded a host of younger and rebellious spirits to incarnate in Egyptian babes, which would bring about the desired destiny for the land. See His words:

" The Lord has mingled A PERVERSE SPIRIT in the midst thereof; and they have caused Egypt to err in every work thereof, as a drunken man staggers in his vomit." – Is 19:14

It is even like appointing an inexperienced battery for a baseball team; or sending some young cadets to take charge of an army locked in battle. The tragic results are inevitable. Egypt was THE great nation which had led the world. But when God commanded a wave of immature, spirit-rebels to have their 'day' in Egypt, then was her greatness a thing of the past.

As we peruse Scripture, the evidence ever increases that God is JUST and RIGHTEOUS, HE decrees a just retribution unto all peoples: even to the Canaanites, Egyptians and Babylonians – all of whom were without His LAW. And, since He is A JUST God, we must carry His righteousness into action for the spirits who have departed their earthly bodies. To postulate such 'equity' is to be meted out to them in a furnace of fire, where they endure the tortures of the damned' time without end, is but to postulate a spirit-monster at least one million times worse than the devil. People who propagate such monstrously blasphemous horror, are not fit citizens of a 'civilized' society – to say nothing of a Christian one regardless of the 'cloth' they wear.

* “- – -when I cast him down to hell (the 'UNseen') with them that * descend into the pit: and all the trees of Eden, the choice and * best of Lebanon, all that drink water, SHALL BE COMFORTED in the nether parts of the earth.” – Ez. 31:16

* They have set her a bed in the midst of the slain with all her * multitude: her graves are round about him: all of them uncircumcised, * slain by the sword – borne their shame with them that go down to the pit——” Ez. 32:25 (but see all of that chapter).

'Hell' and the 'pit' come from words in the Hebrew and Greek which mean the Unseen world, and have not the faintest connection with the current associated thot of torment. Here God speaks of 'a bed' (resting) and also of being comforted. Nowhere in the chapter is there any hint of torment, nor even punishment; but rather a state of awaiting. Now look at this one:

* “Hell from beneath ('in the nether parts of the earth') is moved
* for you to meet you at your coming: it stirs up the dead for
* you, even all the chief ones of the earth; IT HAS RAISED UP
* FROM THEIR THRONES (in the pit) ALL THE KINGS OF THE * NATIONS,” – Is 14:9

There is one instance of what they are waiting for: the purpose of their abiding in the UNseen world, to be STIRRED UP, and RAISED UP, or to be caused to ascend from their beds or their thrones in 'hell', in order to incarnate on earth at the right time to be of the nations' and rulers – of one class or another – at the psychological time when Lucifer is to have his great spree on earth.

Church indoctrinated people may scream in righteous horror at such thots; but the fact remains it is BIBLE TRUTH with no other possible or alternative thot attached unless we wish to enter into interpretations' – which God has forbidden.

Christians who believe in the word of Jesus – will realize that He declared the same Truth when He said to His disciples concerning John the Baptist:

"But I say unto you that Elijah is indeed come! Mark 9:13

The same Truth God exemplified thru His chosen people by sending them into dispersion, and much later bringing them back into their land for another chance.

'Fundamental' religionists turn purple with rage at the mention of 'another chance' Yet what is the analysis of this? Have not such 'purplish religionists' granted unto their own children 'another chance' – time and again? In other words, they are BETTER THAN GOD! So they get livid with fury when someone dares to point out that God is just as good as they!

* "In the DAY you eat thereof, you shall surely die," Later He said thru His prophet: "The soul that sins, it shall die."

Since the body of Adam died within that 1000-year 'day' of God, we know that his soul (-body) also perished within that selfsame 'day'. In the case of Adam, there was but 70 years left for his soul to survive (at the maximum). That left the spirit denuded – to await the time that God had another 'day' prepared for him.

Of this class of denuded spirits we are told in 1 Pet 3:19-20, when the liberated Christ-spirit went and 'preached unto the SPIRITS IN PRISON' which were disobedient in the days of Noah.

Noah's flood closed one dispensation. Even as here on earth when a school semester closes, there is a time of waiting before they can again go back to school. So, two and a half thousand years later, these same rebellious spirits were still 'doing time' in "prison" – awaiting the time for their next chance (another 'day').

Contrast that Scripture to Rev 6:9 "And when he had opened the 5th seal I saw under the altar the SOULS of them that were slain for the word of God."

There he specifies SOULS. Those were not denuded spirits; for, their SOUL (-bodies) had been ATONED for by the BLOOD OF THE LAMB. They were not subject to death!

The Christ said that the blood of ALL the prophets, shed from the very first, would be required of 'this generation.' (Luke 11:50) According to history, that generation paid to the hilt! But HOW could a just God, avenge the blood of all the prophets on that one generation? Simply answered when we recognize the Truths He has patiently tried to hammer in. The spirits of the guilty ones out of the past had been commanded to reincarnate in 'that generation' that He might deal with all the culprits at once and show forth JUDGMENT both to Jew and Gentile.

In earlier days when the world population was small, denuded spirits had to wait longer in the UNseen before coming back. But now for a long time, bodies have been more available.

An approximate 1000 years has been the customary interval between earth lives since man's lifespan dropped from its early record. Yet this too varies immensely in some cases, especially where someone has been cut off in early life. I came across one such instance where the spirit returned in less than a decade.

Earth-Time versus Soul-Life

TIME is the same whether on earth or in so called 'eternity.' But the spirit's awareness, or consciousness thereof varies greatly. Even here on earth a day, or a honeymoon – perhaps – may seem like little more than a moment of time; while a few hours under conditions of great suffering or mental stress may seem unendurably long. It links with the degree, or intensity of awareness.

God has shown us how the earth, soul and spirit realms stand in a ratio of 1 to 10. That is, when earth is 1, soul is 10 and spirit 100; while the lowest strata of the Divine realm is 1000 to our 1 on earth.

Since soul is much more attenuated than matter; and spirit more so than soul, it follows that the awareness in the soul-world is less keen than on earth; and the impacts in the realm of spirit far less intense than in the soul-realm. Hence the degree of awareness of time is in inverse ratio to the earth. That is, 10 years in the soul world approximate the same amount of impact as but one year on earth; while 100 years can be passed in the realm of pure spirit, seemingly no longer in duration than one on earth.

It was therefore that the wisdom and love of God contrived the density of the earth-realm that the 'school-day' on earth might be the equivalent of a very vast era of time in the spirit realm. The appended table will help to better understand the equivalents:

On earth / in the SOUL-world / in the SPIRIT-world

25 / 250 / 2500 years

50 / 500 / 5000

100 / 1000 / 10000

Let us take the instance of a person who is cut off from life at the age of 50. His 'schooling' has already equated to 500 years in the UNseen; while as much as he would have learned during 5,000 years without a soul in the realm of the virgin spirits. Yet that is not all. The liberated spirit has still a SOUL-body: the continued life of which will approximate ten times that of his unexpired life, or what he normally would have lived. Assuming that the strong body cut off at fifty would have lived another 25 years, that means that his 'soul' may survive about 250 years in the UNseen world, which in turn would equal about 2,500 years in the realm of virgin spirit. Thus, even the one cut off at 50, accrues the equivalent of 7,500 years in the native spirit realm, or 750 years worth of life in the soul world. TIME remains unchanged, whether on earth or in spirit. But the intensity of the impacts vary. Therefore has a spirit made as great an advance during the normal earth-life as it would throughout 7,000 years in its native realm.

Those under the dispensation of LAW had atonements made for their souls. This came thru the transfusion of a young animal's soul into that of the one sacrificing. Thus, one who lived a full span of life on earth, and whose soul-body would ordinarily have perished shortly thereafter, received the transfused soul of the young animal. That soul of the animal being without 'sin', would have the energy to carry on a thousand years, or more (in some instances).

Thus were those atoned for enabled to carry on a millennium in the soul-world, which, in experience, would equal about one hundred on earth. Then would they be awaiting their next 'day'. That was the usual. However, as and when the Director-spirit (belonging to a much higher, or older order) might see fit for a spirit to return to earth much earlier, that would be in his power to command!

Reincarnation Examined

A very sharp distinction must be drawn between Bible-Truth as herein set forth and that of the Eastern teaching known as 're-incarnation.' According to their teaching, a spirit 're-incarnates' times without number until at long last perfection is attained and 'nirvana' entered. It is claimed that the spirit learns and gets progressively better.

Such a teaching cannot be substantiated by Scripture; neither is it in the plan of God!

IF age leads to progressive betterment, then would the spirits under Lucifer be quite 'good' by this time, or eventually. But on the contrary we find in Scripture that FOR LUCIFER and FOR HIS MESSENGERS was the lake of fire prepared! To roast the good' out of them? Well, hardly (See Mtt 25:41.)

Observation teaches us that there is a proneness to develop according to environment. Old wolves are still wolves: they have taken on no human traits. The one brought up in a home of license and disrespect for law, does – in most instances develop into lawlessness. While the one brought up conversely, and watched over carefully, is fairly certain to become an asset to society.

Impudence comes natural to ignorance. And it is far simpler to drift with the tide than to breast the current. Therefore, since lawlessness was entered into thru ignorance by the waves of virgin spirits, their naturally consequential course becomes that of drifting with that lawless tide. Eternity consummated would not make them perfect. Neither could human society ever approach the outskirts of Perfection – except for STRICT LAW enforced.

Strict law and its enforcement – more or less – have become society's only means of survival! It is a MUST for self-preservation.

Were progressive goodness naturally inherent, prisons and police forces would be almost unknown. Even aggregate society is so utterly corrupt that today we stand at the brink of civilization's entombment (thru unleashed war).

God was well aware of this. Once disobedience to Divine Law had entered the realm, then DOWNWARD became the natural course. HE knew that it was simpler to be a parasite and vampire, than to earn one's own living (so long as there were plenty victims).

Therefore the formation of a SOUL-body with a comparatively short lease on life, but with an inbuilt life-record which would replay its score with feeling, conversely during its period of disintegration. We might liken this, inversely, to the process by which the tree builds itself into the seed – which later grows into similar tree; or to the complex human being which is built into microscopic seed which later unfolds into a similar human being.

The naked spirit needed a vehicle, or 'engine' thru which to manifest itself, even as a flame of fire is useless unless we can harness and direct it thru some type of 'engine.'

Therefore the physical body unto the spirit in disobedience. This was a perfect 'engine', highly sensitive to impacts (pleasure and pain). But unto the disobedient spirits, its lifespan would be very short. Hence the Divine arrangement (or 'law') which, simultaneous to the building of a physical body, built a more finely knit, or tenuous body, within, and permeating the physical. This, at the collapse of the physical would survive a long time: delivering its impacts of life conversely to the spirit within, during the period of the soul-body's disintegration.

Thereby does the spirit become aware of the WHYs of life's vicissitudes, and, gets built into its own heart the distilled essence of life's experiences (thru much the same process as the unconscious oak builds itself into the acorn).

God the Father's prime objective then, became that of providing an 'engine' for the spirit-flame thru which it might direct its energies. But of necessity, this 'engine' would have to endure time without end. This would be impossible UNLESS the manifest life within was fully attuned to or manifested in full harmony with that progressive life-tide (the Father) which brought it forth.

With spirits in a state of rebellion, this would be out of the question!

* Therefore was the plan conceived that God Himself would plummet from out of the Glory, to take upon Himself an infant human body. And, the God-spirit within being perfectly good, would live that PERFECT human life, which would INbuild a perfect vortex into its every generated life-seed.

This is an inescapable conclusion, and in perfect harmony with that law of life we see manifest in all species reproducing its like kind.

* This 'vortex of PERFECTION', built into the central atom of the life-seed, became, or received its potential of an endless life. Incidental to this; or even the inescapable consequence of a Divinely lived, PERFECT life, became the GOOD, or progressive tide of God, as an inbuilt tempo of every life-seed generated within that perfect Being.

"In the fullness of time" we read that "the Word of God was made flesh."

Medical science tells us that within glands of man, are generated daily, millions of life-seed. Thus in short time this God-man, would generate within His own body, billions of life-seed with a PERFECTION-vortex, and a potential unto everlasting life!

The Lucifer-led man has ever wasted this seed. To show us God's counter-measure to this was it written for our instruction: "I came to seek and to save THAT which was lost" (Lk 19:10). Which He further explained by saying: "And this is the Father's will – that of all which He has given me I should lose nothing but should raise it up again at the last day" (John 6:39). Observe that in neither instance was He speaking of human beings. 'It' is neuter.

Much in the realm of plant life, man can successfully graft, so as to drastically modify the fruit, eventually developing a new strain. In surgery, doctors have also successfully transplanted skin, tissues and various organs.

Should it then be considered incredible that Almighty God can also make transplants to the end that the downward trend of the human soul should be changed to that of a God-aspiring one? And that the selfsame soul thereby becomes deathless?

This is that of which the apostle wrote: "Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of INcorruptible thru the word of God which lives and abides forever" (1 Ptr. 1:23). Actually, 'born again' is a very poor translation of the Gr Gennamenoi. Far more accurately it could be said 'generated again', or even begotten anew.

That 'incorruptible seed' which comes thru the word of God, 'living forever', is the very life-seed from the body of the God-man!

Said He: "Except a grain of wheat fall into the ground and die it abides alone; but if it die it brings forth much fruit" – John 12: 24).

This was a parable of His own body which should go down into the dust of death that the seed therein might bring forth abundantly. Except for that death, He would have abided alone; or, at the best, father a few children – subject to death.

His days were before the era of electronics. Had they understood the operation of electricity, He might have said: "When the primary current passing thru an induction coil is cut, immediately a current of greatly magnified intensity is generated in its secondary winding."

Since man is able to construct such a coil, should we construe it too difficult for God to make the human body after the likeness of an induction 'coil'; which, bearing the primary current of life, induces another life-current of high intensity in its 'secondary winding' when its primary life-current is cut (thru death)?

That human body ('coil') manifested the tremendously 'high tension' life-current in its 'secondary winding' when He arose from the dead.

That 'high tension current' He then manifested, transformed every atom of the previous physical body, including the life-seed. As that transformed body could pass thru closed doors, so similarly could the transformed life-seed pass thru space or a human body.

Therefore was it written:

* "He was taken from prison and judgment: and WHO SHALL DECLARE HIS GENERATION? for, He was cut off out of the land of the living: for the transgression of my people was He stricken" – Isa 53:8

HE was cut off out of the land of the living. yet the prophet psalmist exclaimed in astonishment:
WHO CAN COMPUTE THE NUMBER OF HIS BEGOTTEN, OR GENERATED ONES?

Of this Divine regeneration did He speak to His disciples as in John 16:14, but which words have been grossly mistranslated. Here is the Gr with its transliteration:

Ekeinos eme doxasei, hoti ek tou emou

He me will glorify for out of the mine

lapsetai kai ananggelei humin

he will receive and speak it to you

Whenever was there anything 'out of His' which was 'shown' to any of His followers which also 'glorified Him'? The translators not understanding the wonders of God's plan, could not properly render the originals – But when you look at the plain meaning of His words, and think in terms of His REgenerating millions of human souls, then will you see at once how that which is 'taken out of His and spoken to them' WILL GLORIFY HIM (thru the transformation of their natures).

When once this startling Truth of God's operational method is clearly understood, then at once will you perceive the LOGIC and REALITY of that which some sneer at as the 'vicarious atonement,' The words may mean little to the ignorant, but when understood how brought about, then does an unshakable faith take root and bear fruit in great joy.

We see, then, that God did not invent 're-incarnation' for the erring spirits by which to 'go from bad to worse; but rather a limited number of re-births (in human bodies) until the pressure brought to bear upon them – both in the physical and soul-bodies – would cause them in their 'extremity', to turn to the Father and cry out: SAVE from this mess and 'hell', and cause me to become thy 'son' in Truth. WHEN this stage is arrived at, then has the 'corner' been turned in the career unto evil. THEN is Divine help and guidance forthcoming, until readiness is achieved, for the reception of the Divine and deathless Life-seed from out of the body of the Glorified One. This is 'spoken' or engrafted into the seed of the human soul-atom residing in the heart. The human is then flushed thru with the DIVINE. A new 'generation' is commenced: a Divine REgeneration comes into being. But with that as with the birth of a human infant – which does not manifest the likeness of his father for a great many years: so similarly does the Divine TRANSPLANT require a great many years, to REbuild the soul geared unto evil, into that which perpetually manifests the goodness and Truth of God. But so sure as the CORE is good, so certain is that the ASPIRING will also be GOOD; and, as strength thru growth is acquired, so will also the weaknesses and 'falls' diminish giving way to the manifestation of the sons and daughters of Jesus Christ 'UNTO HIS GLORY'.

The 'converted' person may die – seemingly an incalculable distance from the eventual goal of PERFECTION. But so what? DEATHLESS seed is at the core of the soul-body; NEVER again can it die! And EVER will its aspirations be unto GOOD. THAT is all that the Father (or any father) looks for in his child: a perpetual reaching out to be like unto the parent. Thru TIME will that goal be achieved. Now that the spirit has achieved a deathless 'soul', it has an 'engine' or vehicle in which to carry on into maturity. For its soul-body there is no more death! Hence no further need for re-birth; although at times, such are also sent back. (Various situations and reasons arise which occasion such spirits to again come back, although there is no further NEED for it.)

The DIVINE VORTEX within the soul-atom, now channels its energies to God-ward. THEN has the 'prodigal's' saying become Truth for that spirit: "I will arise and return unto my Father." Though the 'distance' may call for a thousand years of travel; or on to several cycles: the eventual goal is CERTAIN.

Over and beyond this, the spirit possessed a physical body at the time of its soul entering into a deathless estate. This too had a central atom which was keyed to the pitch of all that the body was. The selfsame atom – though partaking of the physical, is of Divine origin (the 'word made flesh'): hence indestructible (except in the flames of 'Gehenna'). At the death of the physical body (thru ignorance of the laws unto LIFE), this atom was freed with the soul body. And, whenever the time arrives that it suits the Divine Plan, God sounds forth that note of required pitch which activates afresh the decayed body's central atom. Almost instantly the elements swirl and transform into a perfect replica of the previous body. Biblically, that is termed the 'resurrection.' Such 'Sons of the resurrection' are also deathless.

This becomes the second reason which obviates the need of rebirth and gives the lie to the 're-incarnation' theory (as it is commonly taught). First, the soul-body became a deathless vehicle with an ever God-ward aspiring Divine vortex at the time of the persons 'born again' step on his return path to Home. After discarding the physical body thru its death, the soul-body has served the indwelling human spirit as an 'engine' thru which to direct its energies in the service of the Father UNTIL the specific time arrived that the Divinely empowered physical body should be re-taken. Since the entirety of the person's aspirations are now God-ward, IMMORTALITY is in place. And, since a minimum perfection is required by the Father, life on this earth-plane must continue until SELF and all the elements are mastered.

FULFILLED must be His decree to 'GO FORTH' and to 'GAIN DOMINION over all the earth and all that therein is'. The greatest of these tasks is SELF. However, when once the Divine vortex takes over, nearly all one's time and energies are channeled to that very end: even as in childhood our time and energies were directed towards growing up and getting prepared for life.

The Resurrection Body

Many of a scientific turn of mind have stumbled over this, claiming that when the dead body has returned to its primitive elements, it becomes scattered and, even going to make up cells for other bodies. That, therefore, its 'resurrection' would become an impossibility – even for God.

In a measure, they are right. But let us view it from another perspective: even from God's perspective. A little child has a gaily colored, beautifully painted balloon – well inflated, and tied with a silver cord. But in course of time the 'silver cord is broken': the rubber empties and the balloon is no more (at least so the child thinks). Wails arise and maybe hysterical sobbing: the beautiful balloon just is no more. But in course of time, daddy arrives. The child finds comfort in the words that 'Father will give it to him anew.' So, the rubber is once more inflated and securely tied. The child sees no difference, no one can see the slightest difference. Is it the same balloon? Most persons would answer yes, but the air inflating the rubber is composed of other atoms.... Or we could take a scientist having a mold in which to turn out ice figures of a human being. But in his absence the temperature gets too high the ice man melts and the water runs away. Is the scientist dismayed? Well hardly! He merely runs some more water from the same tap into the same mold and places in the quick freeze. Suddenly the ice man stands before him again: not even by a microscope can any difference be detected its every perfection and every flaw is the same as before. Even chemical analysis reveals it to be the same. But is it the same? Whatever your answer may be – THAT is a figure of the 'resurrection' in Truth.

God's Planting

"...and they shall hear Jezreel.... And I will sow her unto me in the earth; and I will have mercy upon her that had not obtained mercy; and I will say to them which were not my people: You are my people; and they shall say: You are my God " Hos 2:22 ,23

And in the 60th chapter of Isaiah, we behold an enlargement-in-glorification of the above: consummated in a perpetual and absolute righteousness.

Is, then, God Unrighteous? PERISH the thought! Has it taken him these thousands of years, and the seeing of untold human suffering to eventually 'repent', and make His people GOOD? Yet precisely that becomes the inevitable conclusion-in-logic IF we accept the evil frothing in our midst by parrots in cloth!

Did not Christ say in His parable that the good seed are the children of the Kingdom? (Mat 13:88). Here He corroborated the words He spoke thru His mouthpieces seven and eight hundred years previously.

The seed for the physical body is planted by man. But the SPIRIT which comes to indwell that body is 'sown by God.' It is HE who decides what class of 'seed' is to be planted, where and when. So long as there are immature spirits in abundance, mostly in the power of Lucifer; that long do we see evil rampant wherever we look. And so long as God sees it good and needful that a certain people or nation be predominantly foolish, obstreperous and evil, just that long does He 'sow that people' with that particular spirit seed which bring about the conditions He has decided upon.

It is not for us to conclude that He should 'sow the earth' with all good 'seeds'. Even as in our institutions of learning, ALL cannot be university graduates simultaneously – of necessity, they must grow up (first). Therefore we find kindergartens, elementary grade-school, in-betweens, high schools, colleges, and universities. It would be inane folly to charge our minister of education with evil, merely because we don't find all pupils in the top class simultaneously.

"A sower went forth to sow —." GOD is that sower of spirit-seed throughout the earth, and, thereby He controls the destiny of man and nations!

Or you Christian believers: HOW have you ever been able to justify your God, or even to retain respect for Him when reading such passages as Isaiah 6:9-10:

He said, "Go and tell this people: "Be ever hearing, but never understanding; be ever seeing, but never perceiving. Make the heart of this people callused; make their ears dull and close their eyes. Otherwise they might see with their eyes, hear with their ears, understand with their hearts, and turn and be healed."

Jesus quoted those words, saying they were being fulfilled then and there!

Did He plummet out from the Glory to take on a lowly slave-form: be rejected, abased, humiliated, beaten and tortured to death for THE SALVATION OF PEOPLE, yet deliberately 'hardened their hearts' (Is 6:10) – 'lest they become converted?' How UNreasonable can you be? How much forthright evil dare you impute unto our God? Or how SLOW can you be of understanding? God wanted the heart of that particular people HARD at that specific time, in order that His Plan might lurch into gear for ALL of the world. Therefore had he selected younger and obstreperous spirits by which to 'sow the house of Israel-Judah' for those days – that they might bring about the planned dramas. Similarly does He at all times and places to bring about that which He pleases; or more correctly speaking: to bring about the detailed national dramas and events in human life; which He has carefully considered in the Throne room, and weighed in the balance of His Justice, in order that both the most appropriate and utmost lesson-in-Truth shall be 'taught in class' at the right time and place for all concerned! And, at the end of the 'semester', those who fail in their 'exams', must REstudy previous texts.

Even from the commencement of Scripture has God told us the same time and again. To Abraham He said that the orbit in iniquity which He had granted unto the Amorites and older Canaanites had, at that moment not been completed. But WHEN completed, He would release the descendants of Abraham, that they might swarm back into the land, and execute that richly' deserved punishment which God would decree upon the Canaanites. And a little later thru Moses He voiced the same immutable justice in declaring 'an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.' That is not 'vengeance' but rather God's JUST method in administering a sorely needed lesson.

Naturally, what they have not perceived in this earth life, they must come back to acquire later – UNTIL they arrive at that stage where, thru the weakness engendered by suffering they come to repentance and 'healing' at the hand of God our Savior. THEN a deathless soul body becomes their permanent vehicle for expression: THEN is another re-birth needless for in their death less soul bodies they can go on into perfection.

We must distinguish between a true spiritual repentance, in contrast to one but skin deep occasioned by the duress of the moment or some emotional experience. The criminal who is caught may be ever so repentant over his folly perhaps a hundred times over, but has he REPENTED? Usually the records show otherwise. The youngster caught in a lie or misdemeanor may be ever so repentant when taken to task by a stern parent: repeated may be the promise of 'never again'. But parents are sadly aware that only too often are such repentance and promises of no value. Emotional experiences may appeal to that which is better within, and bring forth the pronouncement that henceforth there shall be the 'turning of a new page.' In some very rare instance we observe the transformation, but usually NOTHING!

THIS is what God referred to thru His prophet, and that which the Lord Jesus chose to emphasize: there is A TIME for true repentance and the consequent 'conversion' (from the paths of evil). There is A MEASURE of experience-in-evil with its consequent anguish and suffering which an indwelling spirit must pass thru, before it reaches that 'spiritual maturity' which makes a true, or lasting conversion possible.

It is not that God deliberately 'hardens the heart' of man – 'lest he be convened and becomes healed'; but rather that his spirit is still too foolish thru immaturity, and his soul too attuned to Lucifer's realm, to permit of an effective repentance.'

And for His chosen nation, God had a peculiarly important drama for them to execute in His over-all plan for the nations, Wherefore, He had 'hardened' their national heart by means of that apathy -to-righteousness which is common to the immature spiritS from Lucifer's ranks: that horde of spirits He had selected and commanded to incarnate and rule in that particular era.

The selfsame Truth did Yahweh of old declare in the days of David:

- * "For I have not dwelt in an house since the day that I brought up
- * Israel unto this day, but have gone from tent to tent, and from
- * one tabernacle to another." – 1 Chron 17:5

David loved the Lord. And he yearned to 'build a HOUSE – for his God.' Was God a bit temperamental? Or shortsighted? HE didn't want David to build the house (the temple-sanctuary), but reserved it for Solomon! Yet David was by far the nobler character – save for his one great sin (which God 'put away').

Here Yahweh was trying to show us – both by word and thru drama – how His Spirit had gone from tent to tent and 'from one tabernacle to another' – UNTIL the fullness of time arrived: THEN would He settle down into a permanent dwelling!

The 'tent to tent' phase of God's wandering with Israel (as a nation) is the type or PICTURE of God's Spirit, with the spirit in man as it goes from one physical body to another 'tent' to be set up later. And while such are in the phase of learning, or state of spirit of David (meaning BELOVED), God watches over them carefully, smoothing the path before them. Figuratively, such are then in the state of the 'prodigal son' when he had 'come to himself' and decided to 'return unto his father's house.' When the spirit in man arrives at that milepost, he becomes greatly BELOVED – as was manifested by the father who ran to meet him in an embrace of eternal love.

Yet that 'David' is not permitted to build a HOUSE unto his God I WHY should not the 'beloved' one build a house for his Lord?

The tents were temporary dwelling places: they bespeak the short-lived human bodies which are wrecked by sin and go down into the grave. In contrast to the poor appearance and short life of the tent, stands the enduring HOUSE unto God; overlaid within by pure gold; built of choice stone and oil-impregnated cedar, and set with precious gems. THIS one bespeaks the IMMORTAL human body, wherein the spirit may dwell for ever going no more out.' (Rev 3:12)

WHY should that HOUSE be built by Solomon instead of David? Because Solomon means PEACE. He depicts the 'OVERCOMER' who has attained unto a perfect PEACE with God. He it is who enters into immortality HERE and NOW. Although the 'prodigal sons' on their way HOME, with a right thot in their hearts, are GREATLY 'BELOVED' ('David'), yet they haven't entered into the stature of the 'overcomer' and, therefore, cannot enter into immortality (the HOUSE) which is the lot of the 'Solomon'.

Yet David made great provisions for the building of that house unto God, Naturally! We read how he warred against his enemies, OVERCOMING them, and carrying off great booty.

* "—and with him all manner of vessels of gold and silver and brass.

* Them also king David dedicated unto the Lord, with the * silver and the gold that he brought from all these nations————— 1 Chron 18:10-11.

This gold, silver and brass went into the building of the HOUSE of God. The gold portrays SPIRIT and all that the Spirit of God stands for; silver portrays soul-qualities, while brass depicts the framework of the human body. Thus God showed us thru this account, how our warring with the vicissitudes of life, and in OVERcoming them, we cart off booty: the 'gold, silver and brass' which becomes 'dedicated unto God', in order that His permanent 'HOUSE' may be built when the son of PEACE (Solomon) has fully taken over.

How is it that these simple Truths are not commonly understood? Why are they not preached from the pulpits? Because their forebears 'took away the key of knowledge; they entered not in themselves and, those who were entering, they prevented.' And today His Ministry thru our land has degenerated into a profession Ministers are taught by men and preach for money. Thus did God roundly condemn in days of old (see Micah 3:11, Jer. 5:31; 12:10; 50:6 and Ezek. 44:12)

With reference to God's 'planting', the Lord Jesus Christ brought out the same Truth as God spoke thru Hosea in 2:22-23. This was by His well-known parable of the sower (Mat 13:3-8; 19-23). In the Authorized and other versions I have seen, the word 'seed' is used freely; but in none of the eight oldest Greek mss. is the word (seed) to be found! It can only be inferred: that a 'sower would be planting seed, and that it was seed which the birds came and devoured. But again I repeat (for emphasis) that the word 'seed' 'was not used even once by the Lord in this parable. Here follow the Greek words, (transliterated to English font) as found in the Textus Receptus:

"Outos estin ho para tan hodon spareis, Ho-de epi ta petrOda spareis outos estin ho ton logn akouOn kai euthos meta charas lambanOn outon. (from Mtt. 13:19-20.)

An English translation might be: "This is he(who) by the way was sown. The he upon the rocky-places was sown; this is he(who)the word hears and promptly with joy receives it."

It should carefully be observed by His wording that the people are the ones (seed) which were sown – by the wayside, upon the rocky places, among the thorns and upon the good ground. The "this is he which received seed" et cetera, is not to be found in the Greek! It is purely an injected thought by the translators!

In the next parable of the tares which He also explained a little later (Mtt 13:37-43), He did use the word 'seed'; but also specifically stated that 'the good seed: these are the sons of the 'Kingdom' (Tode kalon sperma, outoi eisin hot hujot tas basiletas.) Wherefore, in both these parables He stated emphatically that God sowed people into this world, and into different conditions. But manifestly: since it is man who plants the seed for the physical body, it is God who 'sows' them with spirit-beings from His own storehouse. Naturally, those who are of age (spiritually), are those RECEIVE (or HEAR) His word of Truth, and bring forth fruit according to the degree of receptivity (or spiritual maturity').

Yet let no one conclude that he needs must await his own spiritual maturity before he may 'arise to return unto the Father.' This is a matter of WILL. The past of misty eons lived by every incarnate spirit in the world today is far more than sufficient 'age' for all to be full-blown 'saints' of the highest order. But their depth of delusion and embroilment in Lucifer's disobedience, has hardened and estranged the spirit to such extent that deep and prolonged suffering is required for their 'coming to themselves' in weakness, and unto repentance: opening the way for a return unto the Father's estate, and into the embrace of His love.

Lower Life Waves

ALL forms of animate life have souls, but humans only have INdwelling spirits. Clearly does the Scripture speak of all animal life (including fowl and fish) as having 'a living soul,' (Gen 1:30; also elsewhere; but our common versions render this merely as 'life'). With reference to soul, there is not the faintest distinction made in Scripture between the soul of man and that of lower forms of life. Decaying vegetation thru the centuries help to make the soil more humus: more readily productive for future growths. Similarly with the soul-bodies of the lower strata of physical life-forms. First, their soul-bodies constitute a channel of ingress for the directive impulses from the spirit world. Secondly, after death of the physical, the soul-bodies disintegrate rapidly. The strata thus formed from the disintegrated soul substance can be compared to the strata of decayed vegetation in the material; they also serve similar purposes- enabling better soul-bodies to be built, and in less time (to achieve the same density).

The foregoing observations apply to fish (marine life), birds, rodents and mostly all small animals. Comparatively, beasts of prey have more vitalized soul-bodies – which linger much longer in the, soul-world. Then there are the soul bodies of such species as the deer: their soul-bodies survive from a few months to that of many years, and can be used as temporary vehicles of expression in the soul-world, by the spirit entities which previously were their mentors. For instance, a young deer which is killed – either by man or beast of prey, may have had another five years of normal life expectancy. Hence the soul of that deer may serve as a body for more effective expression – unto a spirit in the soul-world: that is, spirits which have never been incarnate.

Animals which serve man are on a still higher plane: their soul structures are more highly evolved, Thru their service to man they have earned a long-term lease on life. Their spirit-mentors take over the soul bodies of such after death of the physical, thereby securing more effective vehicles for expression, while the soul bodies of such as were slaughtered while young, are highly vitalized and survive death of the physical body for a hundred years and more. But now – as of yore – the blood should not be eaten. Doing so detracts from the vitality and life duration of the liberated soul: hence less effective and durable for the spirit entity which takes it over.

By this we see the sheer fallacy of certain cultists and religious sects which would not extinguish life for the purpose of flesh food. Maybe we should say their intentions are laudable. But, since in their own mind they are better than the great God who commanded us to slaughter them for food (Gen 9:3) they actually hinder God's plan! As for instance, a sheep allowed to live its normal life, would constitute a vague channel of expression thru 'remote control' for a virgin spirit, maybe six to ten years. Dying from old age, the vitality of its soul body would not go much beyond one to five years thereafter. While IF it had been slaughtered at the age of one, its liberated soul body would have served a spirit in the soul world, fifty, and upwards to a hundred years or more. A spirit taking over such a soul, can then monitor much more effectively, as well as receive the impacts more clearly (feelingly) from its ward.

Dogs, horses, camels and even some elephants, have well developed soul-bodies. Such as have been in close service to man are in favored positions, and constitute the highest available mediums of expression for virgin spirits, both before and after death of the physical bodies; often their souls survive hundreds of years. (See Rev 19:11, 14 where the heavenly host rides on horses.)

Re-incarnated Souls

There is also what we might term a re-incarnation of souls (if we wish to view it from that perspective). Virgin spirits who will voluntarily relinquish an acquired soul body of an animal for its substance and seed atom to become the vortex of the soul of another similar animal soon to be born, stand to gain in a unique way. Such 'reborn' souls manifest more intelligence. That is, they are more sensitive to impressions and conditions, and can more readily perceive man's mind. Hence they transmit to mentor spirits more clearly defined impacts that is their emotional-mental surges are more strongly felt by the guiding spirit. And, after death of the body, its more highly developed soul is a better medium of expression for the spirit in that realm. However, this is not the usual procedure, except in the case of such dogs and horses which have served man closely and intelligently. It also happens less often with other animals – mostly in connection with siring stock (under man's control), that the strains may be improved. THIS accounts for the seemingly uncanny – if not near human – intelligence displayed by certain breeds of some – like dogs and horses – and of the descendants of selected sires.

THIS is also the explanation of specialized genius manifest in some families, like Mozarts, Bachs and Strauses. Because music is a product of the soul, we find such great genius more to the fore among musicians, than – let us say – mathematicians, physicists, or scientists.

Have Animals a Future?

Here, we are not considering which animals will survive the longest, nor what strains may develop differently; nor yet if other species will manifest. But rather: Is there a more exalted future for the animal life-waves – even as it is to be for man?

YES (But here there is danger of misunderstanding my meaning. Read slowly and carefully:) Because animals have no indwelling spirit, there is no exalted future for any of the animal species (neither for fish nor fowl), in the sense that there is to be for physical man. The physical body – by itself – is as nothing, be it man or beast. And, because man's body is God's masterpiece, it follows that the bodies of animals are too far from perfection to be in store for any glorification. Yet directly, or indirectly, have they served man's interests. Therefore is man indebted to them. And, thru man's repayment of that 'debt', are they destined to a far more exalted future.

Yet let us not forget the words of the God-man:

"The flesh profits nothing; it is the spirit which quickens" John 6:63

The physical body is too dense to change, or even modify, except slightly, and that over vast eras of time. But the SOUL-body is like water: it can be poured into any mold: form or re-form at the spirit's pleasure. Wherefore, the SOUL-bodies of the animal life-waves are destined to more perfectly serve the virgin spirits which have been the spirit-mentors of all animal life-waves.

AFTER man's glorification at the end of this eon (that is of a representative number usually termed the church of Christ) and the following millennial 'sabbath', THEN dawns the true 'kingdom' era. Then and therein commences the earthly manifestation of the virgin spirits which, hitherto, have been but the mentor spirits unto the animal life waves. THEN will they incarnate in human form, bearing with them the garnered soul-substance realized thru their mentor activities unto their previous animal wards.

Let it be clear in the students mind that the body of flesh of an ox, a sheep or a dog, is next to nothing: at the very best and most but a very limited vehicle or 'engine' for the expressive forces of a spirit entity in another realm.

The soul of the animal has acquired, progressively better organization and sensitivity to spirit impulses. While the mentor-spirit in the soul world has acquired an immense amount of experience, understanding, plus capacity to cope with conditions. Perhaps the greatest asset of all unto these virgin spirits will be the rhythm of OBEDIENCE woven into the soul structure. For all of the animal kingdoms live reasonably free from sin (which is disobedience) except for their 'sin' after the similitude of Adam's sin.' To this can be added the sin of some in having taken man's life (Gen 9:5) Fish have not erred 'after the similitude of Adam's sin.' Therefore will their soul-bodies have the perfect OBEDIENCE-rhythm and hence become the nucleus-substance for a wave of vastly more advanced animal life. In connection with this we should recall the words of the prophet that the lion and the ox shall eat straw together. (Is 11:6-9).

THIS will be the great mission of the glorified Church of Jesus Christ: to watch over, and direct the earth-life of the new humanity to manifest in the opening of the new Kingdom-era. This 'new humanity' will be the incarnation of the virgin spirits hitherto never incarnate: the mentor-spirits unto the various lower life-waves.

"Your eyes shall see your teachers; and your ears shall hear a word behind you, saying: this is the way, walk in it.' Is 30:19-21.

Therein we see God's grand objective in the vast multitude of the lower life-waves now on earth: to get organized a soul structure with an inbuilt OBEDIENCE-rhythm: that, when the time arrives for the younger wave of virgin spirits (which did not fall away to Lucifer), to manifest as humans on earth, THAT THEY MAY LIVE AS OBEDIENTLY AS THE PRISTINE EDENIC PAIR; going rapidly on into perfection, at the conclusion of which the vibratory pitch of their physical bodies will be so stepped up as to launch them into the next plane of existence.

THIS was the original plan – and still operative. But WE – who fell into Lucifer's net in eons dimly past – had our cycle for manifestation injected at the time and in such a way as to SERVE; and learn obedience thru the suffering consequent on disobedience. Howbeit, for 'many of us this could not be achieved without the engrafted PERFECTION-SEED from the body of the glorified SAVIOR. We had dipped so deeply into the sin of disobedience, and so long ingrained that suffering would not convert us; but only bring us to that stage of weakness and yearning where we reach out for HELP – willing to BELIEVE and to RECEIVE.

Yet in our midst has also been a group still more tenaciously gripped in Lucifer's power. They have HEARD – but refuse to receive, and too obstinate to repent. The future for such is the 'lake of fire' wherein both soul and body will be completely and permanently destroyed.. (From THIS – He came to 'save' us.) From there – eventually – emerges the denuded spirit, humbled before the Father; yet bearing within the in burnt essence of all past experience, plus the distillation of unspeakable REMORSE lived in the lake of fire, THEN comes a rest (sabbath) for them in the Father's presence. Thereafter will they be prepared, and again have the chance to go forth to PROVE THEMSELVES in a new cycle of manifestation, when they will come into the stature of sons/daughters of God their Father.

Lucifer and his Messengers

Growing up and coming to understanding-in-righteousness are the twin poles of any right parent's ambition for the offspring. Similarly with God the Father.

Two armies are locked in battle: one wins the other loses, yet either side learns as much thru their experiences as does the other. And whether it be aggressor or defender. the lessons learned in battle approximate the same.

Similarly is it with the messengers under Lucifer who are locked in battle with the angels of God. Humans are the defenseless victims which Lucifer's host seeks to enslave while angles of Light battle for their defense. Sometimes there are great battle arrays but usually the tactics of 'guerilla warfare'. Whether in victory or defeat both sides learn at approximately the same rate. But the great difference obtains in their growing up'.

With the angels of Light, they 'grow' as they serve in righteousness the organization and texture of their soul-structure very gradually maturing and perfecting.

But with Lucifer's host the situation is much different. True, they too grow in understanding of stealth, tactics (of warfare) and human life. And their soul-bodies also develop in texture, sensitivity and increased power. But the essence of their learning is – for the moment – negative.

Since the Father cannot permit evil to gain a lasting victory, He has prepared for them (especially), the lake of fire (Mat 25:41). For vengeance? No!

Humans learn thru suffering: pain is the consequence of error. But as yet, Lucifer's host doesn't know the meaning of suffering: as yet they have not made the first contact with pain. Therefore the Lake of Fire! (later).

The mode zone of vibration within the 'Lake of Fire' is exactly the opposite to what obtains in creation That becomes DISintegration. Since the soul-structure of the host which Lucifer rules, has been built up slowly over an exceedingly long period of time, so similarly will it require an immensely longer measure of time for their soul structure to fully disintegrate, in contrast to that of obstreperous humans who also wind up in the selfsame Lake of Fire.

As the human learns, and 'grows up' spiritually thru suffering so will also commence the 'growing up' process for Lucifer's host when they enter the Lake of Fire! There, 'growing up pains' will be a factual experience. As the oak thru its early life builds itself into the acorn, which, later OUTbuilds itself into another oak, similarly is the law of life for Lucifer's host. ALL of their infernal experience has been built into their soul-structure. Therefore, as this commences to disintegrate, the pain engendered by its unfolding or 'playback' (as of a record), sears itself into the central atom of the soul: building into the spirit's mind a consciousness of right and wrong. Their 'growing up' and 'coming to understanding' in Truth and righteousness, then goes forward exceedingly fast. Yet kid not yourself that the Lake of Fire isn't 'hell' for all who partake therein! Howbeit, the 'torment' as graphed by pulpit artists of the old school of fire and brimstone, is a fiendish exaggeration. The closest and most accurate description we have thereof is found in Rev 14:11, saying: "—they have no rest day nor night". Similarly it could be said of some on earth in the advanced stages of leprosy – and some other diseases. Such too are in 'torment' – finding no rest. Their 'torment with fire' refers to the activation of the 'sea' by the Spirit of God; while the 'brimstone' is an ancient form of expression which means resting, trying and purging; or grinding down to test for purity and genuineness; hence smelting and burning-up the dross in His 'furnace of fire' that nothing but the pure shall emerge.

Humans undergo a twofold 'hell'. First, they endure it here on earth – more or less – according to the spirit's age and need of conditioning. Secondly, they endure a measure of suffering again while their soul-bodies disintegrate in the soul-world (not the Lake of Fire) after death of the physical. (This speaks of those who have not been 'saved'.) While the recalcitrant and unyielding type are due for a third 'hell'-treatment in the Lake of Fire.

Wherefore, as we look upon the lot of humans, and their measure of suffering here and hereafter), time and again until they 'arise to return unto the Father', we could scarcely be justified to say that the eventual suffering in the Lake of Fire awaiting the host of Lucifer, will greatly exceed that of humans. But we have had ours in small doses, interspersed with periods of enjoyment. They have enjoyed perpetual glee, but face very prolonged suffering. Though the two lots differ immensely, they approximately balance one another.

However, after their 'uttermost farthing has been paid' and they emerge from the fire DENuded spirits, they do not enter into the GLORY which has been prepared and reserved for those who LOVE Him. They will then have the in burnt essence of their entire past-in-error, and a will-unto-righteousness. But their estate is nakedness. Their first lot will be a sabbath of rest: a thousand years or more. Thereafter will they have their chance to commence afresh to build a soul-body for expression – in whatever arena of manifestation the Father has decreed for them. But their progress then, towards 'growing up' will be vastly speedier than that of their brethren virgin spirits who remained true to the Father. But being numerous eons behind their brethren in this commencement-unto-good, they will need all the speed their fire-experience has engendered!

As to Lucifer, his lot will be similar, but far more intense and of vastly longer duration.

We must bear in mind that he had his becoming back in the mists of this universe: being the twin brother to the third person in the Heavenly temple, who is spoken of as the 'Holy Spirit'. (Holy 'Ghost' is a ghastly term which Christendom would do well to drop. It is not to be found in the Greek texts). Since Lucifer 'was of age' and entered into sin volitionally: his is the great responsibility. Bear also in mind that his vesture had previously been perfected. It is now 'case-hardened' with sin like unto the finest of steel.

Wherefore it will take a lot of flame in the Lake of Fire to utterly undo the entirety of his vesture, that he – like those in 'his tail', may once more be fully denuded spirits, bowing before the Father. Therefore is he the first to be cast in and the last to come out ('and —shall be tormented for the eons of the eons. Rev 20:3,10)

'Garments' thru-polluted by evil must be fully destroyed – even as here on earth we do the same. In the meanwhile the spirit within 'has no rest day nor night.' It is God's final resort to 'burn home' the great lesson, and that will be effectively accomplished. As to his destiny in dimly distant cycles to come, that has not been revealed to me.

Three Great Dispensations

Now that we have looked behind the scenes and arrived at understanding of God's purpose behind creation, we are better prepared to look at recent Dispensations of time and also some to come.

THE KINGDOM OF SAUL was a type of the era of Law (Mosaic). The name means 'asked for', and God was displeased over it. ('I gave them a king in my anger and I took him away in 'my wrath.')

WHY should there be any law (for enforcement)? Because of disobedience! Were all to be truly good and righteous, the word 'law' wouldn't even be found in that people's vocabulary! But because of the rebellious spirits we were, God cast down a bunch of us to earth to first come under the law of cause and effect (in rapid reaction), and then the laws of the nations. To set the perfect pattern and to prepare for the succeeding Dispensation, the Law of Moses was given on the mount. Hence the name of "Saul", for, thru our rebelliousness we had 'asked for it' (the law).

As the Scripture declares, it was a grief to God to precipitate us into LAW, even as it is unto any normal parent to find it essential to enforce a strict law upon his children. It is so far more beautiful to find that docile spirit which needs no law.

"And He took it away In His wrath." For, the Mosaic Law 'could not make any one perfect.' As 'an evil spirit came upon Saul leading him into fits of temper and wrong conduct, so similarly was 'an evil spirit' appropriated from the Law which led the people into ways grievous to God: they appropriated its 'letter' and ignored its 'spirit'.

Saul and his sons were slain at Gilboa. The word means a bubbling fountain. This prophetically depicted how the Mosaic Law was to terminate at the opening of that 'bubbling fountain' on Calvary when the heart beats of the Son of God literally bubbled forth the Fountain of LIFE.

The Christian Dispensation

The Kingdom of David portrayed this era of GRACE. The very name means beloved. And so we read "This is my BELOVED Son In whom I am well pleased."

David was anointed to be king over Israel long before the death of Saul. Similarly was the 'Beloved' One anointed long before the Law terminated. Even the Church at Jerusalem was a hybrid product of Law and Grace; the latter not coming into its own until long thereafter.

Toward the last of David's kingdom, we find treachery in his own house, and the attempt at seizing the throne by force of arms. Similarly shall we see in these 'last days' an abortive attempt to unseat Christian leadership by the treacherous (to Christ) United Nations Organization. (Readers interested in details of the prophetic drama and its full portent, should read 'The United Nations' by the writer. This treachery to usurp the authority of the Christian nations by a United Nations Directorate, has been shown us by the prophetic drama wrought, to take place at the time that the 'bride of Christ' is taken out of this world. For, 'we find that as David was fleeing from Jerusalem he came to Mahanaim (which means TWO camps). And he sent the priests bearing the Ark back to Jerusalem. This is the symbolic drama prophetic of the DIVISION to take place in the church, and the 'secret messenger' service by the raptured ones unto those remaining. It will be thru the power of this 'secret messenger service' that the Christian nations will come to recognize their folly, and the trap into which they have been led. THEN will the Pit's stranglehold be broken and the United Nations farce (but that is too generous a word) ended.

The era of GRACE will then be near its termination. "Solomon"- the "Prince of PEACE", shall then shortly be CROWNED.

The Millennial Reign

THAT is the expression which has become common in church parlance to denote the era of 1000 years during which Satan is to be shut up in the Pit, and the saints of Christ reign in PEACE – as set forth in Rev 20:1-4.

According to the Law thru Moses, at the end of 7 x 7 years, the 50th year ushered in the 'Jubilee', when all forfeited properties were to be restored to the original owners.

This was a prophetic type of the resurrection (which many of us believe is a near event). The properties forfeited thru debt were a type of the physical bodies the indwelling spirits have lost thru death. The full legal restoration of such properties under the Mosaic Law, was a clear foreshadowing of the resurrection drama when God will restore the forfeited bodies unto the original owners. While the 'LIBERTY' to be proclaimed and the rejoicing attendant thereon, prefigured the 'coming into their own' by the unveiling of the 'sons of God' in the approaching age (when many shall shift from mortality to immortality).

This near approaching 'millennial' era was typified for us by the Kingdom of Solomon (meaning PEACE). No king before nor following him, attained unto his wisdom – declares His word. THAT portrays the great WISDOM of Christ Almighty which shall be manifest when He sets up the earthly Kingdom (having received the spiritual kingdom in the Heavenlies, and returned with it in the earth's stratosphere).

We are told that Solomon had one thousand wives! These portray the 1,000 years of the millennial reign, or that which shall be known as the earth's "Sabbath Day."

Does it not seem strange that a man of Solomon's wisdom and training in the LAW of his God, should amass one thousand wives? And three hundred of them concubines! And to get so demoralized that he was led into gross idolatry by them?

Adam and Eve decided that the 'fruit' was luscious, so they sold out their spiritual birthright; catapulting all their progeny into bondage to sin. Esau was faint from the hunt, so he sold his birthright for a mess of pottage. Jacob in his old age saw lean years; so, he too left behind that birthright which had cost so high a price, to join his son in a land of plenty. And a few hundred years after the return of his posterity to Canaan, 'Jeshurun' had grown fat and commenced selling out their birthright – on a national scale. Once more God plunged them into captivity for a season. And in the days of our Lord, the Rulers were so cocksure that their kingdom had been established that they said among themselves: "This is the heir: Let us take and slay him and cast him out of the vineyard: then shall the inheritance be ours"! So the procession to Calvary!

THEN the march of the Roman legions!

THEN the rivers of human blood, and final dispersion!

EVER it has been thus!

As soon as a measure of comfort has been secured, and 'security' imagined in sight: SPIRITUAL PRINCIPLE has been 'sold out' for a material consideration.

Even Solomon did likewise!

Make not the mistake of considering Solomon as a type of Christ. Solomon typified the era (the approaching 'Sabbath' day), but certainly not the Christ.

Solomon's 700 wives symbolize the first 700 years of the millennial period which, an abundance of signs and prophecy indicate is to commence as approximating the opening of the next century. Hence the 700 wives measure the period from 2000 A.D. to 2,700 A.D. THAT will also be a 'Sabbath week'.

During that Sabbath week, earth conditions shall approach that of a paradise. TRUTH shall flourish; HEALTH shall be common property; hospitals will empty, and material abundance shall abound! But can the people 'take it?' God's forecast says NO! Under the strict surveillance of the glorified saints of God (Rev 2:26-27), those within the true 'Kingdom' confines, will live in full conformity to the pleasurable will of God, with His Spirit and abundant blessing overshadowing. THEN dawns the era of the concubines. THESE are not the true wives, but merely females taken in for entertainment, convenience, and pleasure (according to the carnal man).

As approaching the close of the first 700 years, the Shekinah Glory of the Christ shall commence to withdraw into the upper stratosphere, and with it will diminish the vigilance of His saints in watching over the earthly kingdom. Not that their vigilance will actually relax, but 'her week has been fulfilled' (Gen 29:27); therefore will the time and attention be turned to the spiritual counterpart in the Heavens. ("Your will be done on earth as in Heaven").

TRUTH has gone forth when "the knowledge of the Lord shall cover the earth as waters fill the sea." Even the "fruits of Truth" and Righteousness LIVED, shall everywhere be manifest! As at that time, there will be thousands from six to 700 years of age, with other thousands from one to several hundred years old: all in dynamic health and strength as "sons of Jesus Christ"! But alas! the 'concubines' were not chosen by God they were there for no good; but only to cater to man's carnal instincts. Peoples of nations adjacent to the true Kingdom confines, will commence to infiltrate. "Liberalism" in that will again come to the fore. "After all, should not the abundant fruits of our labors entitle us to some diversion now, and the deeper enjoyments of life?" will be the subtle sentiment encroaching, and loudly voiced.

Then do the Concubines commence building up into a world harem! Their numbers increase! 'Solomon' has grown fat, soft and indulgent. Manicured fingers caress his locks while treacherous bosoms enticingly press; lying lips in service to "pagan gods" beguilingly plead: 'be not so strict and unyielding a joy-killer. Is it not evident that God has blessed us? So, now that He has withdrawn, He knows that we can look after ourselves; and, He wants us to enjoy life here and now!

The years of the Concubines keep mounting: the 'wives' are "old-fashioned" and, with the years have lost much of their charm; but the young concubines have youth, freshness and vigor they are enchantingly attractive and add zest to living! So, liberalism in that commences to flourish afresh, while "altars unto pagan gods" once more abound. Radio and TV have again commenced to blare forth their hell shrieks: "entertainment" calculated to appeal to man's carnal propensities, is again on the upswing. As rulers in Israel of Jesus' day, were certain the Kingdom was theirs to keep; Similarly will "youthful" people then, 200 years old and more, get convinced by "science" that their lot is like those of old, if not indeed unending. Thus the Concubines win the day.

We look in upon the "Millennial reign" as the year 3000 A. D. approaches. The GLORY of the first seven hundred years is still in evidence but fading (from the poisonous toxins exuded, and 'antiseptics' used by the 'concubines'), His true saints on earth are labeled 'fanatics,' and we find them centered in Jerusalem (then a fantastically great metropolis). Because of Liberalism's resurgence, the true 'saints' throughout the Kingdom have gradually been converging on Jerusalem. ('Come out of her my people, and be clean, you who bear the' vessels of the Lord.') while conversely, those infected by the 'concubines' have been staging an exodus from Jerusalem; for, the glory of the 'saints' weigh too heavily upon them; their extreme righteousness has become oppressive! 'Solomon' is aging: the era of the 'concubines' has run its course; idolatry has reared its wanton head: gross sin is once more rampant in remoter areas. 'Solomon' dies! The Millennial era terminates!

Monday of the Kingdom Era

'Monday' here, is intended to represent the first WORK-day (1000 years) of the Kingdom era following the millennial reign.

During the era of the 700 'wives'; ALL of Christendom had voluntarily been subject to the DECREES-IN-RIGHTEOUSNESS emanating from Jerusalem. And many of the other non-Christian nations permitting themselves to be ruled by heads sympathetic to the King in Jerusalem (David of old). Somewhat similarly with others, but under what we might term 'coalition' governments, including a faction of the old world's school of thot (majoring in 'science'). It is of such we find it written that "HE shall rebuke strong nations afar off" (Russia and China especially).

But as 'Solomon' dies, His Shekinah Glory has completely withdrawn from over Jerusalem. Once more Lucifer is released from the Pit to go forth with renewed strength to deceive the nations' (Rev 20:7-8) and to cause his own kingdom to flourish.

The foundation for a truly 'utopian' world society has been laid; but as ever of old, man sells out his birthright for a mess of pottage. The 'concubines' won: the last to be embraced and their 'gods' worshipped.

Now, the 'sons of Solomon' plot for power. Rehoboam stands for the strictest adherence to the Truths made manifest during the first 700 years of the Sabbath. But the far-flung subjects of the realm send ambassadors to negotiate for a relaxing of the strictness of the codes (Lucifer is coming into his stride). So 'Rehoboam' decides that what is needed is more severity instead of laxness. THAT rends the kingdom. As of old, it splits up into two factions. the one is Jerusalem-centered and adheres to the strictest code. The other is 'liberal' in that, comprising the northern kingdom. North stands for materialism and carnality. Observe that Jeroboam who became king over the northern kingdom, had come back from OUT OF EGYPT. Again Egypt is a type of this world in its fullness of materialism and carnality.

The record goes on to show how eventually the northern confederacy went into complete and final dispersion. Allegorically this portrays how the faction 'liberal' in that will become completely reabsorbed by the carnal elements in outlying countries. Serious inroads by liberalism will also be made against the segment of the strict code centered in Jerusalem.

The numerous wars and reigns by the kings of Judah, recorded for us, portray the struggle between the forces of good and evil: between Lucifer and the messengers of Light.

From out of the Holy City, then as now, will go forth evangelists to preach 'the everlasting gospel' (Rev 14:6). The gospel of Grace and Salvation as we know it today, will be no more. The 'everlasting gospel' deals with immortality in human flesh for the here and now. And its corollary – IMMUTABLE LAW. Grace and mercy are towards the ignorant adolescents, but when a full understanding of TRUTH is achieved, and its fruits everywhere manifest, then there remains no more excuse for error and sin, Wherefore, inexorable LAW takes over. This is in harmony with, and preparatory to the later era when the Son yields up the Kingdom to the ABSOLUTE.

However, we should not make the mistake of assuming that conditions then will be the same as now. The whole world will be on a new cycle-wave of increased devotion and spirituality. The truly 'religious' then would today be classed as extreme fanatics: while the better section of those herein referred to as the faction 'liberal in that', would compare very favorably with the staunchest church-goers of today who also live good and honorable lives Monday thru Saturday. Crime – as we know it today – will be a rarity (within those countries which have voluntarily been fully subject to David's theocratic government centered in Jerusalem).

It is not easy to draw a word picture so that the average person of today can fully visualize the standards, and the differences obtaining as compared to now. TRUTH never varies, but standards of conduct and degrees of holiness do. As for instance a truly good Christian of today may take in a movie without entering into any phase of sin as a result while another good Christian is fearful lest it becomes a temptation to 'backslide' (not having the spiritual maturity within to be fully confident). The one of 'spiritual age' who – for a long time – has walked with his Lord, can go to places or make contacts without being 'defiled' thereby. While the person immature spiritually, but who has entered upon the Path, stands in grave danger of becoming corrupted by the unregenerate, or by forms of entertainment invented by the unregenerate. THAT is why God commanded His 'chosen people' of old to be 'holy': that is, SEPARATE from the world – lest the ways of the heathen lead them back into paths of error. It was this very failing to keep them absolutely 'holy' (fully separated) which led to their dispersions and persecution in foreign lands.

The reader should bear in mind that the great objective of the Kingdom Era is that of becoming full-blown, unveiled 'sons of God.' That means IMMORTALITY in human flesh here and now. (I am NOT speaking of the deathless estate of those which become 'sons of the resurrection'.) I speak of mortals (subject to death) of today, who become Immortals without tasting of death; neither by passing thru what Biblically is termed the 'translation of the saints.' And I speak of children born as other mortals of today; equally as subject to death as those of today; yet who – thru careful training and instructions unto LIFE, shall never grow 'old', but shall grow into maturity and enter a full SONship to God before the age of. fifty. And from there continue to live UNchanged for thousands of years UNTIL an absolute mastery has been achieved of every potential within, as well as all of that which is without!

God will surely see to that His injunction to man (Gen 1:28-29) will become fully realized. Every spirit indwelling human bodies was begotten by 'the Father of spirits. God is perfect; and He is a Creator. Therefore the Father's Masterplan that His children shall eventually attain unto His own perfection ('Image' and 'stature'), and to become creators. Yet to become creators (like unto the Father), the rebel spirits inhabiting human bodies, must come to an under-standing and mastery of all the elements. Our experience and training therein during the early cycles of our spirit-being, was broken off when we disobeyed the Father and chose to follow lucifer. Therefore must we complete on earth our elemental studies, that, as 'sons of God' we shall possess the understanding which qualifies us (technically) to become creators. Millions times countless billions of spheres in space, now and still to come, are (and will be) awaiting the young creators to take charge of elemental and form developments. With the vastly magnified POWER which the future sons of God' shall be able to wield (in contrast to virgin spirits, or even older spirits with an evolved soul-body), the elemental development, and the evolutionary perfection of form will become vastly stepped up with reference to TIME – in contrast to that which obtained in preceding cycles. Also following the future renovation of this earth (Rev 21:1) as well as many other spheres, the 'sons of God' shall constitute their perfect humanity, and become the teachers unto multitudinous waves of younger brethren.

THAT is God's operational method: 'the elder shall serve the younger.' Today, parents, and teachers and well-trained adults in various fields, watch over, instruct, and carefully train their charges. Thus has the youngster of today the opportunity of learning during the first twenty to thirty years of life, as much as he would have learned thru the first six thousand years or more had he been placed on earth in a deathless body by himself, or even if started out with several other similar beings. Therefore we see (and history records) how here, there, and everywhere a few righteous stalwarts, struggle to teach and discipline the lawless elements into paths of rectitude. From such of the past have stemmed our laws and constitutions – that the younger and obstreperous might be guided, and even herded into ways of righteousness. Thru His law of 'the elder serving the younger' do the younger spirit-waves learn, and become disciplined by the elder – to the end that their 'homeward trek' becomes vastly speeded up.

Let the reader try to understand that IMMortality in human flesh here and now necessitates an ABSOLUTE CONFORMITY to God's law unto LIFE. It calls for far more than wishful thinking; it calls for immensely more than 'a good Christian life'; yes, it even calls for vastly more than 'faith'. It calls for a complete understanding of that Law unto LIFE, and then LIVING UP TO IT.

Wherefore, that which today many would term 'fanaticism.' And, whereas immortality will then be coveted to precisely the same extent as many today fervently seek 'salvation', we can begin to understand the WHY of that spirit which will then be manifest, to 'fanatically' live a 'HOLY' life NOW we are under grace and so the weak and erring Christian is prone to say: My Lord is merciful: HE understands. But THEN grace will be a thing of the past: LAW will be fully operative. Therefore the FEAR lest laxness in the standard of conduct might tempt one aspiring to immortality to deviate an iota from the Law unto LIFE. With that Law broken as much as once DEATH will be the consequence. Wherefore the symbolically prophetic words of Rehoboam: "My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to your yoke: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions." Therefore the strictness of the code of conduct as it will be lived by those gathering to the Jerusalem camp of the saints (Rev 20:9) (THAT is the meaning of the word rendered 'saints': the SEPARATED ones ) The very keynote to their laws will be the words of the ancient apostle: "The friendship of the world is enmity with God" (Jas 4:4).

In the spirit of this ultra-strict code the reader should vision the breaking away faction which leads to 'liberalism' in that. We must understand it in a comparative sense. But then as now: there will be younger spirits in our midst unto whom liberalism will lead to license. And beyond that group still 'younger' ones who will step up license into that of outright sin and evil.

In Russia there will be a gradual resurgence of the Communist spirit. The materialistic sciences will have made vast forward strides during the Millennial era. The normal span of human life will be much prolonged. This will be added to further by their adopting certain measures from the Law of life unto Immortality. The net result will be that the materialistically oriented sciences in so many lands headed by Russia will be able to offer unto its people vastly increased health and strength, plus a normal life expectancy of one hundred and twenty years, while some attaining much more. 'ALL THIS' will be their propaganda, 'plus the fullest enjoyment of all that life and earth can offer, without the slightest subservience to the Jerusalem maniacs whom their god could not tolerate but left behind.'

We can readily see how such propaganda – backed up by the facts of vastly increased health, strength and longevity will appeal to and captivate the younger spirits incarnate in those lands. THUS will the way again become paved for world society to split into two distinct factions: one led by the SONS of God, the other by leaders of the materialistically oriented sciences. The world center for the latter will be in Russia, directed by the revitalized spirit of communism. THEN as now, EVIL breeds within itself a fervent hatred of that which is GOOD. Therefore will they plan and labor to the end that the 'camp of the saints' (centered in Jerusalem) shall be wiped from off the face of the earth.

A Renovated Earth

*"And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea. And God will wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death; neither sorrow nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away." —Rev 21:1-4

That bespeaks the renovated earth AFTER Lucifer's last spree when he leads Gog and Magog against the camp of the glorified ones (Rev 20:8-9). The giant, super-nuclear bomb which will then be catapulted into the holy city of the saints, will setup that chain reaction required to ignite the earth's entire atmosphere. And with the atmosphere's consumption will also go up our oceans ("and there was no more sea"). All forms of life – as we now know them – will be extinct. Yet we see by the same chapter that the earth will again be peopled by a new humanity: deathless beings not dependent on air nor water.

Our scientists make the perpetual mistake of assuming that unless a planet has an atmosphere and temperature similar to our own, that it is without 'life'. Indeed 'life' is not thus handicapped.

After that our earth has been renovated by fire; with the atmosphere and oceans no more; then will the new humanity (creators in-the-making) pass thru their final schooling in working with the primitive elements and gases: refining, changing and creating (new elements).

How lamentably few in Christendom have ever realized the awe-inspiring Truth and terrific dynamic of God's words: "So God created man in His own image, in the image of God created He him!" And, since we are not to worship the 'image', we know that the begotten spirit within is destined for the stature of its Divine Parent: eventually to be a 'creator' like unto the Father. We – the rebel spirits – who were once in Lucifer's 'tail', had our basic training in the primal gases, cut off. The 'angels' completed theirs. By contrast we might be compared to some youngsters of today, who thru some hideous misdemeanor, were expelled from school permanently when in Grade 3. But thru the unfathomable love of a Father and the unspeakable suffering of a 'Savior', the way was prepared for our reinstatement and concluding education. For those of us who ACCEPT His sacrifice, this final tutoring will take place on the renovated earth in eons yet to vault from out His fire.

There will be a difference! We have dipped to the strata of the lowest hell; and, in a measure, we have 'suffered with the damned.' And incidental to our being 'cast down into earth' (matter), we have come into possession of a physical body (engine), the POWERS of which shall become so transcendent that – in our 'graduating exercises' on the renovated earth, we shall approximate the power-potential of the Archangels – who are older than ourselves by the mists of countless eons! All this because our Father and SAVIOR paid the terrifying price to its suffering – most farthing – for YOU and for me.

To speak of our 'salvation' does nowhere near justice to that which He accomplished for us! HE actually clipped an 'eternity' from off the days of our 'schooling' and growing up!

Today a trained surgeon may slash open a chest to massage a faltered heart back into action; while a citizen of the renovated earth would simply increase the vibration of his hand sufficiently to dip through living flesh : a bloodless 'operation' Or instead of grueling hours for a specialist to remove a brain tumor, the 'new humanity' man could dip through the bone: sear off the tumor and take it out. Today our scientists have their atom smashers. Within their stupendously powerful cyclotrons they have already affected the formation of new elements. (I doubt that we could properly use the word "created"). Our scientists in the physical, with their cyclotrons, might be compared to a creator on the plane of God, who brings about elemental changes thru controlled vibration. But a Son of the New Humanity will need no such contraption as a cyclotron; for, his very physical body IS A CYCLOTRON so fantastically perfected that what our scientists of today have, are but crude toys by contrast! While the Spirit within will be the Power-house. (More correctly speaking, the 'transformer'. For, God alone is the one and only Power -Station – from whom all must draw.) Sons of the New Humanity will not only be able to 'smash atoms' as do our modern scientists, but they will be able to assemble them according to the desired functioning – or planned purpose for the atom. MATURING sons of Jesus Christ!

Today we have motorized equipment: mechanical-electronic. But the New Humanity shall be able to incorporate living material as sensitive as is our sympathetic nervous system! Such a machine will fully obey every thot of its maker; or could be used by an angelic entity as effectively as we use our bodies of today. While the graduating Masters of that age will also be able to instantly dissolve material objects, and re-assemble, of 'materialize' them where wanted. In fact THAT is the ultimate destiny of this very earth, that, when in eons to come, a sufficient number of its Master-Sons have "graduated" the combined 'voltage' channeled by their Power-tubes, shall be sufficient to fully TRANS FORM the entire earth-substance. It shall then flux at their will – like living substance in the hands of God! THAT will be the commencement of a New, or super-physical universe the Edenic-Paradise – arena for the full-grown Sons of Jesus Christ! For us He sacrificed a paid to the uttermost as much as it is possible for even a 'God' to do! Therefore the transcendent GLORY for all who fully accept Him, and who go on into the consummation of "overcoming."

With the ultimate of this vision in mind, perhaps the blundering suffering mortal of today will understand – in a measure – the depth and scope of the Father's reasons for permitting that which we might think of as our 'debacle in sin.'

Agony wrenched moments have walked with the children of man; anguish and sorrow have haunted his pilgrimage on earth – until the human soul has cried out in stark despair, THAT was not the Father's will. The angels who 'kept their first estate' remained in the Father's will. We have but reaped the consequence of willful error.

Yet thru a seed with a Divine vortex from the Compassionate One, shall the intensity of feeling we have endured on our pilgrimage, be channeled to that vibrational pitch: the essence of which shall equate to more than the substance of that which has been garnered by HIS spirit-children of our own age who remained within His perfect will.

In that day shall we love Him all the more as we enter into the enjoyment of that 'loot' He won for us – incidental to our redemption.

“He that overcomes shall inherit all things, and I will be his God, and he shall be my SON!” – Rev 21:7.

(The 8th, and greatest of the covenants voiced by the Glorified One – unto all who reach the cube of 2 in overcoming).

A Question Answered

A dear personal friend and student has submitted a question. Since it is realized that it could arise as a vexing question in the mind of others, it will here be dealt with for the good of all. Substantially, my friend said: I also believe that there is a return, overcoming out again from the flames of ‘Gehenna’. But what about the statement of our Lord in His parable where He has Abraham saying that ‘between us and you there is fixed a great chasm; so that they who would pass from here to you cannot; neither from there to come here.’ So what about that?” This is the type of a question I like: it shows that the person THINKS, and searches for the TRUTH.

Were our entire future to be dependent upon our own capacities’ many problems would arise to delay or thwart us thru endless eternities’. But we have a God and Savior who IS MASTER OF ALL SITUATIONS. And for US He descended into the lowest hell, and drank to the final consummation the bitterest dregs the cup of pain which human flesh can endure into death. Therefore, WE shall never have any problem – except to FOLLOW THROUGH.

Overlook not how in the same parable He said that at the death of Lazarus, the messengers (‘angels’) came for Lazarus and ‘carried him into Abraham’s bosom.’ Why was he ‘carried’? Because to him there was a ‘chasm’, or void which he had not the power to traverse. It is like unto our atmosphere thru which fish have not the power to travel: to them it is a void but to birds the native realm. And now man is building machines by which to traverse the interstellar void. Manifestly, then: the Creator Who fixed that chasm or void separating between ‘the bosom of Abraham’ and the nether realm, is complete MASTER of the situation. As our Lord on His ascension ‘led away a multitude of captives; so similarly is He well able to provide transportation (IF needs be) for the spirits after they have been denuded in the flames of Gehenna.

When that ‘uttermost farthing’ has been paid’ (the loss of both physical and soul-bodies), then shall arise from out the destroying flame, a multitude of naked and humbled spirits, with but one thing in common: a fiercely consuming mania – THE FATHER’S WILL TO DO.

In that one glorious moment can the Son of God lay down His scepter; for, there remains none of His over which to “RULE”; but LOVE: that unifying magic which swells into a symphonic overture when ‘the Father shall be all in all.’

Prophecy for our Day

Then the word of the LORD came to Jonah a second time:

“Go to the great city of Nineveh and proclaim to it the message I give you.” Jonah obeyed the word of the LORD and went to Nineveh. Now Nineveh was a very important city—a visit required three days. On the first day, Jonah started into the city. He proclaimed: “Forty more days and Nineveh will be overturned.”- Jonah 3:1-4.

As the crowds increased, Jesus said, “This is a wicked generation. It asks for a miraculous sign, but none will be given it except the sign of Jonah. For as Jonah was a sign to the Ninevites, so also will the Son of Man be to this generation. The men of Nineveh will stand up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it; for they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and now one greater than Jonah is here. Luke 11:29-30, 32.

Usually, the words of our Lord about Jonah’s 3 days in the fish (Mat 12:40) is the only portion of the Jonah-prophecy used by our ministers. But we should not thus ‘limit the Holy One of Israel’. HE irradiates the ineffable LIGHT. That LIGHT encompasses and is all pervading. It has many color-facets; or phases of Truth-application unto man. Here, let us put it to a little closer scrutiny – that it may yield us more of its treasure.

Because of the words of our Lord, our ministers usually consider Jonah as a type of our Lord. There is a portion of Truth therein, yet equally as much error. Jonah means a ‘dove.’ Ever since the days of Noah, the dove – with her olive leaf has been considered the symbol of PEACE.

And true enough again, the Scripture declares that He should be called the ‘Prince of PEACE.’ — Yet what did the Christ say? “I came not to bring peace, but A SWORD!” (The sword stands for division and strife – to the end that the world may become DIVIDED into two camps: the sheep and the goats; and unto the individual that he may discern (divide) between Truth and error, and enter into a perpetual war against the forces of darkness.)

It is recorded for us that John the Baptist saw the Holy Spirit descend from heaven to abide on Jesus, in the form of A DOVE. It is the Holy Spirit who is fully represented by the dove (of peace). Even John the Baptist came out of the wilderness preaching REPENTANCE: to turn the hearts of the children to the fathers – PREPARING A WAY FOR THE LORD – lest our Lord should become grieved with the hardness of the people and smite the earth with a curse.

'Noah' means 'rest'. The first dove sent out found no REST for her feet. But when the waters were sufficiently abated, she plucked off a twig from an olive tree – bearing back the green leaves thereon. And still later she found REST for her feet – and returned no more.

We could even reflect with profit on the similarity between the names: Noah and Jonah (Rest and Peace), it is difficult to separate the two. And even so in the spelling of the names: Noah you find in Jonah but prefixed by a J. The J is the symbol of the fish hook – which Rome substituted for the Greek's soft "I" in 'lasous' (pronounced "Yaysous"), netting the modern form of Jesus. So God is telling us that the REST of Noah is to be found thru the PEACE of Jonah ('Iona'), or His Holy Spirit. Yet before that 'rest in peace' can become a permanent possession, the Sword of Division in the hand of our Lord must have its day, 'dividing between light and darkness.' While the fish hook (J) in the hand of the Master Fisherman must draw from out of the world's murky soul-waters, ALL who will bite ('unless you eat the flesh of the Son of man, you have no life in you')!

By the 8th chapter of Genesis, we see that a raven was sent forth; also the dove. The raven symbolizes the darkness fostered by Lucifer, while the dove His Holy Spirit – which searches for a token of PEACE (between rebellious man and God our Father). THREE times was the dove sent out – the last time not returning. THIS was prophetic unto the Gentile world (which Noah fathered). The first flight of the dove (His Holy Spirit) typified the era unto Christ, but the dove found NO REST for her feet. The second mission of His Holy Spirit, typifying the Christian dispensation enabled the dove to bring back a token of PEACE. The approaching Millennium and Kingdom eras constitute that measure of time prefigured by the doves third flight when she found REST for her feet when the children of men shall have 'come of age'; having entered into understanding; and found PEACE with the Spirit' of God.

With this basic backdrop unto an understanding of the prophecy, we look again to the mission of Jonah the prophet. Nineveh was the chief city of the ancient, Gentile world, and continued as such until about 606 BC when it was destroyed. Because of its chief importance, it becomes representative of the entire Gentile world and its era of duration.

God beheld that world as only fit for destruction; but at the preaching of Jonah, Nineveh repented (for a season). This marked the opening of the Christian era; and constituted the 'olive branch' brought back by the dove unto Noah. God – in His great compassion – spared the sin steeped world.

We see how Jonah entered into Nineveh a day's journey before he commenced preaching. In its first application, this measures from the time of Noah's flood (or very shortly thereafter when children were born to his descendants and the nuclei of cities commenced arising) until about 2657 AM (1657 + 1000 years = 2657). Allowing that short interim of time (about ten years) we see that this 'day's journey' reached unto the Aaronitish priesthood when God thru His prophets commenced preaching unto the world society. (Aaron was consecrated in 2668 A M). But we see that the 'city' was of '3 days' journey'. Which measures into the 7th century AD at the time of the arising Great Schism, leading to the split between the Eastern and Western sections of the Christian Church.

Isaac was born unto Abraham at his age of 100. This I have shown forth as 'the number of God's manifestation to – and thru man'. Using this number for the 'day' man had to wait for God to fully speak, or manifest to him, AFTER that Noah's descendant's commenced building their cities, we get the following eras: 1657 AM + ?? + 300 + 4000 ('yet 40 days and Nineveh shall be overthrown') = 5957 AM, plus the one to two decades for the cities to commence arising: measuring to 1958 AD, plus the aforementioned decade or so: – THEN shall 'Nineveh' be destroyed. (The nations of today are feverishly preparing themselves to that end.)

Coming to that 'generation' to which our Lord spoke and said that He should be a sign to them – even as was Jonah unto the Ninevites, we find the prophetic pattern fulfilled on the short cycle.

By Mt: 3:1-6, the Impression is generally gathered that the ministry of John the Baptist was but an odd few months at the most as preceding the Jordan baptism of Jesus. Such a concept makes no sense. There is nothing in scripture nor history to indicate that a nation has ever come to repentance thru the preaching by anyone, in-the course of a few months. But our Scripture narratives compress time and events into a few words. As for instance in Lk 1:80 "And the child ..... waxed strong in spirit, and was in the deserts till the day of his showing unto Israel" might lead us to surmise that he was without education or normal upbringing; growing up with the beasts in the wilds ..... Yet he was the son of a priest. And common sense tells us that much to the contrary, he had the best of education and upbringing in keeping with the utmost available in his day. Which only goes to show us that we cannot apply an extreme interpretation to a terse Scripture passage. Luke 3:2-3 declares that 'the word of God came unto him' —and he came into all the country about Jordan, preaching the baptism of repentance.' It does not make sense to suppose that the 'country about Jordan' was the only area in which Israel were fit for, or in need of the Baptist's message. Was that the case, then the Baptist's preliminary ministry to 'prepare His way' was indeed a partial and inadequate one. THAT we cannot impute unto God whose love was for all of His people. It becomes, then, a far more reasonable supposition that John was an Itinerant preacher, perhaps for many years; fully delivering his message unto all the people of the entire Holy land. But that towards the approach of Jesus' baptism, the word of God came unto him in the wilderness, that he should go forth into the Jordan regions. THERE to remain and concentrate on the BAPTISMAL phase of his ministry, UNTIL he had baptized, and revealed the Messiah unto Israel by pointing his finger at 'the Lamb of God which takes away the sin of the world.'

So soon as we view the account rationally, and perceive the situation in its true light, we see at once that the prophetic pattern of Jonah unto Nineveh, repeated unto Jewry (which Jesus clearly implied in Lk 11:30). Thus the 3 days and the 40 on the shorter termination cycle for that 'generation', would amount to 43 years; necessitating the preparatory ministry of John to have commenced about 27 AD, lasting until about 30 AD to comprise the 'Nineveh' of his day. Thereafter the 'yet 40 days', within which also fell his BAPTISMAL ministry in the regions of Jordan. In 70 AD, Jewry suffered a complete eclipse, when their 'Nineveh' was no more!

Yet let us look again. At the coming of our Lord, He set up a new standard as applicable to prophetic measures peculiarly related to Himself. This was set forth in my writings many years ago showing that from the time of Jesus' appearing in the temple, being 'about His Father's business,' at the age of 12, unto Calvary's cross, was an even 21 years by the Hebrew calendar. This period He referred to as '12 hours.' That makes the full day measure 42 years (with a minor correction).

Since 1000 solar years are but as a 'day' with God, that reduces 'one hour' to 41 2/3rd years. These 24 hours in His day, correlate to, and are assigned to the charge of His '24 Elders' (spoken of earlier in this treatise).

So once more we view the prophetic pattern set by the prophet Jonah, to which Christ referred; saying that He (Jesus) would be like unto Jonah. But this time it will be applicable unto the Gentile world – of which Nineveh was the preeminent type.

Jonah entered into the city a day's journey first. This should not be taken in its extreme sense to imply an exact 24-hour period – precision clipped to the second, but rather as an approximation. Similarly do we see the fulfillment thereof since the birth of Jesus,. It was not until the later part of the first century that the 'preaching of that word which I bid you to preach' was proclaimed unto the far-flung Gentile world. And it entailed 'a three days' journey',. History underscores this in that the Emperors Constantine and Galerius issued edicts, proclaiming Christianity as the State religion in the years 311-313 AD.

Since the number 40 is that which God uses as the measure of testing and of warning, manifestly, the message had to first reach the entire representative number before the '40' of 'testing' could become effective.

Having seen thru history that the '3 days' journey veered slightly off the precision measure of 300 years, we should not conclude that the foregoing prophecy equating to 1968-69 AD, must necessarily fulfil in that split moment. Yet it is super-abundantly manifest thru the cross checking of prophecies, that we are now in the closing years of the Gentile era, when the 'Nineveh' of their building shall fall – to rise no more!

In the days of Jonah there was FAITH IN GOD and in His messengers – when a whole, vast metropolis repented at the preaching of one man! And so they were spared – for a season. In the days of our Lord and the preaching of John Baptist, there was a token repentance. Gentile society was spared, but the 'evil generation' in the days of Jesus was overthrown and their nation perished from their land.

Today the world is filled with preachers, and His word is available in about a thousand languages: yet where is there as much as one city which has truly repented?

Judge, therefore, what God's verdict shall be!

Have YOU found REST (Noah) thru PEACE (Jonah) with Him?

- * "Kiss the Son, lest He be angry, and you perish from the
- * way ('Nineveh's destruction'), when His wrath is kindled but
- * a little. BLESSED are all they that put their trust in Him." – Ps 2:12
